PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL
Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Our parishioners serving overseas:
Pray for their safe return of Eric Hohman, Kevin Semrlath, Brithney Boucher, Shane Mears, & Matthew Wolf

We offer condolences and sympathy to our parishioners who have experienced a death in their family.

Rebeca Galindo-Gonzalez,
wife of Jaime Gonzalez,
My name is Thomas. I am speaking on behalf of my brothers and those other disciples who follow Jesus. And I can’t believe it! I can’t believe we’re back here again in Judea! I mean to tell you that I’m scared of this place. I couldn’t wait to leave – but here we are again! When he told us that he “wanted to go back up there again”, we were all dumbfounded! We told him: Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and you want to go back there? I wondered if He forgot what the Jews tried to do the last time we were there! We all reminded Him of how we all felt. I told Him about those two Jews whose eyes I will never forget. They were ready to stone not only Jesus, but me as well! I’m telling you. These Jews are having a tough time distinguishing which one is Jesus and who is not. It’s as if they are unable to tell any of us apart! Well, He told us that He had gotten a note from his good friends, Martha and Mary. They told him that Lazarus, their brother, was sick. We all told him, “Look, Jesus, he’ll be fine. He’s got his sisters there to take care of him. In a few days he’ll be back up on his feet again.” None of us wanted to go back there. Well, Jesus certainly put us in our place when He very clearly and loudly told us, Lazarus has died. When we heard this, I told the guys: We need to go along with him. We need to go and die with him. He’s just lost one of his best friends. We can’t abandon him! We can’t run away! We have to support him! Just because someone is dead doesn’t mean we can’t stay with Him! And so we decided to return, despite our fears. As we were getting to the outskirts of Bethany, we heard some startling news. We heard that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days already! I said to myself, Well then, let’s just go. There’s nothing else to be done. None of us like this place. Let’s get the Gehenna out of here! Just as I was about to tell Jesus this, Martha comes up and greets Him. I just don’t believe this woman! I could not believe some of the comments I heard her make! Three times she said something that certainly raised my doubts about her! First she says, if Jesus had been here, her brother would never have died! And then she tells Him that she is sure that God will grant Him whatever He asks him! And I think to myself, Woman, do you know what you are asking? Do you really believe that Jesus is going to bring your brother back from the dead? Nobody has ever done that! What makes you think that He can! But Jesus’s response was just as bizarre as Martha’s comments. He answered her in such a calm and confident voice. It seemed Jesus thought Martha’s comments were quite normal! He tells her that her brother will rise again. He tells her that He is the resurrection and the life! And that whoever believes in Him will come to life, even if they die. And those who are alive and believe, they will never die. I tell you, that whole conversation left me shaking my head in disbelief! And then Martha comes up with her third comment. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God! And I say to myself: Jesus! Jesus is the Messiah, the Anointed One, and the Son of God! Jesus is going to destroy Israel to the splendor of King David! (Disdainfully) Jesus and what army!! (Thomas pointing to himself) And this guy is not about to join any army. And then her sister, Mary, comes up to join us. And Mary says the exact same thing that Martha said. Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. The only thing I can think of that makes any sense to all this is this. They all were very sad about Lazarus’ death. Then Mary wept. Martha wept. The people who came with them wept. And then it really got to me. I saw Jesus cry. It was obvious to me how much Jesus loved Lazarus. I had never seen Jesus weep like that before. His sorrow was overwhelming. I even felt embarrassed seeing Him show that much emotion. He really must have loved him. Jesus wanted to see where they had laid Lazarus. And then he asks: Where have you laid him? I felt a bit of relief with Jesus’ question. I thought to myself. Good. We will pay our respects. Jesus can give Martha and Mary a bit of comfort and then we can be on our way. The rest of the people with them can help them through the rest of their grieving. And then we can get out of here! So we all go to the tomb together. And then Jesus chose to offer prayer at that time. That was often His custom. It seemed to happen many times while I was in the company of Jesus. (Thomas rubs his arms and the back of his head.) I get goose bumps all over me. And the hair on the back of my head raises, every time I think about that. Jesus prayed with such earnestness, fervor, reality, love. It was as if He was standing there naked before me. In His praying, I saw to the heart of Jesus. And your know what? I felt uncomfortable seeing Jesus this vulnerable! I didn’t expect or want to see Jesus that clearly. So real! So, we are all standing there before the tomb. And then, when He finishes His prayer, I can’t believe my ears as to what Jesus says! Take away the stone. And I hear myself say out loud, “WHAT?” I was concerned about the smell and stink that would be there after all these days. Finally, Martha says something that made sense. Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days. But Jesus, in that same calm and confident voice, tells Martha, Did I not tell you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God? And I will never forget the look on Martha’s face. All the concern, all the confusion, seemed just to melt away when Jesus told her this. She gave a simple nod of her head. Despite my protests, they removed the stone. Several of the men began to remove the stone from the tomb’s entrance. Every pair of eyes was locked on the entrance of that tomb! And then Jesus calls: Lazarus, come out! Jesus tells us: Untie him, and let him go. After some hesitation and initial resistance, some of us began to approach Lazarus. We slowly began removing the linen bindings that had held him. I couldn’t believe what I was seeing. There before me stood Lazarus – ALIVE! I saw his eyes! I saw him breathing! I literally could have put my hands on him and touched him! Even with that, I still had my doubts, I still couldn’t believe what my eyes were telling me. Well, we’re still here in Bethany. We are staying at Martha and Mary’s house. We had dinner with them and with Lazarus. It seems that Jesus wants to stay on here for a few more days. And I have no idea why. I just know that I want to get out of here. The sooner the better for my tastes! I don’t know what is going to happen this coming week. But I do know one thing: I – AM – SCARED!

Msgr. Mike
Dear Parishioners of Holy Trinity Catholic Church:

During this most unusual time with the whole world dealing with COVID-19, I write to seek your assistance during this pandemic. I ask that you pray for the end of the coronavirus and the recovery of good health to all those affected. This is an opportunity for all of us to grow deeper in our faith.

Our national and religious leaders have suggested significant changes in our daily lives, which includes suspending publicly celebrated Masses. The Archbishop of San Antonio via a decree has dispensed all Sunday Mass obligations to all Catholics in the Archdiocese of San Antonio.

Here at Holy Trinity, we have suspended all public weekend and weekday Masses. However, we are live streaming our daily Mass Monday-Friday at 8:30am on the Holy Trinity Facebook page. We are also live streaming two weekend Masses: 11:15am in English and 1:00pm in Spanish. All activities at Holy Trinity have been put on hold at this time.

Maybe you were one of the 10,400 people who worshipped with us online this past weekend. If so, I hope you were encouraged. And yet, we know uncertainty may lead to fear and anxiety, but as Paul reminds us, "for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control" (2 Timothy 1:7).

There are a few things I want to share as we continue to keep our hearts centered on following Jesus. We are in this together as the body of Christ. You are not alone. We will continue communicating with our parishioners through the Holy Trinity website www.holytrinitysat.org and social media. You can talk to staff members in the main office at 210.497.4200 and the Faith Formation office at 210.497.4145. “If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it. Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it” (Romans 12:26-27).

Holy Trinity has been a most generous parish throughout its existence since its founding in 1987 and not just in my recent ten (10) years as your pastor. We have taken extensive steps to limit all non-essential spending at the parish. This is necessary due to the significant reduction in the weekly offering and the uncertainty of the future. We will continue to care for our Holy Trinity family. If you’ve been giving regularly, thank you! Now more than ever your gifts are crucial for helping us to continue to provide for your spiritual well-being.

I am writing to you today to ask for your continued weekly financial support. Your generosity and financial support at any amount is greatly appreciated! There are two convenient ways you can donate.

1) Go to our website to donate online. We can accept credit card donations with Visa or Master Card online or your ACH donation.
2) Mail your offering to our office at 20523 Huebner Road, San Antonio, TX 78258

This will not last forever, but the weeks ahead will continue to bring challenges and new opportunities. These opportunities may bring a whole different way of caring for families and friends in our community. So, reach out to those around you safely: call a neighbor, text a friend, check in with family and anyone you know who is most vulnerable and may be feeling stressed or alone. Share a word of hope and pray with them. You’ll be blessed as you bless others.

God will use this season for His good and His glory. As Catholics, this is our time to shine bright moment by moment. May we be ambassadors of peace, not panic. Faith, not fear. I leave you with Jesus’ own words: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid" (John 14:27).

Again, thank you for your continued support of our parish and faith community of Holy Trinity.

Estimados feligreses de la Iglesia Católica de Santísima Trinidad:

Durante este momento tan inusual con todo el mundo lidiando con COVID-19, escribo para buscar su ayuda durante esta pandemia. Le pido que rece por el fin del coronavirus y la recuperación de la buena salud de todos los afectados. Esta es una oportunidad para todos nosotros para profundizar en nuestra fe.

Nuestros líderes nacionales y religiosos han sugerido cambios significativos en nuestra vida diaria, lo que incluye suspender misas celebradas públicamente. El Arzobispo de San Antonio mediante un decreto ha dispensado todas las obligaciones de la misa dominical a todos los católicos en la Arquidiócesis de San Antonio.

Aquí en Santísima Trinidad, hemos suspendido todas las misas públicas diarias y dominicales. Sin embargo, estamos transmitiendo en vivo nuestra Misa diaria de lunes a viernes a las 8:30 a.m. en la página de Facebook de Santísima Trinidad. También transmitimos en vivo dos misas domélicas: 11:15 am en inglés y 1:00 pm en español. Todas las actividades en Santísima Trinidad se han suspendido en este momento.

Tal vez fuiste una de las 10,400 personas que adoraron con nosotros en línea el pasado fin de semana. Si es así, espero que te hayas animado. Y, sin embargo, sabemos que la incertidumbre puede conducir al miedo y la ansiedad, pero como Pablo nos recuerda, "porque Dios no nos dio un espíritu de miedo, sino de poder, amor y autocontrol" (2 Timoteo 1: 7).

Hay algunas cosas que quiero compartir mientras continuamos manteniendo nuestros corazones centrados en seguir a Jesús. Estamos juntos en esto como el cuerpo de Cristo. No está un solo. Seguiremos comunicándonos con nuestros feligreses a través del sitio web de Santísima Trinidad www.holytrinitysat.org y de las redes sociales. Puede hablar con los miembros del personal en la oficina principal al 210.497.4200 y la oficina de Formación de Fe al 210.497.4145. "Si una parte sufre, cada parte sufre con ella; si se honra una parte, cada parte se regocija con ella. Ahora ustedes son el cuerpo de Cristo, y cada uno de ustedes es parte de Él" (Romanos 12: 26-27).

Santísima Trinidad ha sido una parroquia muy generosa a lo largo de su existencia desde su fundación en 1987 y en mis últimos diez (10) años como su párroco. Hemos tomado medidas extensas para limitar todos los gastos no esenciales en la parroquia. Esto es necesario debido a la reducción significativa en la colecta semanal y la incertidumbre del futuro. Continuaremos cuidando a nuestras familias de la Santísima Trinidad. Si ha estado dando regularmente, ¡gracias! Ahora más que nunca, su colaboración es crucial para ayudarnos a continuar proporcionando un bienestar espiritual.

Le escribo hoy para pedirle su continuo apoyo financiero semanal. ¡Su generosidad y apoyo financiero en cualquier cantidad son muy apreciados! Hay dos maneras convenientes de donar.

1) Vaya a nuestro sitio web para donar en línea. Podemos aceptar donaciones con tarjeta de crédito con Visa o Master Card o con su donación ACH.

