St. Joan of Arc Parish in Streetsboro is seeking a faith filled person to serve as our Youth Minister. This is a part-time position. The Youth Minister will lead our CHAOS program, which serves 6th thru 12th graders. We are searching for an individual who will strive to nurture their faith, empower them for leadership, offer service and justice experiences, create spiritual, prayer and retreat opportunities that deepen their personal relationship with Christ, and develop a compassionate community. St. Joan of Arc is a family-oriented Roman Catholic community with over 900 registered families. We enthusiastically support youth ministry and are inspired by the faith and witness of our youth. The qualifications the Youth Minister should have are a strong Catholic faith, enthusiasm for and understanding of youth, good organizational skills, think and program creatively and an ability to work with staff, parents and volunteers. Proper credentials will include an appropriate degree and/or work experience in youth ministry.
