SOME EARLY RECORDS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AT MILTONSBURG, MONROE COUNTY, OHIO

Immigrants from Ireland were the founders of the churches at Beaver and Dougherty's Settlement, which were featured earlier in this series, but the first Catholics in the vicinity of Miltonsburg in Monroe County were from Germany. Among the first German settlers in Malaga Township were Lorenz Schaub and John Joseph Dorr, who settled there in the early 1830's. It was this Mr. Dorr who was mentioned as a member of the choir in the history of Beaver St. Dominic. By June of 1834 Mr. Dorr had already built a church, at his own expense and on his own property. It is said to have been located near the large cemetery south of the town of Miltonsburg. Rev. Charles P. Montgomery, O.P. of Zanesville, returning home from a visit to St. Dominic, requested permission from Bishop Purcell to bless Mr. Dorr's church, but the bishop reserved that happy task for himself. According to the Catholic Telegraph of July 28, 1836, the church was blessed by the bishop on Tuesday, July 19, 1836.

The church is a well-finished log building, fifty-three by twenty-eight feet, and is dedicated to St. Joseph. The family of Mr. Dorr formed a most effective and harmonious choir. His eldest son was married to a young lady, who had previously become a convert to our holy Faith; his second son was confirmed with eighteen others; one of his neighbors was likewise married to a young lady, whom the Bishop, (finding her sufficiently instructed in the Christian Doctrine) had baptized -- and the Rev. Mr. Stahlschmidt having preached an eloquent discourse in the German language, after two English sermons by the Bishop, the affecting ceremonies of the day were concluded by the anthems, "Domine Salvum fac Episcopam nostrum," and the "Nunc Dimittis," which the worthy Dorr chanted forth from his faithful heart, in a voice rich in melody and compass, but evidently revealing the emotions of a grateful christian and happy father. Would that there were many such "Patterns of the flock" throughout our scattered congregations!

This log church was only used for another six years before it was replaced by the brick church of St. John the Baptist, northwest of Miltonsburg.

In January of 1842 a three acre lot, the site of the present St. John the Baptist Church, was donated to Bishop Purcell by Mark Younkus, a Catholic. It is remarkable that this and the next steps in construction of the church were undertaken while there was no pastor in the vicinity, Father Murphy of Beaver Despite the difficulties of the community, which are made apparent by the above letter, the construction of the church was not long delayed. A copy of the agreement for the walls of the church has also survived (2):

An article of agreement made and entered into this third day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty two between J. B. Oblinger, T. J. Benninghaus, and Adam Bauer, as Trustees of the Roman Catholic Congregation and their successors in office of Malaga, Monroe County, Ohio of the first part with Ezra F. Sharp of Barnesville, Belmont County, Ohio of the second part with [witnesseth ?] that the said Sharp do hereby agree with the said Trustees to do the following mentioned work viz. to lay the Bricks of one house of the following dimensions to wit the walls to be built twenty feet high the sides to be eighteen inches thick at the ends to be thirteen inches thick the house to be thirty feet wide and fifty six feet long with a room at one corner nine by ten feet, eight feet high, thirteen inch walls, the said Sharp to board and tend himself to furnish himself with scaffold and water to haul the bricks to furnish caps and sills for thirteen openings eight of which are to be cap[p]led in the gothic style with bases to each arch also to furnish eight cornice blocks also to lay brick cornice on two sides of the house, all of which work is to be done in a good and workmanlike manner. For and in consideration of the sum of two hundred fifty four Dollars in good and current money, one hundred and twenty nine of which is to be paid when the work is done, and one hundred dollars twenty five in one year from the time the work is done.

The said Trustees to furnish the said Sharp with lime and sand at the building place and the bricks at the kiln said Sharp to have said work done in twenty four days of good weather from the time the foundation is ready, the Sharp to fix two places for stoves in the sides of the house and a small chimney for a grate in the small room. (If the aforementioned house should be considered by the trustees to be high enough without going to twenty feet then the said Sharp to deduct from his contract accordingly) the said Sharp to furnish a suitable stone cross on top of the gable end. And for the true payment of the above contract we the trustees bind ourselves and successors to pay or cause to be paid unto the said Sharp or his order Severally Jointly Firmly by these present in witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals the day and year first above written. Adam Bauer

The new church was named St. John the Baptist. After its completion, it was a mission of the priests stationed at Beaver St. Dominic until the arrival of Rev. John C.Krämmer in March of 1847. The church was used until 1902, when the present stone church was erected.

