A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

CSA SUCCESS

I am pleased to report that our parish community at St. Thomas More has achieved success in this year’s Catholic Services Appeal. Our goal was $200,000 and as of this writing 717 parishioners have pledged/contributed a total of $205,048. This is very good news and I want to sincerely thank all parishioners who contributed to CSA 2018. Your generosity is greatly appreciated and may God bless you for it!

I hope you are enjoying these beautiful Autumn days. I am not even thinking of winter but thanking God for His wonderful display of the beauty of His creation. Enjoy every moment and let’s pray for one another.

PATHWAYS TO PEACE
By Deacon Christopher Start

What happens to us when we experience heartbreak? Profound disappointment in ourselves, in another or others, or in the circumstances that we face. The trauma of heartbreak can provoke intense feelings of sadness and anger; which are a very real and authentic human response to circumstances that cause us to feel such intense pain and loss. I have known heartbreak in my life. I am confident that I have been the cause of heartbreak in others, as well. It’s a messy thing trying to muddle through life sometimes. We’re called to be Christian in how we act and speak toward one another... but we are often hard-wired to be selfish. We fall short ourselves of the very standard that we expect others to live up to. We demand justice, without any consideration of mercy. "It's the way of the world."

It’s OK to be heartbroken from time to time. It means that we have ventured outside of ourselves. We’ve connected with something or someone that gives our experiences and moments together a sense of meaning. I know that I have learned from my heartbreaks...I learned who I didn't want to be, and as a result I have grown from these unwanted and unpleasant experiences. Those times where I was hurt... and from those times that I was less than the person that I would have hoped to be. Whether heartbroken or the heartbreaker doesn't always necessarily matter... When heartbreak comes - everyone suffers.

It’s the suffering itself that promotes the growth that we can experience as a result. So long as we do not allow discouragement to take root within us. Pain, numbness, and anger... yes they’re a part of the experience. It’s discouragement that we are to leave behind. To not let discouragement to enter into the equation.

In all things...God is looking out for us. In all things, He is working to help us to grow. To live, and to believe, and be greater than we consider ourselves capable of becoming. Each of us is a work in progress. Be at peace at knowing that God has our best interest in mind in all that we endure in this life. Be at peace in discovering that through life's trials - God is enabling us to better prepare ourselves for what lies ahead in this life, and in the life to come.

Peace
Deacon Chris

STM BOOK CLUB

The St Thomas More Book Club will meet Tuesday 10/16 at 10 AM in Room 2 to discuss the October selection, Masquerade, by William X Kienzle. This 1990 novel by the author of The Rosary Murders and other murder mysteries, takes place at Detroit’s Marygrove College. At a writer’s seminar described as: “A Seminar Workshop on the Role of Religion in Murder Mysteries” there is - surprise - a murder! One attendee, Fr. Robert Koesler, priest/sleuth digs in to help solve the crime. Please join us for the discussion.

Another Construction Project

Have you noticed the work being done on the Rectory? McClean Construction has been busy for the past 2 weeks residing and trimming the Rectory. This project was approved by Parish Finance Council and the Archdiocese of Detroit about 4 years ago, but was put on hold as other projects became a priority. WELL, early this summer the gutter and trim fell off part of the Rectory and it was discovered that much of the fascia was rotted around the structure. In order to repair the rotted wood, all the gutter and trim is being removed and replaced and the siding updated. It wasn’t a budgeted or planned item, but like with your homes – necessary to take care of these projects so they do not become more expensive.

On another note, the well has been repaired, but we wait for the cement contractor to get here to finish the work. Thank you for your continued support of St. Thomas More Parish.

Giving Thanks With Grocery Gift Cards

Every year at Thanksgiving the parishioners of St. Thomas More generously assist those in need. Last year the grocery gift card program was a huge success so this year the Christian Service Commission decided that we would continue to meet the needs of those we serve, by asking for gift cards in lieu of food donations.

The gift cards should be from Kroger, Meijer, or Hollywood Market. The preferred denomination is $25. If you wish to give cash or a check, please note on the envelope or on the check that it is a Thanksgiving Basket donation.

Your generosity will assist needy families at Morse Elementary School in Troy, as well as families helped by our own St Vincent dePaul Conference. The collection will begin the weekend of October 20/21 and continue through the weekend of November 10/11. Please use the donation box by the Thanksgiving display in the Gathering Area or leave your donation at the Parish Office. For questions, please contact the Parish Office.

