From the Pastor...

Hope you enjoyed the 4th of July. Some are saying it is too hot. Just think back to last January. Our summers are very short compared to the long winter.. Hope you are reading the information on the financial campaign. We will continue to hear more about it at the parish receptions. Hope you will sign up for the receptions and see what this campaign is about.

Different ones ask how my Mom is doing. I took part of last week to take care of her at her old farm house. She lights up when we get her HOME. She has a chair i by the window where she can watch the Amish neighbors. Then we have a new pony in the back pasture. She loves to watch the baby horse follow its Mom. My Mom amazes me at 98. She is needing 24 hour care. But when she is home with me she takes care of herself. She is not one to be waited on. So I let her do what she can. I say to Her,"Are you happy to be home." She answers,"Yes." Are you happy to be with the twins? She says, "Yes" So there you are... What more could you ask...
