Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way.

Mark 1:2
LIGHT IN DARKNESS

The flowers of Spring and Summer are but a memory. We are shrouded in the season of darkness. Our afternoons are shorter and nightfall comes quickly. Most people make their commute home from work with auto headlights on.

We are in the midst of a “spiritual darkness,” too. Christians watch and wait for glimmers of hope, signs of the coming dawn, the approaching birth of Jesus who is the true “Light of the world.” Advent tells us “to awaken from our sleep since our salvation is at hand.”

Look around. Stores of all kinds have had “holiday” displays for weeks (and even months) wanting us to believe that this darkness is dispelled by material gifts bought and given at Christmas time. We are “programmed” to put decorations on our houses and trees but in a irony of ironies many people hang hundreds of colored lights in and outside without being illuminated by the light of Christ within their hearts.

Where does this light of Christ appear? We cannot buy it or package it. We need to search it out in the everyday events of these Advent days. Before we get the “Christmas spirit” we need to get the “Advent spirit”, a spirit of openness in watching and wondering and waiting.

In this season of long nights and short days don’t allow yourself to be overcome by darkness, of any kind.

Be guided by the light of Christ. Look for those glimmers of light. They will lead you through Advent right to Christmas!

Have a wonderful Advent week. May those who seek Christ find Him in you. Let’s remember each other in prayer.

PILGRIMS ON A JOURNEY
By Deacon Christopher Stark

Many of you may be aware that I am no longer employed by St. Vincent de Paul. I continue to advocate and encourage folks to volunteer and support this amazing Catholic-Lay organization. During my tenure with St. Vincent de Paul - I came to see, in a very poignant and profound manner, the plight of the poor and the marginalized within our greater S.E. Michigan community. I was also privileged to witness the love of God and His people through the amazing works of charity that Vincentians do on behalf of our 'neighbors in need.' Vincentians truly live-out our collective baptismal call - to love God, and to love our Neighbor, by their intentional works of charity for our brothers and sisters in need. I am eternally grateful to God and to the people of St. Vincent de Paul for my tenure with this noble mission of love.

I am pleased to share with you that God has blessed me with a new career opportunity, similar to that which had attracted me to St. Vincent de Paul; this new role will allow me to blend my ministry as a deacon with my experiences in business. My new job is to serve as the Director of Outreach for Guest House.

What is Guest House? Guest House is (primarily) an in-patient drug and alcohol recovery facility that is specifically designed to help Catholic Clergy and Religious who are battling addiction. Nuns, Priests, Brothers, Deacons, Seminarians...human beings...who, for whatever reason, have been negatively impacted by the disease of addiction. Austin Ripley, the founder of Guest House, was an alcoholic. He found the gift of sobriety through the process of recovery espoused by Alcoholics Anonymous. While attending meetings, he would see priests attending meetings...and he thought "if we can save the person, we can save their vocation too." So, a little more than 60 years ago, Guest House came into being for the sole purpose of helping Catholic Clergy and Religious to find recovery.

We are blessed to have Guest House located right here within the Archdiocese of Detroit. Guest House, however, is so much more than a 'local' organization. Guest House supports the recovery needs of Catholic Clergy and Religious from literally around the world. Clients come to our facility in Lake Orion, where they receive customized individual care within a 90-day in-patient treatment program. My job is to share the message and mission of Guest House with Bishops and the Church’s hierarchy and laity -

My name is Ashley Fry and I grew up in the Lutheran faith, with my family being open about sharing our beliefs and questions. It wasn’t exclusive in denomination as extended family also provided some Protestant and Catholic teachings. After college I knew I had to make my own journey, so I am here to better understand my relationship with God and how to better live a life for Christ.

Hello! I am Keith Knauss. I have been married for 17 years to my beautiful wife, Debbie. We have two children: Aidan, 15 and Rory, 13. I attended St. Thomas More as a youth, and found my way back when I was married in 2000. Rory is in the Faith Formation middle school program; and Aidan and I are in the RCIA program together. We all plan to receive Confirmation this coming Easter Vigil.

My name is Carissa Anne Handrinos. I run a full-time tutoring business, Carissa’s Academic Tutoring. My fiancé, Brendan, and I are getting married in September 2018, so I decided it was time for me to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. We want to raise our family in the Catholic faith. Brendan and I have been coming to St. Thomas More for years, and finally became parishioners this past summer. We look forward to starting our life together immersed in our mutual Catholic faith.

