

4116.1

■ POLICY

□ GUIDELINE

PERSONNEL

PROFESSIONALISM OF CATECHETICAL LEADERS

In keeping with the moral values advanced by the teachings of Christ, the tenets of the Catholic Church, and the policies and regulations of the diocese, catechetical leaders who are paid employees of the parish are expected to be examples of moral behavior and professionalism. Catechetical leaders may be terminated for violations of these standards.

A written statement of the policies and regulations of the diocese must be available to parish employees.