Message from the Pastor

There are many arguments for legalized abortion; like: "It's not a person yet" (and even, it's not a human being, just a potential human being); or, "It's not viable", meaning it can't survive outside the womb; or, "It's my body, I have the right to choose what to do with my body". These are the standard arguments for abortion, along with the overriding claim that "It's between me and my doctor, I don't want the government interfering with my privacy."

These arguments could be shredded using basic reasoning, especially from a Christian, humanistic perspective. To do this, however, usually ends up with a clash of people stuck on their opinion and deadlock. There's nothing you could say to a pro-life person to justify an elective abortion. And there is usually nothing you could say to a pro-choice/pro-abortion person to get them to change their mind. And usually, to a woman who finds herself in the sad position of feeling the need to make the choice to end her pregnancy, no argument or words can move her to see the value of saving the innocent life in her womb.

But, where words fail, an image can move mountains. Remember back in the 1970's, the Indian chief with the tear in his eye looking out at all the polluted landscape? That image changed a generation, making pollution one of the biggest no-no's ever. One image changed the whole society.

In the movie, Juno, the pregnant teen goes to the abortion clinic to see about getting the procedure and taking care of the mistake inside her. Outside the clinic is one demonstrator, a classmate of hers, a girl who is not cool like the protagonist. As she passes her on her way into the clinic, the girl tells her "your baby has fingernails". The pregnant girl pauses, but still goes into the clinic. Later, she changes her mind and decides to have her baby, citing the fact that the baby inside her had fingernails already.

It's an image like this which can reach the mother's heart and move her to give life and not destroy it. This should be our aim in fighting for life. For example, use of the ultrasound image can go a long way towards this. We need to support our local pregnancy centers such as Choosing Life in Celina and the Auglaize County Family Life Center here in St. Marys. Each has an ultrasound machine. Each can help save the lives of many children.

Let's continue to pray for all pregnant women, especially those in difficult situations. Let's also pray for the fathers of these unborn children. Together we can make a difference in their lives and promote a culture of life.

Fr. Barry

KNIGHTS CONTRIBUTE TO HOLY ROSARY SCHOOL,
CONTINUE VOCATIONS SUPPORT

Members of the Father James O. Byrne Knights of Columbus Council 1592 recently saluted the organization's annual charity campaign program, the Holy Rosary Church and School staffs as well as the parish choir for the efforts during this past year with its annual banquet.

For the fourth consecutive year, the local council sold more than 1,000 tickets the most successful stretch of sales in the council's history. Out of 85 councils in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, the St. Marys council had the fourth highest sales in 2016. This campaign provides support to more than 30 different organizations in the community.

Grand Knight Ben Brown presented Father Barry with a check for $300 to be used for Holy Rosary School and its programs. Brown also presented a $500 check from the Father James O. Byrne Vocations Fund to Michael Mazzei, the seminarian interning at Holy Rosary and St. Patrick parishes. The Knights want to thank all of its members and all parishioners for supporting the annual campaign.

Joy is impossible without love, and romantic love is impossible without chastity. In this high energy presentation, Matt proposes that the virtue of chastity is for those who desire joy and that any sexual relationship devoid of this virtue will always disappoint. #### This week's CD Feature - *Facing Your Fears

Mark Hart uses Scripture and his experience of surviving an earthquake to share how we can master our fears. He also reveals how our fears will pursue us if we don't meet them head on. Mark encourages us to not only face the proverbial giants in our lives but to slay them as David did Goliath, thereby finding freedom in Christ.

Parishioner Comments

Mark emphasizes that fear immobilizes us, while love moves us to do great things. I now plan to tell my problems how big God is, not vice versa.

September 26, 2017

Dear Fathers,

As you are aware, several weeks ago I asked that a special collection be taken up to assist relief efforts in Texas and Florida following Hurricane Harvey and Hurricane Irma. Since that time, a number of people have asked how they can assist the victims of Hurricane Maria – Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and Cuba – and/or the victims of the 8.1 magnitude earthquake in Mexico.

Those wishing to assist the victims of Hurricane Maria should be directed to:

Catholic Charities USA
2050 Ballenger Avenue
Suite 400
Alexandria, VA 22314

Those wishing to assist the victims of the earthquake in Mexico should be directed to:

Catholic Relief Services
228 W Lexington St
Baltimore, MD 21201

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Dennis M. Schnurr

Most Reverend Dennis M. Schnurr
Archbishop of Cincinnati
