From the Pastor...

1. No religious education this weekend.
2. Thank you to our parish family for the various gifts and treats of the season. You are very kind. My doctor will remind me to lose five pounds. Is it my fault that my pants shrink during the Christmas season?
3. The parish has hired Joseph Peck as the 8:30 Mass organist. Joe is very talented. He is forming an 8:30 Mass choir with singing in the choir loft. Everyone is welcomed to join them. We thank Harriet Connly and her group for their help over the years. They did a great job for our Masses.

Fr. Doug

ROSARY WITH BENEDICTION

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP:

As we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family today, why not invite them to be our guides in this coming new year? They who lived a very simple life in Nazareth would have discovered many ways to use only what they needed. In our present consumer driven culture, it can be a real challenge to discern between what I need and what I want. The answer to this question can have a profound effect on how sustainable this planet will be for the health and well-being of future generations. Environmental stewardship or sustainability covers every aspect of our lives, i. e. food, energy use, transportation, water, etc.

Suggestion: Spend some time reflecting with St. Joseph and see if there are any changes you can make to simplify in the coming new year that will benefit not only you but the whole the family of God.

SUPPORT GROUP FOR SEPARATED OR DIVORCED: Colton and Surrounding Areas

We are forming a support group for separated/divorced people in Colton and the surrounding areas. If you or someone you know is interested in participating, please contact Steve Tartaglia at startaglia@rcdony.org or 315-393-2920 for more information.

PLANNED GIVING: Make a Will

Good Christian Stewardship would call for the orderly disposition of our worldly goods. If you do not make a Will, the State will do so, and it may not be according to your wishes. For further information, contact Scott Lalone, Executive Director of Development/Foundation at the Diocese of Ogdensburg at 315-393-2920 or slalone@rcdony.org.
