

Assistant Director of Liturgy
University of Dayton Campus Ministry
(Posting 499257)

Share your desire to serve young adults in faith and your passion for liturgy at the University of Dayton, a Catholic and Marianist University. Campus Ministry's liturgy team reflects sacramental celebrations that promote full active participation, strong student leadership in liturgical ministries, a commitment to growth in multicultural expressions of prayer and worship reflective of the diversity of the UD community, and pastorally responding to the needs of the campus through prayer and worship.

The assistant director will: Collaborate with the liturgy team to establish a vision for and ensure the development and successful implementation of university liturgies, liturgical catechesis, liturgical ministry formation, and sacramental preparation. Supervise a graduate assistant and advises Catholic Life, a faith-based student organization. Respond to special liturgical/prayer requests, ensures the development of diverse cultural expressions of prayer and worship, supports the faith development of students, and communicates about liturgical events. Serve as an active collaborator on the 34-person ministry team.

10.5 month full-time exempt position with full benefits. Flexible start in early 2022. Salary commensurate with experience. Submit application, list of references, cover letter, resume addressing minimum and preferred qualifications at <https://employment.udayton.edu/en-us/job/499257/assistant-director-of-liturgy>. November 12, 2021 deadline.

The University of Dayton is a Top Ten Catholic research university, founded in 1850 by the Society of Mary. The University seeks outstanding, diverse staff who value its mission and share its commitment to academic excellence and the development of the whole person, and leadership and service in the local and global community.