Fifth Sunday of Easter

In the readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter, we see that through all the struggles and the growing pains of the early Christian communities, they remained focused on their faith in the resurrected Christ. Today's first reading from Acts opens with the comment, "The number of disciples continued to grow." Two issues were quickly emerging: how best to handle community members with different cultural backgrounds and how best to serve the special needs of specific community members (the "widows"). Peter and the apostles found a solution: "Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men." We see in this decision by the apostles the early stages of an emerging church structure that impacts the Church to this day. The office of deacon (from the Greek, diakonia, translated as "service") has as its patron Saint Stephen, who was one of the seven.

We continue to hear from 1 Peter as the second reading during the Easter season. Throughout the letter, the author inserts texts from the Hebrew Scriptures as a means of demonstrating how Jesus is the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies.

The Gospel reading is taken from John's farewell discourse. The apostles struggle to understand the meaning of Jesus' words in terms of his destiny and his identity with the Father. In terms of his destiny, they know the way: simply follow Jesus for he is "the way and the truth and the life." In terms of being shown the Father, Jesus again confirms for them: "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father."

Coronavirus Update: The Archdiocese will continue to monitor advisories from Catholic and other organizations regarding precautions on the Coronavirus and share any appropriate information with all of the faithful and specifically with the OLG&STM parish.

All public Masses are canceled, until further notice, including both Sunday and weekday Masses. Both the church of Our Lady of Good Counsel and the church of St. Thomas More are open daily from 9:00am to 3:00pm for private prayer. Upon reasonable request, confessions may be heard, preferably by "appointment" in the parish office or some other appropriate place, such as the church when it is open for private prayer.

A very special thank you to our parishioners who recently helped deliver goods to our elder parishioners. Thank you for showing True Community Kindness.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are seeking volunteers to pick up and/or order groceries and sundries for elders in our parish community.

- As a volunteer, you are supplied with a list of goods to purchase and an address to deliver to.
- Pick up the goods and let Parish Programs know the final cost.
- Payment for goods would be left for volunteers at the address delivered to.

Message from the Vicar General: An Update on Cemetery Visitations for Mother's Day

The desire to visit our beloved dead is heightened on a day like Mother's Day. To accommodate this need, we have decided to open the five archdiocesan cemeteries for visitation this Sunday, May 10, from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. Take a moment to review and the guidelines that are provided in the following link. <https://archny.flocknote.com/note/7157072>

Please understand, parish cemeteries will make their own determination whether or not to open, and under what conditions they may do so.

Let us keep in touch with those most at risk (by phone) and keep each other and our world in prayer during these challenging times.

Act of Spiritual Communion: It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion is an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when one cannot receive Him in sacramental Communion. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Prayers of Praise: In addition to praying for communion with the Lord, it is also important to take time to offer God our praise. This can be done by celebrating the Liturgy of the Hours or through a Celebration of the Word service, which can be celebrated at home. We still need your support

Because of the ongoing health emergency the Archdiocese of New York has directed us to cancel all Masses in our parish. And although we support this decision to help keep our Parishioners, Clergy and Staff as healthy as possible, your support is still needed. To support our church today we urge you to enroll in the We Share collection system. It safe, simple and convenient and it gives you the option to contribute using a debit or credit card or your checking or savings account.

To enroll, use one of the following links:
