De Colores!

Thank you for your willingness to consider serving on a Cursillo team. Those who serve find that it is a wonderful way not only to share their faith and be God's instrument in helping others to deepen their relationship with Him, but also to deepen their own relationship with God.

Before sending in your application, please note the following points:

- Calls inviting people to serve on teams will be made by the Rector/a, generally several weeks prior to the beginning of team meetings so that arrangements can be made to eliminate scheduling conflicts.

There are five weeks of team formation prior to the Cursillo weekend. Team members are expected to attend all meetings unless prior arrangements are made with the Rector/a.

- There is also a Saturday meeting in which several rollos will be previewed.
- The Rector/a will advise you of the meeting dates and times when you are invited to serve on a team.
- During the weeks of team formation, team members are asked to do palanca for one another and for the candidates who will be coming to the weekend.
- Understanding that Cursillo is sponsored by the Roman Catholic Church, it is important during the weekend that team members support the Church's positions on marriage and the sanctify of human life as well as other sacramental and moral teachings, according to their consciences.
- A professed Roman Catholic serving on a team will be actively practicing their Catholic faith through regular Mass attendance and support the teachings and principles of the Catholic Church.
- Team members are asked to attend the post-Cursillo meeting on the Tuesday following the weekend. All are also encouraged to attend the Ultreya following the weekend.
- Team members are expected to meet with a new reunion group for six weeks to make sure they get started off right
- Team members are asked to contact the candidates from their table after the weekend for a least six months to encourage them to become involved.

St. Francis tells us that it is in giving that we receive. We thank you for being willing to give of your time and talents through team service and encourage you to turn in your application to the Cursillo office.

In God's Love,

Team Selection Committee
