Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time remind us of God's presence in our moments of doubt and fear. The first reading comes from the First Book of Kings and it is the concluding section to the larger story of the battle between the prophet Elijah and the prophets of Baal. In today's reading we hear how the Lord reached out to Elijah as "a tiny whispering sound" to comfort and encourage him.

For the second reading we hear from Paul's Letter to the Romans. In today's reading, Paul begins to address one of his more vexing problems: how do Jews and Gentiles fit into God's master plan for salvation history? More specifically, how do non-believing Jews fit into God's plan for salvation?

In today's Gospel from Matthew, we hear the miracle story of Jesus walking on the water. In this reading, it is Peter who had the courage to speak for the other disciples, to follow Jesus' command and walk on the water, and it is Peter's instincts to call out to Jesus when he was sinking, "Lord, save me!" This exchange between Jesus and Peter reveals not only Jesus' divine nature, but also Peter's depth of faith and trust in the Lord when he was in fear. It was by learning to trust Jesus when all seemed lost that Peter and the disciples could profess in faith: "Truly, you are the Son of God."

Sunday Streaming Mass

Our parish will offer an on-line celebration of the Sunday Mass on August 9th at 10:00am.

To view the Mass, please visit our Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/thomasmorechurch/> or our Website www.olgctm.org (YouTube).

We encourage you to access the on-line remote-worship resources that are available to you.

Our virtual Sunday Liturgy has been very successful with literally hundreds of viewers tuning in every week. It has provided a spiritual connection with our parish during those months when we have not been able to worship together. That has all been possible because of the dedicated service of Omar Tungekar, one of our young parishioners.
