Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time address the mystery and meaning of Jesus' suffering and death.

The closing words from Jesus in today's Gospel reading are key to putting the cross in perspective: "For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." Jesus offers these remarks in response to James and John, who are reacting to Jesus' third Passion prediction. Jesus uses the request by James and John to foreshadow to them and the other apostles their upcoming martyrdom: "The cup that I drink, you will drink." But he also uses their request to teach the apostles about the importance of servant leadership: "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." This sets the context for helping the apostles understand how Jesus' death on the cross is the ultimate act of service to others.

Next Sunday's Second Collection World Mission Sunday

During the Mission Month of October, Pope Francis reminds us that, as Christians, we are called personally to mission – especially at this time – to bring Christ's love to those most forgotten around the world. Jesus is God the Father's Missionary; He asks us to respond to this call to mission, this invitation to "step out of ourselves to love God and neighbor." This year, in response to this invitation and the challenges created by the pandemic, I invite you to consider a sacrificial gift to the annual World Mission Sunday collection, on October 23rd and 24th. Your generous support will enable the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to continue to spread the growing faith communities of our day.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,
Devotedly yours in Christ
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

In an effort to continue our fight against Covid-19, the Center for Disease Control and the Archdiocese of New York strongly recommends that parishioners should wear masks and observe social distancing while in church.

Wednesday Night at the Movies

October 20th – 6:30pm

Stuart Little (1999 PG 1 hr 30 minutes)

The classic children’s book comes to life in this fun, silly adaptation. The Little family goes to an orphanage to adopt a new family member, only to become smitten with a charming young mouse named Stuart. Stuart’s new, human older brother George is initially unwelcoming to his new brother, and the family cat, Snowbell, is positively enraged that a mouse is his new “master.” Despite the challenging new arrangement, Stuart summons as much charm and courage as he can muster to convince his new family he belongs!
