

CHURCH OF SAINT THOMAS MORE
65 EAST 89TH STREET, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10128-1284
PARISH COUNCIL ELECTION 2013

THE FOLLOWING PARISHIONERS ARE RUNNING FOR REELECTION TO A TWO-YEAR TERM ON THE PARISH COUNCIL. Please select up to four candidates. The election runs from Saturday, May, 25th through Sunday, June 9th. Thank you for your interest.

JAMES DILLON

Jim and his wife Carol have been parishioners at STM for 26 years. In addition to being married here, their children, Emily, Charlotte and James, Jr. were all baptized at STM and were actively involved in numerous parish activities over the years. Jim served on the Parish Council in the early 1990s, and currently serves on its Communications Committee with principal responsibility for the Lector Program. After a 35-year private sector career in Finance, Jim joined the staff of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York two-and-a-half years ago for a “second act” career in public service. Jim was raised in upper Manhattan where he attended St. Elizabeth’s School followed by Fordham Prep and Manhattan College. He also earned an MBA at Columbia University.

JACQUELINE MORRISS

Jackie Morriss currently serves on the Communications Committee as part of the team responsible for launching the new website, updating the parish brochure and producing/marketing STM’s note cards. Jackie recently retired from a 30-year career on Wall Street where she was involved in both trading and sales of Fixed Income and Foreign Exchange products to multi-national corporations and financial sponsors. As for volunteer work, Jackie served as Chair of the Board of Trustees of Dominican Academy from 2009-11, and headed its Finance Committee from 2006-9. She is currently an active volunteer at Convent of the Sacred Heart, her daughter Clare’s school. Jackie and her husband John Morriss were married at STM. John has served on both the STM Parish Council and Finance Council.

NANCY PIETRI

Nancy grew up in Atlanta, Georgia and attended Christ the King School and St. Pius X Catholic High School. After St. Pius, Nancy went to Hollins University in Virginia where she earned a B.A. in American Studies and played varsity tennis. She is a sustaining member of the City of New York Junior League. Nancy is an active community and school volunteer and has been a STM parishioner for eleven years. She currently serves on the Parish Council’s Communication Committee. Nancy and her husband Todd have two children, Lucille and Grant, who attend Marymount School and St. David’s, respectively.

ELIZABETH WILLIAMS

Elizabeth has served on the Parish Council for four years and is currently its Vice President. She spent fourteen years in the apparel industry, most recently as the Design Director at Joseph Abboud. She is a graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design. Elizabeth has run the STM Family Mass Coffee Hour for the last three years, and volunteers on both the Social and Youth Committees. She has two sons who were baptized at STM. Her eldest will enter kindergarten at St. Bernard’s School in the fall and her youngest attends The Episcopal School.
