Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time encourage tenacity and diligence in our spiritual affairs. The first reading is taken from the Book of Exodus and presents one of the early Israelite battles and victories they experienced during their forty-year journey through the desert to the Promised Land, an experience that taught Moses and the Israelites about the fidelity of God and the fragility of humanity.

The second reading from 2 Timothy presents one of the most commonly quoted references in the New Testament to divine inspiration: "All scripture is inspired by God and is useful in teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work"

The Gospel reading is the parable of the Persistent Widow. Included in this parable is the Lucan theme of the great reversal in fortune for the weak and marginalized in Jesus' good news about the kingdom of God. The parable ends with Jesus challenging his disciples: "But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Adapted from Liturgical Publications Inc, Connect! Uniting Word & World, Dr. Daniel J. Scholz.

World Mission Sunday Oct. 20th

While most of us will never be in a position to travel the world spreading the Gospel message, our Catholic identity, given in baptism, calls each of us to be missionaries. This call we can answer by supporting with our prayers and contributions those who do so in the name of the Church Universal. Next Sunday, we celebrate World Mission Sunday to raise an awareness of the needs of our missionaries and to afford us an opportunity to make a charitable donation.

With thanks and prayerful best wishes,
I am, Faithfully in Christ,
Timothy M. Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

In advance of the 2020 Census, the U.S. Census Bureau is recruiting thousands of people for temporary jobs across the country.

These positions provide the perfect opportunity to earn some extra income while helping your community. The results of the 2020 Census will help determine each state's representation in Congress, as well as how certain funds are spent for schools, hospitals, roads, and more. This is your chance to play a part in history and help ensure that everyone in your community is counted!

For information about these positions please visit:

<https://2020census.gov/en/jobs/job-details.html>

Or call your area census office at 1-855-JOB-2020 (1-855-562-2020) and select option 3. You may also use the Federal Relay Service at 1-800-877-8339 for TTY/ASCI.
