Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.’

INTRODUCING THE NEW PASTORAL ASSOCIATE

I am very happy to announce that STM has a new pastoral associate. We were saddened to say goodbye to Sister Rebecca but next weekend we will welcome Deacon Michael Stach to our parish. Deacon Michael has enthusiastically accepted the position of pastoral associate with particular responsibility in the areas of Worship and Christian Service. I look forward to Deacon Michael being a valuable member of our parish staff. I rejoice we will be sharing ministry together here at STM.

Deacon Michael has been serving at Sacred Heart Parish in Auburn Hills since 1998. He’s the father of three children and he and his wife/family live in Rochester Hills.

I look forward to Deacon Michael becoming an important part of our parish’s rebirth. I am confident he will be working closely with myself, Deacon Chris, and the staff, and using the gifts and talents God has blessed him with, he will help all of us move forward to becoming ever more faithful and joyful disciples of the Lord Jesus.

WELCOME DEACON MICHAEL STACH!

I also want to take this opportunity to thank parishioner Mary Ann Hannigan who has been taking care of Worship matters on an interim basis. Mary Ann’s done a great job and I am grateful for her willingness to step in when needed.

I also wish to thank Julie Komarzec who is retiring from her position as Faith Formation secretary. Julie has served in that capacity for 17 years and through those years of dedicated service she has done much to help move STM forward. Thanks, Julie, and may God bless you in this next chapter of your life.

Finally I wish to “welcome aboard” Julie’s replacement in Faith Formation, Angela Seba. Angela is excited about joining the STM staff and we are happy she will be part of the Faith Formation program. WELCOME ANGELA!

Next Sunday is the first Sunday in Advent. Can you believe it? Tell Jesus now you want to make it the best Advent ever. Then make it happen.

Have a wonderful faith-filled week and please pray for me.

Msgr. Tom Rice

PILGRIMS ON A JOURNEY

By Deacon Christopher Stark

Happy belated Thanksgiving! I hope that you and your family and friends were able to gather and enjoy a festive and loving Thanksgiving holiday. My family and I are away for our annual Thanksgiving pilgrimage to Myrtle Beach, where we will have rejoined my in-laws for a week along the Atlantic, and maybe even a round (or two!) of golf. Please pray for our safe travels, as I will for you and yours during this holiday season.

This Sunday, the Church celebrates The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, which is often more commonly referred to as, Christ the King. This weekend represents the last weekend of Ordinary Time - as next Sunday begins the 1st Week of Advent. You may have noticed that throughout the month of November, the Church has offered in the selected Sunday scriptural passages - consistent references or metaphors to the realities of life and death. Fitting, and appropriate - since the season of Fall also gives us a consistent reminder of the cycle of life...with the turning and dropping of the leaves from the trees, etc. Nature and the Church calendar are cooperating in the partnership of reminding us of the natural course of our earthly existence, from beginning...to end.

Our Gospel passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew. Specifically it is the Gospel of Matthew 25:31-46. A bit of personal revelation, here...THIS is my all-time favorite Gospel passage. I find that I discover something new about God and His love for us - each time that I read, proclaim, pray, and preach this passage. Some folks say that The Lord’s Prayer is the perfect prayer, because the fullness of our Christian teaching and beliefs are found within the content of the Prayer, itself. I agree with that assessment. I also find the same to be true with regard to MT 25:31-46. I believe that the fullness of our Christian beliefs and teachings are also found within the content of this passage.

Now, as you have come to know me over these last couple of years - you know that I am a rather simple guy, who came from Clawson...I never spent much time out in the woods or on a farm. As I began to read, and pray...and prepare to preach on this passage - I needed to do my homework. The first stumbling block for me was, "why did Jesus use the metaphor of sheep vs. goats?" Quite frankly, I thought somehow that they might actually be the same animal with just different names...knowing the differences in barnyard animals was just never my 'thing.' Come to find out, sheep and goats are very different animals, indeed.