John B. Oblinger, who figures prominently in the above documents concerning the erection of St. John the Baptist Church, was a native of Kleineich in Lorraine, France. A transcript of a letter which he wrote to his relatives, Christina and Christopher Suss of Kleineich, some twenty years after his immigration to this country, provides to us some idea of the difficulties faced by immigrants in losing touch with their loved ones at home and also some hint of the faith so typical of Catholic immigrants from the valley of the Rhine. The letter is dated Miltonsburg, February 3, 1851. (3)

I hope this letter will find you as well as we are. Already 20 years have passed since we last saw each other nor have we had the pleasure of any correspondence during that time. We have heard nothing from one another until my dear friend Louis Meyer after his recent return from the fatherland wrote me that you are all well and going along nicely in this world, which we are pleased to know. He wrote me also that your eldest daughter was married at the time he visited you. I wish her happiness and blessings. When we think back dear relatives our life in this world is like smoke in the wind, and when I look back to the old home where I was born and spent the happiest days of my youth where neither trouble nor grief disturbed me, it seems as though it was only yesterday. Mr. L. Meyer also wrote me that you complained of my neglect in not writing to you; but I wrote twice after we landed safely but received no answer. Also Mr. Meyer wrote me that Christina would write me soon; I have received up to this time no letter from her. Yet you can imagine with what pleasure I would read a letter written by any one of you. We have not heard the least news of any kind from our relatives since we arrived in this strange country. The only thing we have heard was through Mr. Meyers' letter to me last fall. I do not know whether or not my Aunts and Uncles are still living in Harburg, Strasburg, Kolmar, Momarting. Sisters Margaret, Catherine, brother Martin, also Joseph Friang are relatives. Write everything carefully as to how things are going with you.

-163-

Now I will relate some events which occurred to us from the time we left the old fatherland to this day. We arrived safely at Havre de Grace, France, than after an ocean voyage of 74 days we landed safely in Philadelphia in June in good spirits and in good health. We remained in Philadelphia until the following September. We then went into the country about 150 miles from Philadelphia where we remained until April 1833 still in the State of Pennsylvania and entirely among English speaking people. We were dissatisfied here and went to Pittsburg and then into the State of Ohio where we bought land and where we (those who are left of our family) are still living. Now we all lived together until 1836. Then brother Adolph married an American. In the year 1839 I married a German (compatriot) from Oldenburg. So far everything went well. Brother Conrad married a German and went to New Orleans. Sister Maria married a German in 1842 and Brother Louis married an American. In Oct. 1844 I began business as a merchant and I am now engaged in large business. In 1845 our dear Lord permitted for the first time sorrow to enter our home. On August 13th Joseph Friang died after a sickness of 8 days. In March 1850 Philip Yunkes, who married my sister Maria, wished to go to California and took brother Adolph with him. That is the gold country where they dig gold out of the ground. No doubt you have heard of it. That was a long and dangerous journey. Many have lost their lives on account of the glittering gold. Yes, sad is it for you to hear that both paid Nature's debt on June 24th 1850. Adolph left his wife and 8 children and Philip his wife and 2 children. It is a sorrowful fate, but it was our dear Lord's will, at least He permitted it. Our sorrow does not end here. On Dec. 8th 1850 Conrad died in New Orleans of cholera, left his wife, no children as far as I know. There remains now Mother, myself, sister Maria, brother Louis. We live all together and are well as long as it is God's will. I have 6 children, 4 girls and 2 boys. I live in the town of Miltonsburg, about as large as Malateri was when we left home. There are 4 stores here. I alone deal in tobacco, which I ship to Baltimore and reship from there, a part to Germany, part to England, a part to France and part to Russia....[There follows a list of prices and wages.]
Dear relatives, surely a visit to the old fatherland where I could grasp the hand and embrace my dear sisters and relations again and kiss my dear sisters would be my only wish. But I cannot go alone and my family is too large to take along. Therefore, I do not know that we will meet again until beyond this world, where we will have a friendly welcome where there is neither sorrow nor grief and no parting but sentiments of love and joyful hearts, which I hope may be our portion. Also take with you my best wishes for your success.

I remain faithfully yours, etc.

John B. Oblinger

God bless you and all of us.

Among Mr. Oblinger's descendants are Sisters Stella and Mary Michael Spangler, O.P., of St. Mary of the Springs, Rev. Robert Schmidt of the Diocese of Columbus, and John Baptist Schmidt, O.C.S.O. a Trappist monk at the Abbey of the Genesee in New York State.

NOTES
1. Two transcripts of the letter, differing slightly, were supplied to the Society by Harry Schmidt and by Sister Stella, O.P.

FIRST PARISH CENSUS AT MILTONSBURG

Soon after his arrival as the first resident pastor at Miltonsburg, Father Krämer wrote out a census of his parish. He wrote it in the front of the parish baptismal register and thus for some children whom he baptized contains the notation "see below." The dates of baptism listed by Father Krämer for some of the children have not been checked against the original records at Temperanceville. The census was made available to the Society by Rev. Samuel Sapranco, the present pastor of Miltonsburg.