I’m Melinda Sue Prucha (Mindy), and I’m 37 years old. I recently relocated back to the area after living down south for over a decade. I live with my loving parents in Oxford. I earned a Ph.D. from the University of Florida in 2009, and have since worked as an educator/tutor and as a research scientist at various academic institutions in the states. 2017 marks the first year that I have committed to the discernment of my spirituality and faith in Jesus; my story is unique in that, outside of my studies in logic, sciences, and philosophy, I have had little to no exposure to the truth about God. He found me.

My name is Aidan Knauss. I am 15 years old and a Sophomore at Troy High. I have two great parents and a loving sister. I was baptized at St. Thomas More and have been attending mass ever since. I’m interested in computers, Airsoft, and the chemical elements. I want to be confirmed as a Catholic as I was baptized and receive communion, so as to officially become part of the church.

I am Lennie Wilson. My wife and I live in Troy and have been married for over 32 years. We have two grown twin boys. I was encouraged to join the RCIA classes to further enhance my journey of spiritual growth. I wish to come into closer communication with God and his will for me.

My name is Laura Gabriel, and I’ve been married to David for 9 years. We have been parishioners here for two years. My husband is Catholic and I am Lutheran. I want to join the Catholic Church because it is a unified church, consistent around the world and welcoming to all. I also want to be unified with my husband and grow together in the same faith. My journey towards the Catholic faith started with Msgr. Ronald Browne, who was the priest that married us. He explained many things about the Catholic Church that I previously misunderstood. Also my mother-in-law, Virginia Gabriel, who faithfully prays for us and attends mass every day, is an inspiration for me.

My name is Ronia Kruse. I’ve been attending St. Thomas More for 30 years. I was married here, and my three daughters were baptized here. I have taught catechism in the past, and currently teaching 7th grade. I’ve been involved with St. Vincent De Paul and St. Dominic’s. I started a philanthropic organization called the OpTech Outreach Foundation to bring hope and prosperity to people that are disadvantaged socially, economically and physically, especially children.

Please pray for our candidates going through the RCIA process, and give them a warm welcome by introducing yourself when you see them in church.

so that when it is discovered that a priest, or a nun, or a brother (etc.) may be having a challenge with addiction, that there is a licensed and certified facility that is specifically geared toward their particular needs for recovery. Guest House is a great gift to the men and women who find life-saving recovery from addiction. Guest House is also a great gift to you and me, as the whole Church continues to receive the fruits of the vocations of men and women who have found recovery at Guest House.

Please pray for me, as I begin this new journey in my professional career. I will continue to serve you here at St. Thomas More as one of your deacons - while my new day-job is to work for Guest House. I am excited to see what God has in mind, as I embark on this new career and I ask that you not only pray for me - but also to pray for all of our Catholic Clergy and Religious. May we all stay healthy and whole, and for those suffering through the disease of addiction, may they find us to be a people of love and understanding - and support, as they work to find recovery from their afflictions.

Deacon Chris

Due to low attendance, we will be cancelling our Advent Night of Reflection Wednesday, December 13th

A Heartfelt Thank You from your St. Vincent de Paul

As we end the 2017 Liturgical Year, the members of the St. Thomas More Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society wish to extend a heartfelt thank you to our fellow parishioners for generously donating, on each First of the Month Collection; money, food, toiletries, and household paper products. The donations are used to help many less-fortunate families in our surrounding community. In addition, you kindly donated unused bikes that were (if needed) refurbished and distributed to individuals for whom the bikes are essential transportation. Thank you to everyone who contributed children’s books (infant to age 12) this year. We distribute books to support agencies in the Pontiac area that provide them to children of all faiths at no charge. There were two clothing drives this year; thank you for donating your gently, but no longer worn, clothing and small household items. Thank you for your generous donation of gift cards for our Thanksgiving Baskets and the Christmas Giving Tree. And thank you to those who participated in the Belle Isle Walk and enjoyed the recent pancake breakfast and bake sale. All of our efforts further our mission to serve and care for others.

We wish you a blessed Christmas, and hope we are able to continue the good work of our parish family.

The St. Thomas More Stewardship Prayer Service is on Wednesday, December 20th at 7:00pm. Please join us to pray together for all of our intentions.