2) Envíe su oferta por correo a nuestra oficina en 20523 Huebner Road, San Antonio, TX 78258

No durará para siempre, pero las próximas semanas continuarán trayendo desafíos y nuevas oportunidades. Estas oportunidades pueden brindar una forma completamente diferente de cuidar a las familias y amigos de nuestra comunidad. Por lo tanto, comunícense con las personas que lo rodean de manera segura: llame a un vecino, envíe un mensaje de texto a un amigo, consulte con su familia y con cualquier persona que conozca que sea más vulnerable y pueda sentirse estresado o solo. Comparta una palabra de esperanza y recé con ellos y por ellos. Será bendecido cuando bendices a los demás.

Dios usará esta temporada para su bien y su gloria. Como católicos, este es nuestro momento de briller momento a momento. Que seamos embajadores de la paz, no del pánico. Fe, no miedo. Te dejo con las propias palabras de Jesús: "Paz, te dejo; te doy mi paz. No como el mundo da, yo te doy a ti. No se turbe vuestro corazón, ni tengan miedo" (Juan 14:27).

Nuevamente, gracias por su continuo apoyo a nuestra parroquia y comunidad de fe de Santísima Trinidad.

Even though we say that we believe, there is a part of us that doesn’t. There are many times in our lives when we experience death, whether it be the physical death of someone we love, a failed relationship, the loss of a job, or a broken dream. As we are going through these death experiences, we can easily find ourselves reaching out to God to make it better and fix it! We think that the proper order of life is to maintain the things of this world, especially those things that are essential to our sense of well-being and security. We do not like change. The grieving that comes from our death experiences can keep us stuck and in despair. If we have lost something or someone of great value, the very meaning and essence of life is lost with them. We need gentle companions to lift us from despair and that is precisely who God desires to be in our life as well.

God calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, “Come out!” He desperately wants to show us the path to hope and the new life that is possible after loss and death. But our faith can be weak, and we still prefer to cling to the memory of what we had rather than the joyful possibilities of tomorrow. We sometimes live as if God is not real and that the transformative power of His resurrected presence is a story found in the Bible rather than a narrative unfolding in our lives.

God is the God of surprises, not our demise. God opens new possibilities, begins new chapters, creates new verses, and brings us to new heights! We spend so much time and energy ruminating over what we left behind yesterday that we are far too tired to see what can unfold tomorrow. Loving someone new doesn’t negate our past loves. Embracing the love of a person, God, or life itself doesn’t diminish the love of yesterday. Each of our loves is different, and one cannot be replaced by another. They don’t cancel each other out. God truly has tended to every detail of our lives, and if we listen to each detail, we find that they all lead us back to Him. Jesus wants us to come out of our closed-up tombs. Are we going to listen this time?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We face death every day. Whether it comes with the actual death of someone we love (or someone we don’t even know), a failed relationship, the loss of a job, a broken dream, or pondering our own mortality, death is always around us. What does death say to us? What we believe about our death experiences is going to say volumes about how we live our lives. Jesus comes to us today just as he did many years ago to people who were struggling with loss and death and wondering what to do. He calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, “Come out!” Jesus leads us out of death and gives us hope. There is always hope. There is always transformation. Although we may not always see where the road of life is taking us or see God’s presence with us on our journey, we will be brought to a new place and be given new life. Walk with God and listen to Him call you. Tomorrow, there awaits another surprise.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICA

La semana pasada, el ciego de nacimiento nos ilumino a creer en Jesús y postrarnos ante el para adorarlo. Ahora, la Liturgia, nos presenta otro gran milagro y las amigas de Jesús lo afirman de manera diferente al ciego. El diálogo es diferente pero la pregunta es la misma: ¿Crees tú esto? Es decir, que Jesús es la resurrección y la vida. La respuesta es afirmativa: “Sí, Señor. Creo firmemente que tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, el que tenía que venir al mundo.” (Juan 11:27) Para que el milagro sucediera, Jesús se tardó a propósito dos días en llegar, como nos lo relata el Evangelio. Tiempo muy largo para las hermanas. Era demasiado retraso; cuatro días tenía ya su hermano en el sepulcro. Sin embargo, para tener fe el tiempo no cuenta. Ellas tenían fe y el Señor las pone a prueba. Salieron triunfantes; Marta y María son modelo para todas las generaciones.

