Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time serve as a warning to use the gifts that God has provided for each of us. The first reading taken from the Book of Proverbs is a section titled "the ideal wife." Within the description of the ideal wife, our sage notes: "Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised." "Fear" of the Lord should not be understood in its narrowest sense, to be afraid of God. Rather, "fear" of the Lord entails the respect and honor we owe to our Creator.

In the second reading from the First Letter to the Thessalonians, Paul takes up the subject of the end-time and the return of Christ. In this reading, Paul makes three assertions about the return of Christ. First, no one knows the exact time of its arrival. Second, Jesus' return (and the judgment that follows) is inevitable despite what others may say. Third, believers in Christ have nothing to fear.

In today's Gospel Jesus directs the parable of the talents to his disciples as his passion and death in Jerusalem are quickly approaching. Once again, this is a parable describing the kingdom of heaven in the future tense, when the eschaton ("end-time") has arrived and God's judgment sets in. Jesus invites the disciples to reflect on their own lives in terms of the "talents" (in Greek, literally a unit of coinage of varying worth) they have received from God.

Next Week's Second Collection Catholic Charities Campaign for Charity and Justice

Beginning in 2017 with the centennial of Catholic Charities, I was pleased to inaugurate the Catholic Charities Campaign for Charity and Justice, which provided an important opportunity to reinforce the engaging acts of charity and justice being done in our own parishes. Since the inception of this campaign, I am happy to share that, due to your characteristic generosity, more than 25 parishes and community-based works of charity across the archdiocese were able to receive grants to serve our neediest neighbors.

Your support makes a real difference for people living in poverty across our archdiocese, and I ask you to consider a sacrificial gift to this campaign through next week's (11/22/2020) second collection or by visiting www.catholiccharitiesny.org/ccj/.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes to all for a blessed and Happy Thanksgiving, I am,

Devotedly yours in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

This month our own CareGiverCare received a grant of $10,000 from this campaign to support the continuation of its varied programs.

Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal:

The ongoing situation surrounding COVID-19 (Coronavirus) has caused prudent cancellations and closings for many schools, offices, and public places through the city, state, and country, and although I understand that the financial circumstances of many of our families are uncertain, I invite you to view the message from Cardinal Dolan about the importance of this Appeal at <https://cardinalsappeal.org/> and I humbly and thankfully invite you to become an online giver at <https://cardinalsappeal.org/donate>. Please make sure to choose our official parish name "Our Lady of Good Counsel and St. Thomas More" from the drop down menu. You can also fill out and mail the pledge envelope recently mailed to you from His Eminence, or found at the back of the Church.

Book: The Dubliners by James Joyce

This work of art reflects life in Ireland at the turn of the last century, and by rejecting euphemism, reveals to the Irish their unromantic realities. Each of the 15 short stories offers glimpses into the lives of ordinary Dubliners, and collectively they paint a portrait of a nation.

Catholic Charities Junior Board: Midnight Run 1011 1st Ave. Every 2nd Wed. of the Month at 7:30pm

The Midnight Run is a great and casual way to get to know some of the Junior Board’s members — you can ask questions, make new friends, and help needy New Yorkers. And thankfully, the Midnight Run doesn’t happen at midnight, nor does it involve running! It’s easy! What you’ll do: Volunteers bring in an item of food (assignments are emailed beforehand), and then quickly assemble lunch bags (a speedy 20-30 minutes!). Completed lunch bags are divided among volunteers and each volunteer is free to distribute them to the homeless on their way home. The Catholic Charities Junior Board introduces young professionals (ages 21-40) to the wide array of programs and works of Catholic Charities through volunteer opportunities, social gatherings, faith-based events, and philanthropic support.
