Message from the Pastor

Nobody likes packing. Every time I tell someone that I'm going to be packing, they show me the deepest of sympathy. Some even offer to bring me a six-pack! But it hasn't been all bad. There's a lot that has made packing these past few weeks easier.

I've had good friends come over to lend a hand and there have been a few nights where I've stayed up way too late talking about life and the Lord over a box of half packed books.

Then there's also the excitement for the new adventure that awaits me in St. Marys. When I pack a box, I feel like I'm going off on an incredible mission. I don't know what all the Lord has in store for me bringing me back to these parishes that have become a second home to me, but I trust in Him. I know that He's bringing me back for my good and your good...to help us all get to Heaven. I'm excited about that and I hope you are, too!

Admittedly though, it has been difficult in some ways. Especially saying goodbye to the friends I've made in Coldwater. These past three years have been a blessing. But I keep telling them (and myself) that it's only 20 minutes away. If anybody from Coldwater is reading this, we'll meet on the island in the middle of Grand Lake!

Perhaps the most difficult part of this has been knowing that even though in so many ways I am coming home and I will be so happy to see so many familiar faces, rekindle old friendships and forge new ones, I also know that Fr. Barry won't be there. Fr. Barry has been a friend, a mentor, an example, a brother, a confidant, and so much more to me... and a part of my heart hurts that he won't be there when I get back. It's hard to imagine Holy Rosary and St. Patrick's without him. I will miss him immensely. I know that many of you will also miss him and it's okay to miss him. Don't feel like you're snubbing me by missing him!

People have told me I have big shoes to fill (I tell them I plan to just wear a different pair of shoes!) and they're right. So as I begin this new phase in my life, this new adventure in my vocation as a priest of the most high God, I also just want to say "thank you" to Fr. Barry for everything he has done and ask all of you to pray for him.

Pray for me, too.

By Christ's Will and through the intercession of our Mother Mary and St. Patrick,

Your pastor,

Fr. Witt

GUIDELINES FOR RETURNING MASS

Please remember that the faithful have been dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. Thus, those who wish to participate in Mass and receive Holy Communion can do so by attending a Mass any day of the week. Those who are at risk or fearful that they or their family might become sick are encouraged to join us for a Mass that is live-streamed online each weekend.

Appropriate social distancing and the regulations put forth by public health authorities must be observed. Here are the guidelines for Holy Rosary & St. Patrick.

- Entry doors will be open for you to have a touch-free entry into church.
- Hand sanitizer will be available as you enter. Please use it.
- You may wear a mask.
- Use all available (every other row will be marked for usage) space in the church. Families who have been in contact with each other may sit together. All others must be spaced at least 6 feet apart.
- No physical contact at the Our Father or Sign of Peace.
- No Holy Communion will be given from cups by the faithful. You will stay 6 feet apart from every individual as you approach for Communion, ushers will release you from pews. (A family with small children can approach together, keeping 6 feet from other parishioners.) There will be properly spaced Eucharistic ministers per section. Eucharistic ministers will do their best to drop the host into your hand without touching. (Eucharistic ministers will sanitize their hands & be wearing masks prior to distribution of communion.)
- There will be no missalettes or hymnals in the pews.
- The cry room will be available during Mass with proper social distancing.
- Collection baskets will not be passed during Mass. As you enter or exit Mass, please drop your envelopes into the basket in the entrances. We appreciate your gifts so much during this difficult time!
- Bulletins will be distributed as you leave and are also available online.
- The church will be sanitized after each Mass.

Please DO NOT congregate in the Vestibule or entrance ways in order to keep social distancing for all arriving & leaving

During the first two weeks of public Masses, we will be counting attendees and making any adjustments that are needed. So, we may have further changes and share additional communications on this.

Remember, the responsibility to keep others healthy is one that we all share. If you are sick or have been exposed to someone who is sick, please do not join us for Mass.

Most importantly, always be kind and patient. We are in a confusing and sometimes overwhelming situation. Your parish is doing its absolute best to help you, protect you and share our love for Christ with you. Please show your love of Christ by being Christ to others!
