When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, “Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.”

Mark 10:14
Respect Life Month reminds us that every human life, no matter how small or young, weak, diseased, frail or despised, possesses infinite value. That extends from the unborn to the person with cancer, the suffering, elderly, the “enemy” in the Middle East, convicted prisoners on death row, and everyone in between. In our weakest moments we may want to exclude this one or that one, but Jesus says “no.”

It’s a tough gospel, this gospel of life. But if we don’t embrace it, and live it, will the world ever move from a culture of death into a culture of life?

On Monday, October 8th, I will observe my 41st anniversary of priestly ordination. I ask that you keep me in prayer, and all the priests of the Archdiocese. Please be assured, too, that I will remember you in the prayers and Masses of this week.

Respect Life Month
Heavenly Father, the beauty and dignity of human life was the crowning of your creation. You further ennobled that life when your Son became one with us in his incarnation. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death. Give us courage to speak with truth and love and with conviction in defense of life. Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence your gift of life. To all, grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others. We ask this in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

FAITH FORMATION

NOTEs aNd NeWS

Welcome to a new faith formation year! Last Sunday was our first day back and I’d like to thank parents for being there with their students. The parish theme for the year is Becoming the Saint Next Door. We learned that a saint is someone who is holy and virtuous, and who allows the Holy Spirit to guide them in all things. As baptized Christians we are called to strive to be saints because our world needs God. What we do and witness to others can help them achieve what we are all meant for—heaven. We have to be intentional about being on the road to sanctity. Being holy is the way to eternal life. Even if we were to live to be 100 years old, that is but a brief moment compared to what is in store for us at the end of this worldly life.

We prepare for many things: a test, Super Bowl Sunday, retirement, vacations, etc., are we preparing for heaven? I recommend a great book on this topic called A Travel Guide to Heaven by Anthony DeStefano. I asked the students on Sunday, “What are some things we can do to help us be holy?” Here are some answers from the students: “Don’t be a bully,” “help others,” and a second grader said, “Go to Mass.” I almost jumped for joy.

Please keep the faith formation program, our students, parents, catechists and staff in your prayer as we journey in faith together.

Yours in Christ,
Josylin Fermin Mateus
Faith Formation Director

OCTOBER 20 IS THIRD ANNUAL MERCY IN ACTION DAY
“Effective witness to Jesus has these attractive qualities: joy, hospitality and generous service to the poor and the marginalized.” - Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron, Unleash the Gospel

The date of October 20 has been set for the third annual Mercy in Action Day. Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan (CCSEM) organized the first-ever Mercy in Action event in 2016 during the Year of Mercy designated by Pope Francis. The event involves Catholic parishes throughout the six-county region of the Archdiocese of Detroit mobilizing to perform acts of service in their local communities and neighborhoods.

Mercy in Action
Mercy in Action is a regional day of service in support of our neighbors in need. Join us to give unified witness to living out the corporal and spiritual works of Mercy through local service projects.

Some of the service opportunities this year will include:

- Soup kitchens
- Clothing drives
- Community gardens
- Cemetery cleanup
- Other service opportunities in the Archdiocese

*Must be 12 years old or older to participate.

If anyone from St. Thomas More Parish would like to get involved in the 2018 Mercy in Action activities, please contact one of the regional organizers for our Vicariate:

THE SAINTS NEXT DOOR
by John Hannigan

Last week Jo Mateus, the STM Director of Religious Education, welcomed students and parents to a new year in Faith Formation classes. She welcomed adults participating in parish faith enrichment programs. She also introduced a wonderful theme for all Faith Formation activities in the parish for 2018-2019:

Becoming the Saint Next Door

Pope Francis wrote about “the saint next door” in his Apostolic Letter Gaudete et Exsultate (“Rejoice and be Glad”). Francis wants us to notice the saints all around us who live virtuously, who, as St. Mother Teresa put it, “do ordinary things with extraordinary love.” Francis also reminds us that we are all called by the Lord to be saints: “Be holy, for I am holy.”

