Vocations

Our topic Sunday night will focus on the vocation of Marriage. This sacrament, also referred to as Holy Matrimony, unites a man and woman to each other in a lifelong bond of love that includes a cooperation with God to bring children to life and care for them. Joseph and Antonia Nedder will share their marriage experience with us, including their courtship, trials and tribulations, raising a family and how their faith in God has sustained them. Please review Lesson 16 from the Chosen book prior to class.

Service: Christmas Mass Volunteers Needed Immediately

Confirmation candidates must participate with In-Parish and Out-of-Parish service opportunities (each of 3 hours minimum) before the Confirmation deadline of March 26, 2021.

Many hospitality volunteers are needed for the Christmas Masses and students are asked to assist as part of their service hours requirement.

Masses are being held at 3pm & 5pm at both parishes on Christmas Eve; at 12:00 midnight at St. Mary's; and at 8am at St. Martha's and 10:00 am and 12:00 noon at St. Mary's on Christmas day. Please email the Mass day and time you wish to volunteer to: Lolsen@pwc.church for St. Mary's or Mdelorenzo@pwc.church for St. Martha's Masses.