Dear STM Parishioners,

My name is Angela Seba and I will be the new faith formation secretary. Julie has helped me transition to this new role and I know I have big shoes to fill. I am really excited to begin my new role here at St. Thomas More.

I have been married to my husband, Abir, for 21 years. We have three beautiful boys, Kyle, Collin, and Logan. Kyle, 16, and Collin 14 attend Bishop Foley Catholic High School. Logan, 11, is in 6th Grade and attends St. Lawrence. Our catholic faith is very important to us as a family.

As for myself, I have a background in education and business. Many years ago I received my degree in education but decided to stay at home with the boys. During my time at home I also helped my family with our family business and volunteering with various children activities at church. Also, I love spending time learning about my faith and helping others. I am looking forward to meeting all the wonderful families of St. Thomas More.

Many Blessings,

Angela Seba

Today during Mass something different is being implemented here at St. Thomas More. Change is never easy and it takes repetition before it feels natural. I’d like to share a personal story about something that happened to me in Mass many years ago that I only understood in hindsight.

In the past I was a “hit or miss” Mass attendee, and when I would go I didn’t receive Communion. One day, as I was sitting there, I felt a tug on my heart to go up and receive Him. This happened a few times, and I ignored it until one day the tug was so palpable I finally conceded. After that I started receiving Communion every time I was at Mass. I’d like to say that it was then and there that my eyes were opened to Him, but it wasn’t. It took a few more years. Even though I didn’t understand what was happening at the time, God was patiently working in me.

God wants to give me grace in order to be the person He created me to be, to live an abundant life. There are many ways I am given grace, but it is in the Eucharist that is the most intimate of ways. His body intermingles with mine and I am touched by His divinity. I acknowledge God as my creator and savior, and with that knowledge my head bows and my knee bends to Him. Therefore, it is not natural for me to not kneel before receiving Him in the most intimate of ways. I pray that in the coming weeks kneeling to Him will become natural for everyone here at St. Thomas More.

– Josylin Mateus

Below is a partial text produced by the Committee on Doctrine of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?

Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist as spiritual nourishment because he loves us. God’s whole plan for our salvation is directed to our participation in the life of the Trinity, the communion of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Our sharing in this life begins with our Baptism, when by the power of the Holy Spirit we are joined to Christ, thus becoming adopted sons and daughters of the Father. It is strengthened and increased in Confirmation. It is nourished and deepened through our participation in the Eucharist. By eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ in the Eucharist we become united to the person of Christ through his humanity. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him" (Jn 6:56). In being united to the humanity of Christ we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life. "Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me" (Jn 6:57). By being united to Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us, we are drawn up into the eternal relationship of love among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As Jesus is the eternal Son of God by nature, so we become sons and daughters of God by adoption through the sacrament of Baptism. Through the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation (Chrismatism), we are temples of the Holy Spirit, who dwells in us, and by his indwelling we are made holy by the gift of sanctifying grace. The ultimate promise of the Gospel is that we will share in the life of the Holy Trinity. The Fathers of the Church called this participation in the divine life "divinization" (theosis). In this we see that God does not merely send us good things from on high; instead, we are brought up into the inner life of God, the communion among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In the celebration of the Eucharist (which means “thanksgiving”) we give praise and glory to God for this sublime gift.
Sheep exhibit a behavior that says, "I'm all about the herd." Sheep gather and stick together. They look out for, and care for one another. Sheep are humble animals, they only eat of the grasses and roots that are closest to the ground. Goats, on the other-hand...well, their behavior is a bit more 'self-centered.' A goat is ALL about the goat. Goats are considerably more stand-offish. They don't herd, and they're certainly not about risking their necks for another. If a goat could speak, the most frequent question that you would ever hear it ask would be, "what's in it for me?" Followed by a close 2nd-place, "why should I?" Goats are not humble in any manner. A goat will only eat the finest flower at the top of the tallest plants that it can reach. There's no 'bending down' to eat from the ground...no, goats are only interested in what's best for themselves. Now...re-read MT 25: 31-46.