Estamos por terminar el camino en el desierto; la Cuaresma pronto llegara a su fin. El próximo Domingo celebraremos el Domingo de Ramos. A estas alturas, ya debe la fe rebozar en el corazón de cada creyente. Tal como las amigas de Jesús: “Marta y María, protagonistas del Evangelio de hoy, nos enseñan cómo debe vivirse la vida del cristiano, ‘el enamorado’ del Señor…” ‘Contemplación y servicio’: éste es el camino de nuestra vida. Cada uno de nosotros piensa: ¿Cuánto tiempo al día dedico a contemplar el misterio de Jesús? Y después: ¿Cómo trabajo? Trabajo tanto ¿que parece una alienación, o trabajo de modo coherente con mi fe?… Nos hará bien pensar esto”. (Papa Francisco)

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA (Live the Liturgy)

Nos enfrentamos a la muerte todos los días. Ya sea que se trate de la muerte de alguien que amamos (o de alguien que ni siquiera conocemos), una relación fallida, la pérdida de un trabajo, un sueño roto o reflexionando sobre nuestra propia mortalidad, la muerte siempre nos rodea. ¿Qué nos dice la muerte? Lo que creemos sobre nuestras experiencias de muerte va a decir mucho sobre cómo vivimos nuestras vidas. Jesús viene a nosotros hoy tal como lo hizo hace muchos años con personas que luchaban con la pérdida y la muerte y se preguntaban qué hacer. Nos llama a salir de nuestras tumbas, donde hemos estado encerrados por el miedo y la desesperación, y grita: “¡Salgan!” Jesús nos saca de la muerte y nos da esperanza. Siempre hay esperanza. Siempre hay transformación. Aunque no siempre veamos hacia dónde nos lleva el camino de la vida o la presencia de Dios con nosotros en nuestro viaje, seremos llevados a un nuevo lugar y se nos dará una nueva vida. Camina con Dios y escucha cómo El te llama. Mañana nos espera otra sorpresa.

WE INVITE YOU TO REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading
During the dark days of Israel’s exile in Babylon, the prophet Ezekiel foresaw God’s resurrection and restoration of his people. As the season of Lent comes to a close, what parts of your life are still in need of God’s restorative power?

Second Reading
Paul assured the believers in Rome that “the Spirit of God dwells in you” and that this same Spirit will raise you from the dead. What gives you confidence in Paul’s words?

Gospel Reading
John tells us that after Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead, many “began to believe in him.” On what grounds do you believe in Jesus as our Lord and Savior?

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship for Lent

COMMITTED

I remember Jim Valvano, Jimmy V to many, saying the iconic words, “Don’t give up; you can never give up.” The former coach of the NC State men’s basketball team was dying of cancer, yet he refused to throw in the towel and give in to his disease. His words exemplified the best of the human spirit we all share. Sometimes, living out those words seem much more difficult than saying them.

These words are also important for our faith life. The life Jesus calls us to is not easy. When working toward a life of greater generosity and surrender of all to God, we are prone to fall flat on our face many times. We are not called to this life only when we are strong. It is how we respond when times are the most difficult that truly defines us as disciples and stewards. The world may think we are down for the count, but rising again gives testimony that in Christ we are stronger.

Commitment takes a willingness to do the things needed to get stronger and build our spiritual muscles. We cannot expect to find success in the spiritual life unless we continue to work on our resolve and grow in our knowledge of the faith. A marathon runner would never be able to make it to the finish line unless they have trained and prepared in advance. We must work hard to stay the course and prepare for the race at hand. No matter what this life may have in store for us, we are called to not give up. God will never give up on us.

