Seventh Sunday of Easter

The readings for the Seventh Sunday of Easter center on the importance of prayer in the life of a Christian. Whether in moments of joy or in moments of suffering, as people of faith, we instinctively turn to prayer. In the first reading from Acts of the Apostles, the theme of prayer continues. Luke reports that, immediately following Jesus' ascension into heaven, "All these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer." Luke's main point here is clear enough: Jesus' family and friends relied on prayer and on each other as they sought to understand the will of God in light of Jesus' death, resurrection, and ascension.

The First Letter of Peter concludes today with an excerpt toward the end of the letter where Peter speaks of Christian suffering. Peter develops a theology of suffering: "rejoice" in that suffering for belief in Christ establishes solidarity with Christ, not only in his suffering but also in his glory.

The Gospel reading is the conclusion to Jesus' farewell discourse to his disciples. In this discourse, the idea of Jesus' coming "hour" and its associated glory has been a motif running throughout the Gospel storyline, beginning with the wedding feast at Cana. In Jesus' prayer to the Father in today's reading, the arrival of the hour is a direct reference to Jesus' impending suffering, death, and resurrection, whereby the glory of God will be revealed.

New York Common Pantry – Food Drive

As a community we are facing unprecedented circumstances, which have disproportionately impacted the poorer neighborhoods of New York City. As the number of people out of work increases, the number of people who depend on our pantry for services will continue to increase. Since March 16th the Common Pantry has given out more than 560,000 meals. To help them continue their important work, please consider participating in their Amazon Food Drive.

To participate please use the following link https://smile.amazon.com/hz/charitylist/l/2ZQXFRSDD3CSX/ref=smi\_ext\_lnk\_lcl\_cl.

At this time they are especially in need of rice and pasta. Thank you for your continued efforts to help our neighbors in need.

Let us keep in touch with those most at risk (by phone) and keep each other and our world in prayer during these challenging times.

Act of Spiritual Communion: It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion is an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when one cannot receive Him in sacramental Communion. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Prayers of Praise: In addition to praying for communion with the Lord, it is also important to take time to offer God our praise. This can be done by celebrating the Liturgy of the Hours or through a Celebration of the Word service, which can be celebrated at home. The following publishers have graciously made these services available for free and online at the following links:
