Message from the Pastor

This week I will be in Wheeling, West Virginia, for my yearly week of continuing education. I will be with over 200 of my fellow priests at a bible study put on by the St. Paul Center for Biblical Studies out of Pittsburgh. The theme of our week of study and prayer will be "A Priest Forever: Christ and the New Testament." The great biblical theologian and convert, Scott Hahn, will be one of the speakers. We have several of his books on the Book Borrower's Shelf in church, including The Lamb's Supper (which I highly recommend). Mr. Hahn is a very learned theologian, but also a very spiritual, prayerful, and humble man. He has six kids and one of them is in the seminary. He has a deep reverence for the priesthood and will help me grow in my commitment to my own priesthood. I'll be back for Masses next weekend. Have a great week!

Fr. Barry

Take Note: The Totus Tuus team members, including seminarian Max Travis, will be speaking at all Masses next weekend, July 21-22, to promote the program they will be hosting at Holy Rosary, July 21-27, and tell us about their work across the Archdiocese this summer.

Novelty Booth News

The Novelty Booth is such a busy booth during our festival. We go through 300+ baskets - that takes a lot of items and baskets. Keeping this in mind, we have decided to approach this a little differently for next year.

We will be accepting items all year long for this booth. Items can be dropped at the parish office. Please keep the booth in mind every time you go shopping - just think of the clearance/seasonal items you can pick up between now and next year's festival! Let's get those creative imaginations going! For those who aren't creative - we will appreciate your donations of items to put into the baskets.

The parish/school appreciate all the hard work and effort that everyone puts into making this festival a success.
