From the Pastor...

Happy 4th of July to all who gather for Mass this weekend.

Next weekend is Woodman's Day weekend. Our parish will have a float in the parade. We are not too extravagant but it tells our community "We are still here since 1902 and before" Feel free to join us in the grand march through town.

Father Chris Carara, Personnel Director for the Diocese, tells us that we are still in line for an assistant priest. Late summer Father Clement Rimonds from the religious order, "Heralds of the Gospel" will come to our parish from India. There are currently three priests in our diocese from the "Heralds of the Gospel". As he begins his missionary work with us keep in mind he has volunteered to serve our parish. He will have an East Indian accent. We cannot complain. We do our best to try to understand him. Instead of a criticism we say, "Thank you Father for coming to our parish". We have to provide him with a car, car insurance, health insurance, salary. I will have to heat the rectory this winter from 62F to 68F. When winter comes we will have to get him some winter gear. We will have to do our best to welcome him and to make him feel at home. Let us begin by praying for him and his new mission with us. I am 30 years older than him!

Fr. Doug