LAW OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

THE DIVINE MERCY
Weekly Message

Saint Joseph urged me to have a constant devotion to him. He himself told me to recite three prayers, (the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be) and the Memorare once every day. He looked at me with great kindness and gave me to know how much he is supporting this work [of mercy]. He has promised me this special help and protection. I recite the requested prayers every day and feel his special protection. (#1203)

De La DIVINA MISERICORDIA
Mensaje semanal

San Jose me pidió tenerle una devoción constante. El mismo me dijo que rezara diariamente tres oraciones (el Padre Nuestro, Ave María, y el Gloria) y el Memorare una vez al día. Me miró con gran bondad y me explicó lo mucho que está apoyando esta obra. Me prometió su especialísima ayuda y protección. Rezo diariamente las oraciones pedidas y siento su protección especial. The Virtue of Humility in Marriage
(by servantspouse.com)

Humility is one of the most important virtues lacking in today’s society. Humility is the absence of pride and arrogance. Learning to be humble for the sake of your marriage allows you to be of service to your spouse in a way that requires you to put their needs above your own.

Our pride is constantly being fed by the World around us, “telling us to focus on our own needs, wants, and desires.” Our pride can grow so big that we are unable and unwilling to see those around us as anything but an object to be used in the pursuit of our happiness. Our spouse can often get the worst of our pride or arrogance.

Being a Servant Spouse means allowing ourselves to be less so that our spouse can be more. It also means being less so that God can be and do more through us, not only in our marriage but in every aspect of our lives.

In 2 Corinthians 12:9 Paul says: “But he said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.’ Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me.” It is when we are weak that He is strong!! It is when we are humble, that he can be God in our lives and marriage.

The Litany of Humility
(by servantspouse.com)

Finding our humility is one of the first steps toward a great, holy marriage full of love, laughter, commitment, and hope!

This week, say the Litany of Humility every day.

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart, Hear me.
From the desire of being esteemed, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being loved, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being extolled, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being honored, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being praised, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being preferred to others, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being consulted, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being approved, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of being humiliated, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of being despised, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of suffering rebukes, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of being calumniated, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of being forgotten, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of being ridiculed, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of being wronged, Deliver me, Jesus.
From the fear of being suspected, Deliver me, Jesus.

That others may be loved more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be esteemed more than I ...
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase & I may decrease ...
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be chosen and I set aside ...
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be praised and I unnoticed ...
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be preferred to me in everything...
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should...
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
Divorced & Separated Ministry

Reflection ~ Perfect Timing

As a typical Type A personality, my natural tendency is to act quickly to address any problem that might arise. This was never more true than when I was going through my divorce. Unfortunately, acting too quickly often pushes God out of the situation as we can step all over His plans. Remember, God’s timing is always perfect. This excerpt from an old hymn reminds us that often the best response to problems or pain is to wait patiently for God, who can always be trusted to act in just the right way at just the right time.

Be still, my soul--the Lord is on thy side!
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to thy God to order and provide--
In every change he faithful will remain.
Be still my soul--thy best, thy heavenly friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.*

*Hymn #651 from The Lutheran Hymnal
Text: Psalm 46:10
Author: Catharine Amalia Dorothea von Schlegel, 1752, cento
Translated by: Jane Borthwick, 1855
Titled: "Stille, mein Wille"
Composer: Jean Sibelius, b. 1865, arr.