STM BOOK CLUB

The St Thomas More Book Club will meet Tuesday 12/19 at 10 AM in Room 2 to discuss the December selection, River of Doubt: Theodore Roosevelt's Darkest Journey by Candice Millard. As the title hints, ex-president Roosevelt journeys up a little known branch of the Amazon on a danger filled expedition. Please join us for what promised to be an interesting discussion.
THE QUIET MAN: A MODEL FOR CATHOLIC MEN

It is easy to forget about St. Joseph in the midst of the Christmas story. Joseph is quiet. He speaks no words in the Gospels. Mark skips him entirely. But Joseph was not some still statue at the back of the crèche. He was an active father, standing guard over the Holy Family. Yes, Joseph had doubts and fears, but he was righteous and loved Mary. When she came to him pregnant he protected her from shame. He responded without hesitating to do God’s will, made known to him in dreams by angels who said, “Be not afraid.” Joseph protected Jesus, bravely taking his family as refugees into Egypt, and then to Nazareth where he raised Jesus up in his craft, the Scriptures, the Law, and worship, leading Him to pray in Jerusalem every year at Passover.

Unleash the Gospel aims to help both men and women understand our identity as Christian parents (Action Step 1.2.5). The Letter is also emphatic that “the role of fathers in particular is essential, since one of the greatest factors influencing a child’s future practice of the faith is the religious involvement of his or her father” and this “role is absolutely irreplaceable” (Marker 7.2). We know from our own experiences that families become separated and relationships strained. This Christmas, and with resolve for the New Year, let the fathers among us pray for the Grace to deepen relationships with their sons and daughters, no matter how old they are and regardless of circumstances.

Be not afraid.

Fathers and father-figures - grandfathers, godfathers, uncles and family friends - should be good examples and active mentors for the children, teens and young adults in our parish. Instruct them in virtue; lead them every week to worship at Mass; guide them to the Sacraments; pray with them; read Scripture with them; encourage them, especially to know Jesus. There is “no greater gift [parents] can give their children than a relationship with Jesus and his Church ...” (Marker 7.2).

St. Joseph appeared with Mary at Knock in Ireland in 1879 and at Fatima in 1917. Still he did not speak. But he is always ready to help. A Novena to Our Lady of Knock includes this intercessory prayer to St. Joseph:

St. Joseph, Chosen by God to be the Husband of Mary, Protector of the Holy Family and Guardian of the Church, Protect all families in their work and recreation, and Guard us on our journey through life. Amen.
IN AND AROUND OUR PARISH

Blankets for Beaumont Children’s Hospital
Being in the hospital is very traumatic for children. At Beaumont Children’s Hospital the staff attempts to provide a fleece blanket to every child in the hospital. The blankets help to decrease the children’s anxiety due to their illness.
To assist Beaumont Children’s in their efforts, I am seeking donations of fleece that I along with other students at Notre Dame Prep can use to make blankets. The blankets will be donated to the hospital on behalf of St. Thomas More.

Requirements for one blanket:
* 2 yards of fleece fabric-patterned
* 2 yards of fleece fabric-solid color
(to coordinate with the pattern)

Can be purchased at Joann’s, Michael’s or any fabric store
I would greatly appreciate if you would consider purchasing fleece and bringing to the church over the next several weeks, to benefit the children. While any theme of fleece is accepted, the patterns most needed are popular titles and teen appropriate.

Thank you!

Christmas Flowers
Please consider making a donation in a loved one’s name toward the purchase of flowers to decorate the Church for Christmas. Flower envelopes are in the church pews.
Names will be listed in the Christmas Bulletin for donations received by December 10th. Names received after December 10th will be listed in the January 7th bulletin.
Thank you for your continued support of STM!

Giving from your IRA
Just a reminder that Congress made a permanent provision in the Consolidated Appropriations Act that allows those 70 ½ and older to contribute from their IRA’s without paying tax on the distribution. If you are a once a year contributor, would like to make a special donation, or during the CSA drive, your IRA contribution may be right for your situation. Please consult with your tax professional for more details.

2017 CONTRIBUTIONS
All contributions for “2017” must be received in the Parish Office no later than Friday, December 29th by Noon, to be included in your annual statement. Contributions received after this date, including the weekend of December 30th, will be credited to your “2018” donations. Your annual Contribution Statement for the year 2017 will be mailed out before the end of January 2018.
