II. Andrew G. Dugan

Archbishop Purcell on his episcopal visitation of 1834 wrote, “Having left Zanesville [going east] late on the evening of Sunday, 1st of June, we proceeded not farther than Mr. Andrew Dugan’s, where we had the happiness to celebrate the holy Mysteries on the following morning. Mr. Dugan is brother to the estimable man [John S. Dugan] who was summoned, suddenly, but not unprepared, to meet his god, while conveying the late Bishop [Fenwick] of this diocese from Washington City to Wheeling.” (Catholic Telegraph, June 27, 1834)

In legal documents he was Andrew G. Dugan and his wife was Margaret H. T. Dugan. In Muskingum County he purchased 342 acres, crossed by the National Road in the vicinity of Mockingbird Hill, in 1831 and 1832. (Deeds L/476 and M/320) This was his “farm & tavern stand on the National road three miles east of Zanesville.” He sold 50 acres off the north end (on Boggs’ Road) to James Heenan in 1835. On September 13, 1837 he rented the remainder of the land to William Spurck (Deeds Q/157 and V/314) (brother of George Spurck, husband of Ann L. Dugan, below). Five days later he purchased a large amount of dry goods from a creditor of a nearly bankrupt merchant named Stephen S. Mann, for which he signed a series of promissory notes. That December some New York creditors of Mann filed suit against Mann and others, including Dugan. By that time Andrew had left Ohio, taking the dry goods with him, but the other defendants stated that Andrew’s notes were “perfectly good.” Dugan never filed an answer in the case and it was dismissed in August, 1838. (Chancery Record B/354 ff)

In 1840 Andrew was sued for $441 by three former traders, which resulted in his land being sold at auction that June for $5,666.67. Andrew and Margaret “of Muskingum County” sold their remaining interest in the property to Peter Cornyn for $7,000 in 1841. (Deeds Z/310 and 1/44)

No further record of Andrew and Margaret has been found; it is not known where they lived after they left Ohio.

The division of the Dugan women of the next generation between Andrew and Michael is based on some known or inferred relationships but has not been completely confirmed. Those who were Somerset residents or closely tied to them appear to have been Michael’s daughters, while the older ones, Mary Ann, Elizabeth, and Grace, who seem to have been sisters, have been placed here under Andrew.
A. Mary Ann Dugan was born in Pennsylvania about 1795 or 1798 and married Eli Skeer, a carpenter. They lived in Butler County, Pa. until 1851, when they moved to Madison Township, near Newark, Ohio, with their son Nathaniel. Eli died in 1863 and by 1870 Mary Ann was living with her son John in Chicago. She died on October 16, 1880. Eli and she were buried in St. Thomas Cemetery, Zanesville, but in 1917 their daughter Henrietta had their remains moved to Mt. Olivet, along with those of her husband and son.

Brown on Dec. 25, 1855. Albert was a member of the Masons. He had seven children, some of whom lived in Fort Wayne, who were named in the Michael Harkins and Catherine McKinney estate papers.
7. Barbara C. Skeer, baptized at St. John the Evangelist in Zanesville on July 3, 1836; sponsor was Ann Rogers. She was living with her parents in 1850. This must be Caroline Skeer, named in the obituary of her brother Thomas, who was born about 1840, married Aaron French about 1870, and in 1900 was living in Pittsburgh. She had no children.
8. Frances or Henrietta (Hetta or Hetty) Skeer, baptized at St. John the Evangelist in Zanesville on August 19, 1838; sponsor Mary McCalister. She married Francis S. McKinney (1825-1900). B. Elizabeth Dugan, born between 1800 and 1810; married James Curran on September 18, 1827 before Rev. S. H. Montgomery, O.P. In 1830 James, his wife, and their young son were living in Springfield Township. That year he opened a tavern in a small frame house at what became the town of
By 1840 James was living alone at Duncan’s Falls. No trace of the family has been found in the 1850 census.

1. a son
2. Barbara C. Curran baptized at St. John the Evangelist, Dec. 12, 1830; sops Lewis and Barbara Dugan.
3. Thomas Curran was baptized on July 22, 1834; sops. G. Frances Dugan (apparently Gracey, below).

C. Grace (Gracey) Frances Dugan was born in Pennsylvania about 1816. Grace was probably a sister of Mary Ann Dugan Skeer. Their granddaughters Catherine McKinney and Frances A. McCormick Groble were “cousins,” more likely second-cousins than third-cousins, which would indicate the grandmothers were sisters. Grace married John C. Bagley on October 27, 1834 before Rev. C. P. Montgomery, O.P. John was a blacksmith in Perry Township, Muskingum County, where they were living in 1850. In 1860 they were living in Zanesville and John was a railroad hand. Grace seems to have died in the 1860s.

