Jane Knuth

Jane writes a monthly column for The Good News, the newspaper of the Diocese of Kalamazoo, and co-writes a column for a local newspaper, (coincidentally named Good News) with her daughter Ellen.

In 2011, Jane's first book, Thrift Store Saints: Meeting Jesus 25 Cents at a Time, was awarded first place from the Catholic Press Association for Popular Presentation of the Catholic Faith. Thrift Store Graces, her second book was published in 2012. She and her daughter Ellen, released Love Will Steer Me True: A Mother and Daughter's Conversations on Love, Life, and God from Loyola Press in November 2014.

Join us for an interesting, informative, and inspiring evening with Jane Knuth as she shares how she met Jesus at the St. Vincent de Paul thrift store in Kalamazoo. Rather than viewing society's poor as problems to be solved, she began to see them in a different light—as saints who can lead us straight to the heart of Christ.

Jane Knuth's books will be available to purchase with cash or check.
