

Hello Parents

So nice to meet all of you last week. As promised I have put together some resources for you to continue to prepare your child for their first reconciliation.

I will have 2 categories: 1 for you as parents for your own personal faith development and 1 for your children so that you can assist them in learning their prayers and understanding the beauty of the sacrament ahead.

Please feel free to call or email anytime for questions.

I will see you all on November 11th for our next Sacramental Prep Day

Have a great weekend

Melissa Dayton

Parents:

Something Other Than God by Jennifer Fulwiler: This book describes Jennifer's upbringing as an atheist and her gradual movement toward belief. It is down-to-earth, smart, and humorous. And judging from its popularity outside of an exclusively Catholic audience, it might be something you would enjoy reading.

I'm Not Being Fed: Discovering the Food That Satisfies the Soul

Jeff Cavins

I'm Not Being Fed charitably explores why Catholics leave the Church and how to answer their common objections, especially objections to the Eucharist. After presenting the story of his own return to the Church, Cavins builds a case for the unique character of the Catholic Church as the true Church of Christ. I'm Not Being Fed presents the Catholic Church as a place of spiritual nourishment for everyone.

Surprised by Truth

Patrick Madrid

These eleven personal conversion accounts are unlike any you've ever read, they're packed with biblical theological and historical proofs for Catholicism. Each year thousands of atheists, Evangelicals, Fundamentalists, and Pentecostals are being surprised by Catholic truth – and these converts tell you why.
