From the Pastor...

It is the time of year to think about summer vacation. The students are off and time to find a way to keep them busy. Guggenheim Camp is one possibility. A week of camp and fun things to do. I will be the chaplain at Camp Guggenheim 22 -27 July. It is always a fun week.

Another summer project is the "Its Our Church Its Our Future" financial campaign will be held here in Tupper Lake this season. Soon you will receive information for this campaign.

Thinking ahead Vacation Bible School in August. Altar Server trip to Enchanted Forest in August. Server Picnic in Ogdensburg in August..

Some have asked how my Mom is doing. She is staying at at my twin's parish in Black River. The rectory is all on one level. Mom needs 24 hour care so my sister is in charge of the schedule. Fr. Bob brings Mom home on Thursday to our old farm house. She is happy to be there. She watches the Amish neighbors and she watches to new baby horse in our back yard. I say, "Mom are you happy to be here with the twins?" and she says, "yes". We have never taken our 4 weeks of annual vacation. This year we may need to to take care of Mom. Time will tell. Thank you for their prayers. Keep them coming. It isn't easy to bring up parents these days.
