PREPARATION

- Hospitality Ministers should be recruited to welcome the assembly as they arrive and to distribute worship aids.
- At least two readers should be appointed to proclaim the reading(s), to read the Examination of Conscience, and to lead the Litany of Repentance. They are to be seated in the assembly.
- A musician and cantor(s) should lead the assembly in song. Instrumental music may be played during individual confession. (A list of music suggestions is included herein.)

- A Lectionary should be readied with the appropriate readings.
- Lighting may be subdued, but sufficient for reading hymnal and worship aid. Candle(s) should be lit at the ambo. No altar candles are lighted. The appropriate number of candles should be lit on the Advent Wreath, if during that season.
- Stations for confessors should be prepared. Priests might stand or sit in isolated areas around the main body of the church to receive penitents. In this way, the communal nature of the rite is maintained. Candles may light these stations. A tall plant, a table with a candle on it, and possibly a guide for the Act of Contrition should be at each station.
- For the sake of simplicity, the presider alone or the presider and preacher could participate in the procession. Other priests could be seated in the sanctuary or in a reserved area before the liturgy begins.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

OPENING HYMN

GREETING

Presider: Grace, mercy, and peace be with you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

All: And with your spirit.

INTRODUCTION

Presider: In these or similar words...

We gather here today [tonight] because we are confident that God is merciful. We have this confidence because, in every age, God has shown his justice and his mercy.

When his chosen people erred, he sent prophets to call them back. He sent John the Baptist to call sinners to repentance and to announce the coming of the Savior.

And in his greatest act of merciful love, God sent his only Son to live among us, to preach of the Father's love, and to set us free from sin and death.

God continues to save his people and Christ continues to be present to us, especially in the Church's sacraments.

And in this sacrament of reconciliation, though we cannot grasp the richness of his grace nor depth of his compassion, God continues to offer us his mercy.

OPENING PRAYER

Presider:
My brothers and sisters,
God calls us to conversion;
let us therefore ask him
for the grace of sincere repentance.

Silent prayer

Father of mercies and God of all consolation, you do not wish the sinner to die
but to be converted and live.
Come to the aid of your people,
that they may turn from their sins and live for you alone.
May we be attentive to your word,
confess our sins,
receive your forgiveness,
and always be grateful for your loving kindness.
Help us to live the truth in love and grow into the fullness of Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

RITE OF RECONCILIATION

GENERAL CONFESSION OF SINS

Presider: God who is infinitely merciful pardons all who are repentant and takes away their guilt. Confident in his goodness, let us ask him to forgive all our sins
 as we confess them with sincerity of heart.

All: I confess to almighty God,

and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

LITANY OF REPENTANCE

Presider: Let us turn to Christ with confidence and ask his mercy.

Minister: You came into the world to seek and save what was lost.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: You came to give us life, life in its fullness.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: You became the source of salvation for all who obey you.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Once and for all you died for our sins,
the innocent one for the guilty.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: In your mercy free us from the past and enable us to begin a new life of holiness.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Make us a living sign of love for all to see:
people reconciled with you and with each other.

All: Lord, have mercy.

LORD'S PRAYER

Presider: Now, in obedience to Christ himself, let us join in prayer
to the Father,
asking him to forgive us as we forgive others.
Our Father,...

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Presider: Almighty and eternal God,
you sent your only-begotten Son to reconcile the world to yourself.
Lift from our hearts the oppressive gloom of sin,
so that we may celebrate the approaching dawn of Christ's birth with fitting joy.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

The presider or other minister might tell the assembly where the confessors will be located. Some brief words regarding the manner of confession should be given. The people may be encouraged to accept one of the penances which are found in the worship aid or the confessors may give a penance suited to the individual. The assembly may be advised to remain in church if there is to be a common ending. Quiet instrumental music might be played during this time. A selection of bibles, breviaries, or other suitable reading should be made available for quiet prayer during this time.

PRAYER OF ABSOLUTION

Confessor: God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of His Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins;
through the ministry of the Church
may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins
in the name of the Father, and of the Son, ✠ and of the Holy Spirit.

Penitent: Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF PRAISE FOR GOD'S MERCY

Luke 1:46-55

*You may provide the following text for the assembly or use any musical setting of the Magnificat.
This part of the service should not be omitted.*

Refrain: The Lord has remembered his mercy.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. (Refrain)

From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. (Refrain)

He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. (Refrain)

He has shone the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones and has lifted up the lowly. (Refrain)

He has filled the hungry with good things and the rich he has sent away empty. (Refrain)

He has come to the help of his servant Israel
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,

READINGS

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah 55:1-11

All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!
You who have no money,
come, receive grain and eat;
Come, without paying and without cost,
drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money for what is not bread,
your wages for what fails to satisfy?
Heed me, and you shall eat well,
you shall delight in rich fare.
Come to me heedfully,
listen, that you might have life.
I will renew with you the everlasting covenant,
the benefits assured to David.
As I made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander of nations,

So shall you summon a nation you knew not,
and nations that knew you not shall run to you,
Because of the LORD, your God,
the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you.

Seek the LORD while he may be found,
call him while he is near.
Let the scoundrel forsake his way,
and the wicked man his thoughts;
Let him turn to the LORD for mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.
As high as the heavens are above the earth
so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

For just as from the heavens
the rain and snow come down And do not return there till they have watered the earth,
making it fertile and fruitful,

Giving seed to the one who sows
and bread to the one who eats, So shall my word be
that goes forth from my mouth;
My word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 145:1 and 9, 10-11, 12-13

R: The Lord is gracious and merciful;
slow to anger, and of great kindness.

I will extol you, O my God and King,
and I will bless your name forever and ever.
The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R: The Lord is gracious and merciful;
slow to anger, and of great kindness.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.

Let them discourse of the glory of your Kingdom and speak of your might.

R: The Lord is gracious and merciful;
slow to anger, and of great kindness.

Let them make known to men your might
and the glorious splendor of your Kingdom.
Your Kingdom is a Kingdom for all ages,
and your dominion endures through all generations.

R: The Lord is gracious and merciful;
slow to anger, and of great kindness.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians

Ephesians 2:1-10

Brothers and sisters:

You were dead in your transgressions and sins
in which you once lived following the age of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air,
the spirit that is now at work in the disobedient.
All of us once lived among them in the desires of our flesh,
following the wishes of the flesh and the impulses,
and we were by nature children of wrath, like the rest.
But God, who is rich in mercy,
because of the great love he had for us,
even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ (by grace you have been saved),
raised us up with him,
and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus,
that in the ages to come
he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus.
For by grace you have been saved through faith,
and this is not from you; it is the gift of God;
it is not from works, so no one may boast.
For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Psalm 85:8

Show us, LORD, your love;
and grant us your salvation.

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

John 1:29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.
He is the one of whom I said,
‘A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.’
I did not know him,
but the reason why I came baptizing with water
was that he might be made known to Israel.”
John testified further, saying,
“I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven
and remain upon him.
I did not know him,
but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me,
‘On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain,
he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’
Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.”

This list is not exhaustive, and primarily in English. Musicians please note that the music text should focus on God's mercy, God's forgiveness, and God's infinite love. Psalmody is most appropriate during a Penance Service, reflective of the liturgical season (Advent, Lent, etc.) The most familiar language to the people of the parish, or a combination of languages, is certainly recommended.