Thank you for your continued support of those less fortunate in our community.

Halloween is here again!

Sacred Heart Seminary is collecting candy for the Annual Halloween in the Neighborhood Outreach. The seminary holds a Halloween Party on October 31 to evangelize the community and provide a safe and fun ‘trick-or-treat’ experience for the neighborhood children. If you could donate a bag of candy to help the event it would be greatly appreciated. Please leave in the Church Gathering Space by October 25th. Your prayers for the seminarians and the event are also welcome!

Thank you from the Seminarians!
CATHOLICS AND HALLOWEEN
by John Hannigan

Some Christians object to Halloween as an ancient or “new age” pagan feast worshiping witches, ghouls and devils and for scaring people with blood and gore. I do not understand the fascination with vampires or zombies, but many people like those shows. Halloween can be simply fun when people of all ages dress up in costumes, though outfits can be in bad taste, or worse. Hollowing out pumpkins, lighting bonfires and “trick-or-treating” for candy are fun. So where’s the harm?

Halloween is a holiday that Catholics can embrace by understanding its origins. “Halloween” comes from “hallowed” (“holy”), and evening (“eve”). “All Hallows Eve” is the Vigil of All Saints Day, a Holy Day of Obligation when we commemorate all the holy saints, especially those whose names are lost to memory. Halloween is a time when we on Earth (the Church Militant) honor the saints in Heaven (the Church Triumphant) and the souls in Purgatory on their way to Heaven (the Church Suffering). We recall we are in communion with the living saints, the holy ones gone on to everlasting life. Halloween can also be seen as mocking the devil. Our patron, St. Thomas More said of the devil: “The proud spirit cannot endure to be mocked.” The Prince of Darkness is defeated by Christ’s Passion, Death and Resurrection. Pity the fictitious zombie or vampire because he’s stuck in death and cannot join Jesus in Heaven. The traditions of Halloween taunt the darkness with bonfires. Even humble pumpkins light up the night. Many harvest-time traditions, like Dia del Muerte in Mexico or Samhain in ancient Ireland, celebrate eternal life as winter approaches, declaring the futility of death and hope in the spring to come. That is the victory of Christ on the Cross that is shared by the saints.

Just like Christmas is not about sleigh bells and Easter is not about bunnies laying eggs, Halloween is not about the occult, superstition or glorifying evil. It would be nice to see kids at my door dressed as St. Francis or the Virgin Mary instead of spider man or the bloody victim of an ax murderer. But Halloween is fun no matter what costume and should remind us all that the saints are with us and will pray for us until we join them through Christ’s victory over sin and death.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday, a special day on which we unite ourselves with Catholics all over the world to pray and sacrifice for the missionary efforts of the Church.

This Sunday, October 14th, the Church will canonize Pope Paul VI who gave us the word “evangelize” in his Apostolic Exhortation, “Announcing the Gospel.” In this work he wrote, “For the Church, evangelizing means bringing the Good News into the strata of humanity, and through its influence transforming humanity from within and making it new.”

On this same day Salvadorian Archbishop Oscar Romero will be canonized. He was martyred for the faith and for the cause of justice. These two events and celebrating the missionary activity of the Church gives us a great segue to the following weeks during which we will explain and encourage our people to “Unleash the Gospel” and its program.

Special envelopes from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith are in the pews for the World Mission Sunday Collection to be taken next weekend. Your generosity and support is greatly appreciated!
Green Thumbs Wanted

One of the areas of Worship in the Church is Environment. This is the aesthetics of the church interior and how it enhances the worship experience. Fresh flowers, greens and seasonal plants add warmth and draw people to the true nature of the mystery being celebrated.

We are looking for parishioners that have an interest in the environment of the church and gathering space. Volunteers would be involved in decorating for the major holy days of the church (Christmas & Easter) and also keeping the church decorated on a weekly basis. Time would also involve weekly watering of plants and making sure there are fresh plants when necessary. The goal is to set a schedule for volunteers so no one is overtaxed with any duties. The more volunteers, the less any one person would be called on.

If this opportunity interests you, please join me on Wednesday, October 17, 2018 at 4 p.m. in Meeting Room 2 for more information. If you are unable to attend but interested, please email (lois@stmoffice.com) or call the parish office.
