Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time remind us that we are invited to the feast, the kingdom of heaven, and that we have to be ready to respond when that invitation comes. We hear in the first reading from Isaiah the long-standing prophetic tradition of God's promise to "provide for all peoples a feast of juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines." In the telling of the parable of the wedding feast, Jesus may well have had in mind Isaiah's prophetic words spoken nearly eight hundred years earlier to the ancient Israelites in the southern kingdom of Judah.

In the second reading, we hear Paul's concluding remarks to his beloved Christian community in the city of Philippi. In these remarks, he reveals "the secret" to his success both in times of hunger and in times of abundance: "I can do all things in him who strengthens me."

In the Gospel reading for today we hear a parable from Jesus comparing the kingdom of heaven to a wedding feast. Just as the parables of the past two Sundays, Jesus once again directs this address to the religious leaders of Jerusalem. In telling this parable, Jesus communicates two important messages about the kingdom of heaven. First, the invitation to enter the kingdom of heaven is radically inclusive: "Invite to the feast whomever you find. The servants...gathered all they found, bad and good alike." The second important message is that all are held equally to the same standard, good and bad alike, Jew and Gentile alike in the kingdom of heaven.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO ENCOUNTER CHRIST

We are planning to run a Catholic Charities sponsored Pop Up Food Pantry Distribution Program on November 6th from 9:30 to Noon in front of OLG. To participate in this opportunity, we need you to volunteer to assist in the distribution of the food, in maintaining order/ social distancing on the line, and in clean up. If interested please call 212-876-7718 or email stmparishprograms@gmail.com. Jesus has told us that when we give food or drink to a person in need, we are in fact giving it to Him. Here is your chance to do exactly that.

Preparing for Baptism of your First Child:

Parents MUST Pre-Register for a Preparation Meeting and Attend a Meeting on the first Tuesday evening of the month at 7:00PM in the OLG Rectory.

The Next Session will be held on Tuesday November 3rd To Pre-Register for the Meeting call 212-289-1742 by 6pm on the day before the class. Baptisms take place on Sundays afternoons (12:30pm at OLG & 1pm at STM).

To schedule Baptisms for other children please call your Church Rectory

DONATE TO NEW YORK COMMON PANTRY THROUGH AMAZON

As a community we are facing unprecedented circumstances which have disproportionately impacted the poorer neighborhoods of New York City. As the number of people out of work increases, the number of people who depend on our pantry for services will continue to increase. Since March 16th New York Common Pantry has given out over 600,000 meals. We ask you to continue to support this mission to ensure everyone in need gets a meal and their pantry packages by donating through the Amazon Food Drive.

Parish Book Club

Thursday, Oct. 22nd at 7pm - STM Rochester Room

Book: A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles. A fun, clever, and surprisingly upbeat look at Russian history through the eyes of one man, Count Alexander Ilyich Rostov, who was sentenced in 1922 to spend his life under house arrest in Moscow's Metropol Hotel. The book follows the Count for the next thirty years as he makes the most of his life despite its limitations. If you can't come in person, join the Telephone Conference Call (712) 770 5505 and enter access code 327632#.

The St. John the Baptist Film Society Presents:

The Two Popes* - A 2019 Netflix Original Film.

Sunday, Oct. 25th at 3:30pm - OLGC Parish Hall

This film, inspired by true events, will be shown in English (2hours and 5minutes) and follows Pope Benedict XVI, played by Anthony Hopkins, as he attempts to convince Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio (the future Pope Francis), played by Jonathan Pryce, to reconsider his decision to resign as an Archbishop as he confides his own intentions to abdicate the papacy. Behind Vatican walls, the conservative Pope Benedict XVI and the liberal future Pope Francis must find common ground to forge a new path for the Catholic Church.

Seating is limited and we will seat only as many as guidelines allow.

If you do not wish to view in person you may also join via Zoom.

Next Sunday's Second Collection World Mission Sunday

During the Mission Month of October, Pope Francis reminds us that, as Christians, we are called personally to mission – especially at this time – to bring Christ's love to those most forgotten around the world. Jesus is God the Father's Missionary; He asks us to respond to this call to mission, this invitation to "step out of ourselves to love God and neighbor." This year, in response to this invitation and the challenges created by the pandemic, I invite you to consider a sacrificial gift to the annual World Mission Sunday collection, on October 17th and 18th. Your generous support will enable the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to continue to spread the growing faith communities of our day.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,
Devotedly yours in Christ
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York
