Message from the Pastor

It's graduation season once again and our little ones are on the verge of flying on their own very soon. Many parents will have to face the sadness of an "empty nest". But mostly they will be proud of their child going off on their own for the first time, tinged with a parent's worry for them.

To all the graduates, I want to offer my congratulations and the promise of my prayers. Hate to see you go. I'm going to miss your smiling faces, especially if you were a server or a reader, or were regularly at Mass and Youth Group. I loved your enthusiasm and the commitment you made to your faith. Keep on believing and praying when you are off at college or work. Make sure you find a parish nearby and make it to Mass every Sunday. Parents of graduates, help your kids out by finding a parish and encouraging them to keep going to church when they are away.

For all the high schoolers who are thinking about what the future holds for them, I encourage you to look into the next step in your lives as a step along the way in your vocation. When you are looking into where to go to college, make sure you check out the good Catholic colleges out there. They are places where you can continue to grow in your faith and pursue your life's work where God wants you to be.

You, young men, I encourage you to look into Bishop Brute College Seminary in Indianapolis. There you will attend classes at Marion University while living with other young men who are seeking out God's Will for their lives and a possible vocation to the priesthood. It's where our seminarian, now deacon, Alex Witt went for his undergrad. Now he is just a year away from ordination and a job serving in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati as a parish priest. As you could tell from his homily at church a couple of weeks ago, he is on fire with love for Christ and zeal for souls. You can have the same thing. You just need to give it a try.

Once again, good luck to our graduates and may God bless you in whatever path you choose to follow. Fr. Barry
