Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time teach about the importance of humility and persistence in prayer. The first reading, taken from the Book of Sirach, takes up the subject of God and prayer. In this reading, the Jewish sage makes three important points on this subject: first, while completely impartial, God hears especially the lament of the oppressed; second, the one who is obedient and serves God is highly valued; third, the "prayer of the lowly" is heard and responded to by God.

The reading from Paul's Second Letter to Timothy begins by acknowledging that his public ministry to the Gentiles is near its end. The reading concludes with Paul recollecting moments of doubt and fear, but also highlighting the strength he drew from Christ to carry on his evangelization of the Gentiles.

In today's Gospel, Jesus compares the self-righteous, self-serving, and judgmental pray of a Pharisee, an otherwise respected religious leader of the people, to the sincere and sorrowful prayer of a tax collector, a known and often despised collaborator with the Roman occupiers. Like the Jewish sage from the Book of Sirach, Jesus makes the critical connection that regardless of position or station in life, God hears the prayer of people impartially, rewarding those who are humble of heart.

Upcoming dates in the NYC area are: Oct. 19th(Spanish), Nov. 9th, and more dates in 2020. Un “Día de Oración y Sanación” ofrece la oportunidad para experimentar el amor y la misericordia de Dios y para responder a Su invitación de empezar el camino de sanar la herida del aborto. Las próximas fechas en Nueva York son: 19 de octubre (español), 9 noviembre (inglés) y más en 2020. Para más fechas, ubicaciones y registro confidencial, favor de comunicarse con Hna. These positions provide the perfect opportunity to earn some extra income while helping your community. The results of the 2020 Census will help determine each state's representation in Congress, as well as how certain funds are spent for schools, hospitals, roads, and more.