Face it. We don’t see ourselves as saints. We know our faults. Even trying to be holy may embarrass us. I remember when a kid seen trying to be good was ridiculed. Calling virtuous boys and girls “boy scouts” or “miss goody-two-shoes” were insults. That has not changed. The pressure is even greater today for children and adults when sin and immorality are celebrated in movies and on TV.

The world needs saints. The Church needs saints. Our parish, community and families need us to be saints. We need to be saints to get to heaven. As Catholic apologist Patrick Coffin puts it, “What else is there?”

A key Guidepost in Unleash the Gospel is attraction. We draw our family, co-workers and next-door neighbors to Christ by effective witness to Jesus that radiates the attractive qualities of joy, hospitality and generosity. But Pope Francis wrote that “holiness is the most attractive face of the Church.”

Let’s approach this year with an openness to answering the call to holiness, to striving with vigor and courage to becoming the saint next door. Over the next few weeks, in anticipation of the Feast of All Saints, I will write more about holiness, about looking to saints as models, and asking them to pray for us. Let me know who your favorite saints are. And we all have a neighbor who lived “next door” in Detroit and is getting close: Blessed Solanus Casey, pray for us.

Please send comments, questions or criticisms to: UnleashSTM@gmail.com

STEWARDSHIP
TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 6 & 7

In the framework of the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews: ... for whom and through whom all things exist through God, today’s Scripture readings from the Book of Genesis and St. Mark’s Gospel promote the common theme of sacred marriage. In the Gospel, Jesus, referencing Genesis, proclaims, God made them male and female. For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. It is clear from these Scripture readings that God’s blessing of marriage is the union between one man and one woman. This is God’s teaching on Christian marriage. It is this Scriptural Truth, this Church teaching, that faithful stewards must embrace to counter secular society’s law, which professes a false image of marriage. In this Truth, the sacrament of Matrimony accomplishes its full Christian meaning and potential by strengthening husbands and wives to love and serve the Lord and one another. To enhance your marriage, consider attending a Marriage Enrichment Series or a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend.

Mark your calendars for the annual Ministry Fair on the weekend of November 3-4. The various commissions and committees of St. Thomas More will be setting up display tables to share the services they provide to our church community and how you may help. The event will take place after the Saturday night and Sunday morning Masses. Please make a note to attend. We need you to ensure the success of our parish.

We received a good response to the Gallup survey and want to thank everyone for taking the time to fill it out. We plan to do a preliminary review of the data when we receive the analysis back from Gallup and then conduct Brainstorming sessions in January after the holidays to look at ways to help the parish minister better based on the results of the survey and in agreement with "Unleashing the Gospel."

Thanks again for your input, we believe it will be invaluable in moving forward, and look for more communication on this in the coming months!
PATHWAYS TO PEACE
By Deacon Christopher Stark

Recently I was introduced to the works of the contemporary poet, Mary Oliver. Here’s one that I discovered...

When you give some thought to the realities of life, there's a lot more to living, than there is to simply being alive. Jesus said that He "came that we may have life...and have it abundantly." What is it that we are able to have in abundance? Money, power, prestige? Trophies, plaques, and memorials? Are these the stuff that gives us an abundant life?...

Mary Oliver says, "Pay attention." What are we to observe? Is it a call to be on guard and watch-out for our stuff; or is it an invitation to be 'present' to the people and experiences that we take in and absorb as the result of "living?!"

When we think outside of ourselves and beyond our personal wants and things... When we consider that which, and those whom we have before us...we can become wrapped in awe...we ARE astonished! What a blessing... what unmerited grace! God is so good to us. He's good in the seemingly trivial and mundane. From the very simplest of things to staggering revelations, alike. Attention draws us to astonishment.

Astonishment - by its nature - invites us to share with others what we find so fascinating. 'Tell about it.'

Want to LIVE a life? Pay attention, be astonished...and tell about it!

So... what is it that you want to say?

Peace
Deacon Chris
