Message from the Pastor

Advent is a great season to really make the jump to a life of greater faith and attention to God and the Church. It's a time to put your faith into action. It's a time to really believe with all your heart, soul, mind and body. Through the Seven Sacraments, the Catholic Church provides the kind of vehicle for us to exercise our faith in this way. The Sacraments are very tangible, physical signs of the grace of God which is communicated to us. We can be sure of the grace of God coming to us through validly offered Sacraments.

What again is the grace of God? Good question. God's grace isn't something we can physically measure, like little lighted balls of fluff. Grace is a relationship with God; an interchange of life and of love between God and us. When we are in the state of grace, living a life of grace, free from mortal, or deadly sin, we have a connection with God. His grace flows to us like a conduit of life-giving water. Mortal sin, of course, breaks that channel completely. Venial sin blocks it up, preventing the grace of God to flow freely to us, hurting our relationship with God. God doesn't totally abandon us when we are in sin. He maintains that foundational relationship with us as our Creator, sustaining the breath of natural life in us. He also keeps that relationship as our Father through our baptism. He never lets go of us.

But it is through the Sacraments of the Church that God wishes to communicate his grace to us. We should use these means, all given to the Church by Jesus Christ, to the best of our abilities, receiving them well and letting them enrich our souls. To do this, one must be in the state of grace (free from serious or mortal sin), which is restored through the Sacrament of Confession. That's why it is recommended that you go to Confession before you receive the Sacraments, especially Confirmation, Marriage or Holy Orders. On a regular basis, at least once a year, you should go to Confession so that you receive Holy Communion each week in a good state of soul. Clean house before the Guest comes to visit.

This Advent I hope you make a step towards a more profound and active practice of your Catholic Faith. A great sign of this would be to go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation some time before Christmas. There are additional times for Confessions at Holy Rosary, like Saturdays at 11:00 am. There are also many penance services available at nearby parishes. Clear that channel of grace between you and God. Clean your house for the best Guest you could ever receive when He comes at Christmas.

RITE OF ACCEPTANCE
RITE OF WELCOMING

On Sunday, December 3rd, at the 11a.m. Mass, we celebrated the Rite of Acceptance and the Rite of Welcoming for those participating in the RCIA. By celebrating this rite, all are publicly declaring their intention to enter a formal relationship with the Church, learning its ways and participating in its lifestyle. The Church, (all parishioners) in turn, accepts their commitment and pledges her support throughout their journey of faith by encouragement and prayers. Catechumen and candidates are: Dylan Beery, David Eversman, Ashley Hullinger, Korey Hullinger, Mason Jutte, Adam Smith, Tom Strasburg, and Tina Youngs. Please continue to pray for all in the RCIA as they continue to discern God's call in their lives.

This week's CD Feature

The Fourth Cup

Well-known Catholic theologian Dr. Scott Hahn explains Christ's Paschal Sacrifice on the cross as the fulfillment of the traditional fourth cup used in the celebration of the Jewish Passover meal. He draws a symbolic parallel to the Last Supper and Christ's death on Calvary. Through his scholarly insights and important biblical connections, Mass will come alive for you as never before!

Sunday School Program and Santa Visit

Come to the school gym immediately following 11:00a.m. Mass this Sunday, December 10. Our Sunday school children will sing and dance as they prepare for the coming of Jesus in their annual Christmas program. We will begin the program 10 minutes after Mass ends. After the program, Santa will arrive. He will be ready to hear all of our Christmas wishes. All are welcome to stay and visit with Santa and enjoy refreshments provided by the Knights of Columbus, Fr. Byrne Council 1592.

Joyful News from Holy Rosary School

School Resource Officer Josh Boos comes into our building every day. Officer Boos is the SRO for St. Marys City Schools and Holy Rosary School. We appreciate the fact that he stops in to see us every day on his route. Officer Boos and other law enforcement officials have been holding monthly safety meetings with students and staff. St. Marys Fire Department and Auglaize County Sheriff's Department members are also a vital part of our school family. We appreciate the cooperation and concern shown by our community!

Students and staff are holding a Quiet Quarter each week of Advent. This includes short prayers, Bible verses, and a quiet reflection period for us, as we wait and long for the Savior on Christmas Day. Children are filling the Tree of Kindness with good deeds for Advent! May you all have a blessed Advent as the birth of the Christ Child gets closer and closer!

Old Testament Book of Exodus Study

Linda Lunz will be leading a study of the Old Testament Book of Exodus through Advent and Lent. It is a 10 week session by Tom Gray. Exodus, Called to Freedom, deals with the defining time in Israel's history as God called Israel out of slavery in Egypt to a life of freedom in the Promised Land. The sessions will help us understand the meaning of this sacred event in the life of the Church and our own personal lives.

Session 3 - "Let My People...Worship" will be held on Tuesday, December 12, at 7pm. Please read Exodus Chapters 5 and 6 prior to our gathering.

Contact Linda Lunz with any questions. 419-733-5807 or markandlindalunz@yahoo.com.

Ladies of St. Patrick

St. Patrick's monthly Rosary will be on December 18th at 7:00pm in the rectory.

Following the rosary we will be having a Christmas party. There will be no Bible Study that evening. We are asking the ladies to please bring a dessert or appetizer to share. Please come and pray and enjoy fellowship

Thank You

Choosing Life Pregnancy Center sends their sincere thank you to everyone at Holy Rosary and St. Patrick who participated in the Red Envelope Campaign helping to save babies lives!

TURKEY PARTY MEETING

A meeting will be held on Monday, December 11th, at 7:00 p.m. at the St. Patrick rectory to discuss the future of the Turkey Party. All parishioners are invited to attend. Many of the chairs for the Turkey Party would like to pass on their duties to younger members of the parish and a decision needs to be made whether to continue the party as it is or to start a new fund raiser for the parish with less work. Without a fund raiser, the parish would lose the extra $10,000 taken in to maintain the financial stability of the parish.

If you are unable to attend the meeting but have ideas, comments or suggestions, please contact Virgil Brown (419-300-8855) or Dave Steinke (419-738-8702).
