In addition, please be aware that we will take several field trips throughout the year. For example, we will spend a week at a day camp called Annie's Big Nature Lesson, the cost of which is around $40.00 per student, and we will visit the Blessed Solonus Casey Center in Detroit ($5.00 per student). We are also looking into a few other field trips that will likely cost less than $10.00 per student.
