

SUMMARY OF THE
MINUTES OF THE PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL
MEETING OF JANUARY 13, 2018

The Parish Pastoral Council welcomed new member, Ryan Ostrowski. Members welcomed having a younger viewpoint present on the Council.

Upon invitation, Mark Naughton, PADS Ministry, was present at the meeting. PADS is conducted from October to April and is managed by dedicated parishioners. PADS' is in need of volunteers for the 2nd and 3rd Shifts, as well as the Clean-Up Crew. Our PADS site is one of the best because our parish is a welcoming community, meals prepared and served by volunteers are "amazing," and we treat people present as guests.

Members look forward to scheduling future talk by other parish groups and parish ministries in the coming year.

Members discussed how they can assist Fr. Curt with the extra assignment of managing administrative tasks at St. Thomas Becket during Pastor Rev. Chris Kulig's absence.

Members reviewed and discussed Easter Evangelical plans. The Lenten Season begins on Wednesday, February 14, 2018, and Easter is on Sunday, April 1, 2018.

The next meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council will be held on Saturday, February 17, 2018 in Burke Hall at 9:15 a.m.