Here's another secret about me. I find that I am personally hard-wired to be more like a goat than I am to be like a sheep. That is my personal struggle. It's the reason why for the last several years I have worn a goatee (mustache and beard)...to remind myself - everyday, as I groom in the mirror..."Don't be a goat today." "Stark, just 'cause you look like a goat doesn't mean that you have to act like one." My prayer is that someday, when my days on earth have come to an end - that our God will shepherd me over to the sheep-side of the equation. "How do we open ourselves to becoming more sheep-like?" By changing our ways. By welcoming Christ The King to reign in our hearts - not as a tyrant or dictator...but as the Good Shepherd who loves His sheep! By becoming more deliberate and intentional in our worship of God, and in our love of neighbor. By going to Mass on a consistent (weekly!) basis. By becoming an engaged member of the Church community, and getting involved in those areas where our personal gifts and abilities can do the most good. By calling a friend who's feeling down. By visiting a lonely widowed neighbor with a plate of homemade cookies. By taking our kids to go volunteer - on a regular basis - at a Senior Citizen's Home, or at a Shelter...by being caught - on a regular basis - of praying at our desks at work, or in restaurants before a meal.

"Lord - shepherd us beyond our wants...and Lord, for heaven's sake - please don't let us be goats today!"

+Peace
Dcn. Chris

EVANGELIZATION

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

SIGNS AND WONDERS

“They devoted themselves to ... prayers. Awe came upon everyone and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.... And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.” (Acts 2:42-47)

_Unleash the Gospel_ is a guide to unleashing the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives, families and community and so bring people to encounter Jesus. Just as the first disciples prayed for the descent of the Spirit at Pentecost, we in the Archdiocese of Detroit prayed for a new coming of the Holy Spirit in preparation for Synod 16. And just as the prayers of the first disciples brought about signs and wonders and healings, we in Michigan are also seeing signs and healings. We pray that our sharing of the Gospel that accompanies these signs is effective in moving hearts to come to know the Lord.

Today, ordinary Catholics are reluctant to pray in Jesus Name over others for healing. Yet _healings of the sick_ have been a constant sign of God’s Grace and Power since the age of the Apostles. Maybe we’re afraid to try to heal because we doubt we are “holy” enough, or we believe, like the centurion, “Lord, I am not worthy...” Maybe we’re afraid to fail or believe that our faith is not strong enough, or we doubt God.

“BE NOT AFRAID”

Healing is a gift for the Church, a _charism_, that is available to all, even sinners, who repent and fearlessly profess Jesus is Lord. The Gospel is proclaimed today “not only in words but in healings, miracles, signs and wonders that visibly demonstrated the message: in Him the kingdom of God had truly become present.” Healings are happening all around us today.

Come see a great documentary, _FEARLESS_, telling how the Holy Spirit is moving the hearts of Catholics today, and healing bodies and souls. See the film this Friday, December 1st at 6:30 pm in the STM social hall and join in small-group discussions.

STEWARDSHIP

TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

Christ the King (November 25 & 26)

The prophet Ezekiel uses the image of a shepherd who rescues his sheep to describe how God reaches out to those in need. In St. Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus clearly teaches His disciples that they must serve others with acts of Christian mercy and charity in order to enter God’s kingdom: _Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for Me_. These Gospel directives are the foundation for the Church’s Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. Mother Teresa modeled her life and ministry on these directives by serving the “poorest of the poor” in the slums of Calcutta. Like St. Teresa of Calcutta, we, as Christian stewards, accept God’s invitation to share Jesus with those we meet as we strive for holiness in our lives. May her example of love, charity, and mercy inspire us to open our hearts and minds to serve and share our abundant blessings with the poor, the sick, and the strangers among us.

This Advent season, adopt a family in need, visit a relative or friend in a nursing home or assisted living facility, or sponsor a refugee family. The STM Giving Trees are available for you to select someone to help make their Christmas season a little brighter. This is the season of sharing love and your gifts with others.
