Message from the Pastor

This past week, I got a voicemail from a woman whose husband recently passed away. She called to simply thank the church because the other day we had offered a simple burial service and blessing for the grave of her husband who had been a “fallen away Catholic”. When she initially called, she wasn’t sure if we could do that though. Is it right for us to offer those prayers for a fallen away Catholic?

Yes, without a doubt in my mind! To bury the dead is one of the seven corporal works of mercy and to pray for the dead is a spiritual work of mercy (you can read more about the Works of Mercy in Catechism number 2447). Some people might not think so though because we can sometimes think of those who are fallen away as “no longer worthy” of the Church’s prayers. I think that was this woman’s concern. But it’s important to remember that the prayers of the Church are not for the worthy; they make us worthy by immersing us in the Blood of Christ. While there might be a certain right way of doing things (ex: going to Confession before Holy Communion if we are aware of having committed a mortal sin), the Sacraments, our sacramentals—in a word—all the prayers of the Church are for our continual conversion until we reach the perfection which is only possible in Heaven.

For the first 300 years after Christ, it was illegal to be a Catholic in the Roman Empire. The Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy baffled the pagans. For the pagans, people were only as good to them as they were useful, so when people died, the rich might get a funeral, but the poor or the outcast were often left uncared for. That’s part of what made Christians so different from the world. By caring for the poor, visiting the outcasts of society, and burying the dead the Church was communicating a message that lies at the heart of what it means to be a Catholic: There is a God who loves you no matter what and so do we!

While the world constantly fills us with messages like “you’re only good if you’re useful” or “I’ll scratch your back if you scratch mine”, Catholics are called to care for people no matter what. That simple generosity is often what those who don’t know Christ and His Church really need. It tells them that they are worthy of being loved, not because they have done anything, but because they have a Father in Heaven who loves them. Yes, he was a fallen-away Catholic; but Christ and His Church still love and care for him. He was worthy of God’s grace and the Church’s prayers not because he had earned them, but simply because he, like anyone we meet on the street, is precious in God’s sight. C.S. Lewis summed it up well when he reminded us to remember that, “outside of the Blessed Sacrament, your neighbor is the holiest thing presented to your sight.”

Your pastor,

Fr. Witt

GUIDELINES FOR RETURNING MASS

Please remember that the faithful have been dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. Thus, those who wish to participate in Mass and receive Holy Communion can do so by attending a Mass any day of the week. Those who are at risk or fearful that they or their family might become sick are encouraged to join us for a Mass that is live-streamed online each weekend.

Appropriate social distancing and the regulations put forth by public health authorities must be observed. Here are the guidelines for Holy Rosary & St. Patrick.

- Entry doors will be open for you to have a touch-free entry into church.
- Hand sanitizer will be available as you enter. Please use it.
- You will be required to wear a mask when attending any Mass or event on the Holy Rosary Campus. If you are medically fragile or unable to wear a mask, please view the live streamed Sunday Mass at 11am on our church website or our Facebook page.
- Use all available (every other row will be marked for usage) space in the church. Families who have been in contact with each other may sit together. All others must be spaced at least 6 feet apart. Please start sitting in the middle of the pew so that others can fill in the outside later.
- No physical contact at the Our Father and there will be no Sign of Peace, similar to Advent & Lent.
- No Holy Communion will be given from chalices by the faithful. Please stay 6 feet apart from every individual as you approach for Holy Communion; ushers will release you from pews. (A family with small children can approach together, keeping 6 feet from other parishioners.) There will be properly spaced Eucharistic ministers per section. Eucharistic ministers will do their best to drop the host into your hand without touching. (Eucharistic ministers will sanitize their hands & be wearing masks prior to distribution of communion and will have a hand wet wipe in their hand in case of contact when distributing.)
- There will be no missalettes or hymnals in the pews. Missalettes are available at the entrances of the church. Take one home, put your name on it and bring it back each time. Any left behind will be disposed of.
- The cry room will be available during Mass with proper social distancing.
- Collection baskets will not be passed during Mass. As you enter or exit Mass, please drop your envelopes into the basket in the entrances.

We appreciate your gifts so much during this difficult time!

- Bulletins will be distributed as you leave and are also available online.
- The church will be sanitized after each Mass. ** If anyone would like to help with this, please contact the parish office.

Please DO NOT congregate in the Vestibule or entrance ways in order to keep social distancing for all arriving & leaving.

Remember, the responsibility to keep others healthy is one that we all share. If you are sick or have been exposed to someone who is sick, please do not join us for Mass, but instead watch online.

Most importantly, always be kind and patient. We are in a confusing and sometimes overwhelming situation. Your parish is doing its absolute best to help you, protect you, and share our love for Christ with you. Please show your love of Christ by being Christ to others!

Questions? Please contact Fr. Witt, Deacon Marty, Jess Rammel at 419-394-5050 or email the office at holyrosary@bright.net.
