From the Pastor...

This has been a week of paper work. LaValley realty has been organizing forms for the sale of Holy Name Church. Now we ask St. Joseph to guide the potential sale. We have to be careful in selling the church. We are asked to maintain the integrity of the church with a buyer. We are working to bring holy items to the parish center for storage. Some have suggested moving 10 Commandments shrine to the parish center. A good reminder for our religious education students to follow their commandments. Baker Liturgical Artists have been consulted to remove the rose window. They recently worked on windows at St. Peter's Church Plattsburgh.

Keep praying for our students finishing exams. Did you notice two leaders for the class of 2019 are helpers for the parish over the last few years. Sophia Martin and Emily Burns have lectured and served as an acolyte. Thank you.

My twin Fr. Bob will move to his new parish on Wednesday 26 June. He is going to St. Cecilia's Parish in Adams, New York. I served there from 1996-2010. It is an exception to send brothers to the same parish. A factor in his move is that the personnel committee wanted to consider that our Mom is with him. Very kind of the part of the personnel committee.

Fr. Doug
