Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time point to the importance of a meek and humble heart as the proper disposition for the faithful. Christians of all ages are called to live in the Spirit. The first reading is from the prophet Zechariah. Among his many prophecies, one that stood out was the coming “Prince of Peace.” Zechariah envisioned a coming messianic age not ushered in by a warrior king, but rather, a king “proclaiming peace to the nations.”

In today’s reading, Paul speaks of the inherent tension between the Spirit and the flesh. Paul’s worldview in this regard is very basic: all people are slaves to either the flesh, which brings sin and therefore death, or to the Spirit, which brings eternal life.

The Gospel reading begins with Jesus offering a prayer to the Father. Jesus begins his prayer with a rather startling claim: “Although you [God] have hidden these things [the totality of Jesus’ good news about himself and the kingdom of heaven] from the wise and learned [the Scribes and Pharisees] you have revealed them to the little ones [the majority of Jesus’ followers: uneducated or untrained people].” In the second half of today’s Gospel reading, Jesus invites all those listening—the wise and the learned as well as the little ones—to “learn from me.” He offers the crowds the key to understanding the revelation of the Father and the Son: be “meek and humble of heart.”

Sunday Streaming Mass

Our parish will offer an on-line celebration of the Sunday Mass on July 5th at 10:00am.

To view the Mass, please visit our Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/thomasmorechurch/> or our Website www.olgstm.org (YouTube).

We encourage you to access the on-line remote-worship resources that are available to you.

Our virtual Sunday Liturgy has been very successful with literally hundreds of viewers tuning in every week. It has provided a spiritual connection with our parish during those months when we have not been able to worship together. That has all been possible because of the dedicated service of Omar Tungekar, one of our young parishioners.

Unfortunately Omar will soon be leaving NYC and we will no longer have the use of his services. Still, he is willing to share with anyone who would be willing to continue this valuable ministry some of the techniques he has picked up in the process. All that one needs is a smart phone and the willingness to learn. One need not have any background in video transmission. If you would wish to continue this ministry to your fellow parishioners please call the Parish Office at Our Lady of Good Counsel (212-289-1742) or at St. Thomas More (212-876-7718).

New York Common Pantry – Food Drive

As a community we are facing unprecedented circumstances, which have disproportionately impacted the poorer neighborhoods of New York City. As the number of people out of work increases, the number of people who depend on our pantry for services will continue to increase. Since March 16th the Common Pantry has given out more than 560,000 meals. To help them continue their important work, please consider participating in their Amazon Food Drive.

To participate please use the following link https://smile.amazon.com/hz/charitylist/ls/2ZQXFRSDD3CSX/ref=smi_ext_lnk_lcl_cl.

At this time they are especially in need of rice and pasta. Thank you for your continued efforts to help our neighbors in need.

Black and Indian Missions

Next Sunday our second collection will be taken to help support the Black and Indian Missions. From the inner cities of the rural south to the deserts of the southwest to the wilderness of Alaska, grants from this annual appeal make it possible for the Church to assist our Black and Indian Catholic Communities. Here in the archdiocese, our Pierre Toussaint Scholarship Program receives support from this collection allowing us to provide mentoring to college students from our Harlem and Bronx parishes.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes we invite you to generously support this crucially important and necessary ministry of the Church.

We still need your support

To support our church today we urge you to enroll in the We Share collection system. It safe, simple and convenient and it gives you the option to contribute using a debit or credit card or your checking or savings account.

To enroll, use one of the following links:
