St. Alphonsus Sanctuary Candle for A Special Intention by a Parishioner

From the Pastor...

Since Summer, people have been asking, "When will Holy Name close"? The answer is we really don't know. The Parish Council and the parish clergy have raised the question, "Why not close Holy Name for the Winter season"? Really close...and move the 8:30am Mass to St. Alphonsus. This would save us big money from the heat bill. Remember last Winter, even keeping the heat at 55 degrees all week and 62 degrees on Sunday the fuel cost was $8,630.00. We will have to drain the pipes and lower the thermostats for the Winter. Different parishioners have suggested this plan. We will put this in place beginning November 4, 2018 and plan to return to normal schedule for Easter Sunday. I realize these changes are not easy for some people. We have to move forward in faith. God calls us to be good stewards with parish finances.

We always need to see how we are doing as good stewards.

Fr. Doug
