Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Discipleship in the Gospel of Luke carries a very clear set of expectations. Among other things, a disciple must keep a proper attitude toward wealth and possessions.

In today's Gospel, as Jesus continues on his journey to Jerusalem, someone from the crowd makes a request of him: "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." Rather than get involved in family matters between siblings and inheritance rights, Jesus offers two responses. Jesus' first immediate response is to give some simple advice, a warning against greed and the desire for material possessions. Jesus' second and more measured response is to tell a parable to the crowd. The parable of the Rich Fool. For Jesus' audience, the rich man would have been judged as foolish and even dishonorable because he chose not to share his surplus wealth with others who would have granted him public praise and earned him an honorable reputation as a generous patron to others within his community. But Jesus discourages this typical reaction by inviting the crowd to go beyond the desire for material possessions and the acquisition of a higher honor; seek instead the spiritual treasure offered by God—eternal life through his Son.

STM - SPRING SEMI-ANNUAL APPEAL

CONTINUES: This year we plan to go beyond simply making up for much lower Sunday collections during the warm months and look to building up reserves for major projects and programs – i.e. new weekly

CAREGIVERCARE programs born to protect senior brain health. Please read our appeal letter carefully and respond as generously as you can.

Next Sunday's Special Collection
The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa supports the Church in the region by funding grants for projects that range from religious formation to developing local parishes. With your help, the Church in Africa can turn its potential into reality and work to confront challenges by meeting the spiritual and charitable needs of its people. The Church in Africa needs you. Please give generously.

Mission Appeal - August 17th & 18th

This year two missionaries, Fr. Théophile Bessan, MCCJ and Fr. Patrick Elia Lipenga, MCCJ, from the Comboni Missionaries of the Heart of Jesus, will speak at each of the Masses in our two Churches. The purpose of this visit is to encourage parishioners to support the work of their order in Africa and Latin America. Currently the order is assisting with refugee resettlement in the Sudan, Darfur, Uganda and the Congo, AIDS prevention programs, orphan assistance, women's education, and establishing sources of safe drinking water in Ethiopia, Eritrea and Kenya.

It is our hope that you will find their presentations both encouraging and worthy of your support.

Personal Assisted Listening Systems
 The Our Lady of Good Counsel & St. Thomas More Parish will now begin to offer Personal Assisted Listening Systems at each Sunday Mass.
 This system will benefit those who are hearing impaired who wish to use either an on-ear device or a device that will work with their current hearing aid.
If you wish to use a device, while attending a Sunday Mass at STM, please contact an Usher prior to the start of Mass.
Unfortunately, we are still waiting for a cadre of Ushers to be formed at OLGC to manage the distribution and return of this equipment. If you would like to serve as a Church Usher please contact stmprograms@gmail.com or call 212-876-7718 to volunteer for this meaningful service.