1. Frances Bagley, born in Taylorsville on July 27, 1835, baptized on Sept. 27 at St. Thomas in Zanesville, sponsors Andrew Dugan and Ann Rogers. She married John W. McCormick on June 29, 1854 before Rev. F. Cubero, O.P. John had a carriage making business in Zanesville. Frances died on December 30, 1895 in Muskingum County.

   d. Thomas F. McCormick, born about 1862
   g. Frances Agnes (Fannie) McCormick, born April 30, 1873, baptized on June 15 at St. Thomas; married on August 17, 1914 to George W. Grobel (c1868-1934) of Wasco County, Oregon, but formerly of Zanesville. They lived in Oregon, apparently until his death, after which she returned to Zanesville. For many years she was employed by the H. H. Sturtevant Company and later in life she was a clerk at the Rogge House. She was “cousin” and execurix of Catherine McKinney in 1947. She was a member of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish and the Purgatorial Society there. She died on March 28, 1962.
   h. Louise Margaret (Lulu) McCormick, born on August 25, 1875, baptized on September 5 at St. Thomas; died 1961.
   i. Isabell Rose McCormick, born April 17, 1877, baptized on April 30 at St. Thomas; married James C. Flowers (c 1880-1958). She died of tuberculosis on March 4, 1912.
3. William Edward Bagley was baptized on November 6, 1839, the godfather being Lewis H. Dugan. He learned the carriage painting trade as an apprentice of J. W. McCormick from May 10, 1854 to 1858. He remained with McCormick as a journeyman workman until the outbreak of the Civil War. After the war he returned to Zanesville and worked at his trade for a time, but then travelled to Cincinnati, Paris, Ky., Nashville, Tenn., Columbus in 1868, and then Milwaukee, Wis., where he worked in the railroad shops. In 1869 he returned to Zanesville, where he worked until 1871. He married Miss Matilda Hübner at Holy Trinity Church in Somerset on June 13, 1872, and remained there until 1877. That year he moved to Clinton, Mo., and in 1879 on to Osage Mission, Neosho County, Kansas, where he was a carriage painter. He had seven children, of whom two sons were alive in 1883. He retained the Catholic faith of his ancestors. (William G. Cutler, History of the State of Kansas; Chicago: A. T. Andreas, 1883. The history states that he served three months in the Fifteenth O.V.I., Company C, and three years and four months in the Seventy-eighth O.V.I., Company C; but whoever submitted this information seems to have appropriated part of Lewis Bagley’s service record.)

4. Hannah Rebecca Bagley, baptized April 12, 1841, married on June 7, 1865 at St. Thomas Church to Benjamin F. Strigle. They lived on Wheeling St. in Lancaster, where Benjamin was a shoemaker. Hannah died (or perhaps was buried) on December 20, 1904. Benjamin died on Dec. 28, 1924. She had six children and many grandchildren, who lived in Lancaster and Akron in Ohio and Los Angeles and San Bernadino in California.

5. Lewis H. D. Bagley, born about 1844 (1850 census), served for 3 1/2 years in Company C, 78th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. After the war he married Sarah E. (Sallie) Osmond. They lived in Salt Creek Township, Pickaway County for a time before moving back to Zanesville and later they lived in Columbus. Lewis was a buggy smith. Sally died in Columbus on August. 11, 1883. Lewis died at the Ohio Soldiers Home in Sandusky on May 5, 1916 and was buried in Green Lawn Cemetery, Columbus, after a service at his daughter Carrie’s home. He had seven children. The eldest daughter was Carrie Bagley, born about 1869, who married Edward M. Biddle. She lived in Reynoldsburg and died at St. Anthony Hospital on Feb. 12, 1963, aged 93 years. Lewis’s only known descendants are through a younger daughter, Mrs. Maud Stewart of Columbus.

