From the Pastor...

This past week we received word from Bishop LaValley that the status of Holy Name Church has been relegated to profane status and non sordid use. This opens the door to selling the church. We had to get two appraisals one report listed the church at $155,000.00 and the second report came in at $105,000.00. This is the range. I have asked LaValley reality to initiate the process for the sale. I know the sale has to go through the courts.

Now we begin moving religious articles and furnishings. For the time being we will bring things up to the parish center for storage. I would still like to pull the rose window and replace it with a plain type of window. Do we want the church bell, the electric organ? What about the ten commandments monument? I am sure we have a lot of time. Let us know what you think.

Other churches are facing this same thing. It is not easy for people who love their parish and their churches for many parish celebrations over the years to say farewell with many memories. We put things in God's hands and move as the Holy Spirit leads at this time of our history. God bless...

Fr. Doug
