Sixth Sunday of Easter

The readings for today teach us that any attempts at evangelization, past or present, can only be successful with the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit. In today's first reading we hear about the Samaritans' "Pentecost." Just as the Holy Spirit descended upon the Jews in Acts 2, now that same Spirit descends upon the Samaritans. The same will be true for the Gentiles, when the Spirit descended upon them in the household of Cornelius (Acts 10:44-48). Herein lays a very important theological assertion by Luke: Jesus Christ is the universal savior.

In the second reading the author of 1 Peter offers sound advice to evangelize with "gentleness and reverence." Advice which not only modeled Jesus' own ministry and those of the apostles after him, it also provided those suffering for the faith some leverage and power in an otherwise powerless and threatening situation.

The Gospel reading is a continuation from last Sunday's Last Supper discourse between Jesus and the apostles. In his ongoing efforts to comfort and inform the apostles of the upcoming events, Jesus introduces to them the idea of "another Advocate" who will assist believers to realize "that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you."

Coronavirus Update: The Archdiocese will continue to monitor advisories from Catholic and other organizations regarding precautions on the Coronavirus and share any appropriate information with all of the faithful and specifically with the OLG&STM parish.

All public Masses are canceled, until further notice, including both Sunday and weekday Masses. Both the church of Our Lady of Good Counsel and the church of St. Thomas More are open daily from 9:00am to 3:00pm for private prayer. Upon reasonable request, confessions may be heard, preferably by "appointment" in the parish office or some other appropriate place, such as the church when it is open for private prayer.

A very special thank you to our parishioners who recently helped deliver goods to our elder parishioners. Thank you for showing True Community Kindness.

New York Common Pantry – Food Drive

As a community we are facing unprecedented circumstances, which have disproportionately impacted the poorer neighborhoods of New York City. As the number of people out of work increases, the number of people who depend on our pantry for services will continue to increase. Since March 16th the Common Pantry has given out more than 560,000 meals. To help them continue their important work, please consider participating in their Amazon Food Drive.

To participate please use the following link https://smile.amazon.com/hz/charitylist/ls/2ZQXFRSDD3CSX/ref=smi_ext_lnk_lcl_cl.

At this time they are especially in need of rice and pasta.

Thank you for your continued efforts to help our neighbors in need.

Let us keep in touch with those most at risk (by phone) and keep each other and our world in prayer during these challenging times.

Act of Spiritual Communion: It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion is an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time or in circumstances when one cannot receive Him in sacramental Communion. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Prayers of Praise: In addition to praying for communion with the Lord, it is also important to take time to offer God our praise. This can be done by celebrating the Liturgy of the Hours or through a Celebration of the Word service, which can be celebrated at home.