6. Mary Caroline Bagley, born Aug. 20, 1845, was baptized Jan. 19, 1846 at St. Thomas Church; sponsors Peter Rogers and Ann C. Cassilly. She married George H. Fletcher at St. Thomas Church on March 3, 1867. George was a book seller in Zanesville. Their children were sent to the orphanage in the spring of 1876 and their register entries note “mother dead.” There is a gap in the St. Thomas burial records that year.
   a. William H. Fletcher, born July 9 and baptized on July 12, 1868 at St. Thomas. On application of Father Lilly of St. Thomas Parish, he was admitted to St. Vincent’s Orphanage in Columbus on April 26, 1876. He received his first Holy Communion and Confirmation there. In October of 1882 he was placed with a Mr. Munch in Toledo.
   b. Lorena Fletcher, born November 5, 1869, was admitted to the orphanage with her brother. She received her first Holy Communion and Confirmation at the orphanage. She was placed with Mr. Zimmer, 66 E. Mound St., Columbus, in February, 1888.

8. John T. Bagley, born about 1850
9. Margaret Teresa Bagley, born April 20 and baptized June 4, 1853 at St. Thomas

III. Alice Dugan O’Donnell

Alice’s relationship to Thomas and Betty is not proven. She was born in County Donegal about 1775, married Connel O’Donnell, and was living in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, in 1796 when their first son was born. They soon moved to the Buffalo Creek Settlement. Connel was a tailor and made clothing for people for miles around. He died on Feb. 12, 1826. Alice died in 1854 in Donegal Township. She had nine children, of whom eight were living, along with about twenty-four grandchildren, when Elizabeth Dugan died in Zanesville in 1848. Alice’s family can be traced through the work of the Wheelers, found via www.thewheelers.com and in the book A Century and a Half of Pittsburg and Her People (John N. Boucher, 1908), III/205-207.

Pastoral Appointments.
The congregations of Sunday Creek, Monday Creek, Deavertown, Chauncey, and the Catholics of McConnellsville, Morgan county, will be grateful to Divine Providence for sending them a devoted Pastor—Rev. James Monahan.

We shall be delighted to hear that Rev. Mr. O’Neil, formerly of Parkersburgh, who has succeeded Rev. Mr. Perry at Marietta, will soon have extricated that good congregation from part at least of the debt with which the church now building is heavily encumbered. It is an undertaking worthy of all the united zeal of the Pastor and the flock.

Rev. Mr. O’Donaghue, lately ordained, has been appointed for the present, to assist Rev. Mr. Gilmour in the congregations of the Most Holy Redeemer, Portsmouth, and St. Lawrence, Ironton.

Rev. Mr. Jacquet, formerly of the Diocese of Nashville, where he labored for ten years with great devotedness on its scattered Missions, chiefly among the laborers on the public works, is now pastor of St. Mary’s congregation, (formerly St. Dominics,) Belmont county, and St. Patrick’s, Washington, Guernsey county.

Rev. Mr. Deiters having obtained the Archbishop’s permission to accede to the wishes of the Right Rev. Bishop of Buffalo, that he should take charge of the St. Louis church of that city, Rev. Mr. Brummer has succeeded Rev. Mr. Deiters at Zanesville. Rev. Mr. Kraemer, formerly of St. Johns, Monroe county, also resides with Rev. Mr. Brummer at Zanesville, whence his former Missions are temporarily attended.

Rev. Mr. Thisse is now Pastor of St. Mary’s, Chillicothe, whence Circleville is occasionally visited by him until it can be provided, as we hope it shall be ere long, with a resident Pastor.

Finally, Rev. Mr. Ph. Foley will shortly enter on the pastoral care of St. Andrew’s congregation, Milford, Clermont county...

November 17, 1855
Rev. Richard Gilmour, because of the poverty of his mission and the smallness of his congregation, has been authorized by the Most Rev. Archbishop to appeal to the Catholics of Cincinnati to enable him to finish his churches in Ironton and Portsmouth. He is therefore by that very fact warmly recommended to the generosity and charity of the faithful.

An account of a lecture given “last night” by Hon. T. Ewing is reprinted from the Cincinnati Commercial.

“THE COLLEGIAN.”—We notice by the last numbers of this paper, that it is to be discontinued, not, the editors say, “for want of support.” What then? Surely it is not for the want of talent, for it is one of the most interesting publications that reach us. If necessary, we will send one of our “imps” out there to carry it on. He already declares he is bound for O-h-i-o.—Boston Pilot.
We are much obliged to our esteemed friend for the compliment contained in the above paragraph. We cannot help suspending though; whatever may be the case with some of our friends, the Collegian never exactly pleased ourselves. It is too little, and its issues too “few and far between.” Now we have no time on hands to devote to a larger sheet, even supposing that we had talent enough to make it respectable. Therefore it had better stop, at least for the present. As to the “imps”: we do not want any more in Ohio; we have too many here already, as well as our friends in Massachusetts.— Collegian.
