Please join us for some heartwarming storytelling based on memories of his late wife Carol's Italian family gatherings around the "big dining room table" with curious word choices usually in more than one language or dialect, and everyone seemingly engaged in three different conversations at the same time. And, all topped with the Wisdom from "On High!"

"Sometimes Scripture can be a challenge to understand, exactly how it can be used in daily life. This is where Mike Zibrun steps in and makes it perfectly clear with homespun and sage advice and with just the right amount of humor...just like a bow on a much appreciated gift"