For I know well the plans I have in mind for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! plans to give a future full of hope. - Jeremiah 29:11

"Aha" - Process vs. Results in Caregiving

Stephen Ministry training equips all of our Stephen Ministers with an “Aha!” moment - a collective sigh of relief. Over the course of our training we have learned that we don’t have to (and indeed can’t) fix whatever problem it is that our care receiver faces. We realize that when we place our trust in God, as He has asked, we come to know that He is the curegiver and we are only the caregivers. This establishment of roles is what makes Stephen Ministry possible. The concept runs counter to the strong results-oriented approaches of present-day society. But in caregiving, the more one pushes for results in another, the faster and farther they flee. Please continue to pray for us as we work hard to continue our ministry of Christ-centered caregiving. And please pray that those who are in crisis or suffering have the courage to step forward and ask for help.

If you or someone you know is hurting, find out more about Stephen Ministry by talking with one of our Stephen Leaders:
John Tracy, 210 215-0411, Norma Garza, 210 379-7874 (Spanish), or Pam Hughes, 210 394-5723 or email Pam at pjsmemories@gmail.com.

"The LORD’s kindness never fails! If he had not been merciful, we would have been destroyed. The LORD can always be trusted to show mercy each morning. Deep in my heart I say, ‘The LORD is all I need; I can depend on him!’” (Lamentations 3:22-24 CEV).

Emotional exhaustion isn’t new. It’s also not something foreign to the Bible. Just read the book of Lamentations.

When Jeremiah wrote the book, Jerusalem had been captured. The Israelites were in exile. Everything Jeremiah held sacred had been destroyed.

He was emotionally exhausted, and for an entire book of the Bible, Jeremiah releases his frustrations and expresses his emotions to God.

In the midst of these complaints, he refocuses on God. He writes, “Yet I still dare to hope when I remember this” (Lamentations 3:21 NLT).

What brought Jeremiah hope during this very difficult time? He answers immediately:

“The Lord’s kindness never fails! If he had not been merciful, we would have been destroyed. The Lord can always be trusted to show mercy each morning. Deep in my heart I say, ‘The Lord is all I need; I can depend on him!’” (Lamentations 3:22-24 CEV).

Jeremiah refocuses on five truths about God that helped to refuel him in the midst of his exhaustion.

He remembers:

- God’s Steadfast love
- God’s Unfailing mercy
- God’s Great faithfulness
- God is Always kind
- God is my Real hope

When life overwhelms you, don’t focus on your problems. Don’t give in to despair.

Focus your attention on God himself.

A lot of people reach for chocolate when they’re emotionally exhausted. But it can’t truly comfort you.

But notice the acronym above. It’ll help you remember this truth. This is the kind of SUGAR you’ll need in order to be refueled. You won’t get a sugar high through it. It won’t make you gain weight. It won’t make you more depressed.

Build your life around those character traits of God, and you’ll be ready for whatever setback comes your way.

Talk About It

- How do you think you might have responded to a disaster like Jeremiah faced, where his home city had been destroyed and his people had been exiled?
- When you feel emotionally exhausted, which truth about God’s character from today’s devotional has the biggest impact on your well-being? Why?
- The next time you feel burned out, what are some ways you can remember to refocus on who God is?
Read the Gospel and Color

Puzzle

Circle the picture that is the same as the first one. Then color in all the pictures.

Mission for the Week

I will ask God in the morning and at night to make my family healthy and wise.
Sharing the Gospel

If your sister is very sick, pray for her. Ask God to send his healing power to make your sister feel better. Decorate a card to make her feel better. Fix her a bowl of chicken noodle soup on a tray with a few crackers. Put a cool damp cloth on her forehead to keep her fever down. Put a colorful blanket on her to keep her warm. Your loving care will help her feel better.

Prayer

Jesus, please heal the sick in our church community.

Something to Draw

Draw a colorful quilt with 16 squares to cover someone who is sick.

Sharing the Gospel

Instead of telling people he was the Savior, Jesus showed them. By raising Lazarus from the dead, Jesus sent a message loud and clear. Jesus was the Savior they had all been waiting for. He was filled with God’s love and power, and many people believed in him.

Prayer

Thank you for showing me that you are my Savior, Jesus.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Lazarus wrapped up like a mummy, walking to Jesus.
