From the Pastor...

No religious education this Sunday due to the Martin Luther King holiday. He was a great man. On one commentary I was watching his wife said in the interview they were on edge marching until they saw the Roman Catholic nuns in habits marching with them.. They felt God was with them.

There is a new ritual for Baptisms. The clergy will be in Colton for lessons on the new plan.

We have met a few times with Prague Enterprises. They have been looking at cleaning up the parish gym. Anyone who uses our gym can see the blown insulation that has aged over the years and has turned black. We would like that problem taken care of. We are also looking to put new windows in the gym. This is not a cheap project. We can use some of the Capital Campaign Money.

Fr. Doug

MINISTERS NEEDED!!

We are desperately looking for Lectors for the 8:30am Mass. You don't have to be a professional speaker, just willing to proclaim the word occasionally at Mass, a workbook is provided in advance so you always know what your readings will be. We are currently down to only 2 Lectors at that Mass so it makes for a lot of work for them. If you are willing, please contact the parish office at 359-3405. Thank you!

OFFICE CLOSED

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday for the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday.
