The Greatest Commandment

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.”

Mark 12:30
A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

COMMUNION OF SAINTS

Traditionally, in Catholic practice, the month of November is dedicated to remembering those who have died. The month begins with November 1, the Feast of All Saints, immediately followed with the Feast of All Souls on November 2. It is also the last month in the Liturgical Year and many of the scripture readings focus on preparation for judgment and the end times. Near our altar is a Scroll listing the names of all those who have been buried from St. Thomas More since last November.

We seldom talk about or pray about death, other than at funerals; and them it is mixed with grief and mourning. Ultimately, what we think about death will flow from what we believe about the goodness of God. “The souls of the just are in the hand of God,” the Book of Wisdom assures us. St. Paul proclaims that nothing can separate us from God’s love: “Not trial or distress, or persecution of death. Nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus!” And Jesus, of course, promised to raise us up on the last day; that those who believe in Him will live forever. So there has always been a strong tradition in the Catholic Church of remembering the dead and praying for the dead. It has been a sense of bonding between the living and the dead; a sense of mutual concern that goes beyond the grave. We remember them; they remember us. In our Catholic doctrine, we call it the Communion of Saints, the relationship of concern which goes back and forth across the grave. During this month of November, we take the time and opportunity to thank God for the loved ones who have touched our lives and have passed from this world; and we pray for them.

Believing in eternal life does not exempt us from the human experience of pain and sorrow at the loss of someone close. There is a sense of mystery, anxiety, sorrow, even tragedy about death. We grieve over the death of a loved one. But the Christian message tempers that experience with faith and hope. We treasure our memories, our photos and mementos, the smiles and hugs and tears and all the love they gave us. We remain one with them in faith; we are indeed in communion with them.

Have a faith filled week and lets pray for one another.

Msgr. Tom Rice

PATHWAYS TO PEACE
By Deacon Christopher Stark

Recently, while in Chicago for work, I had the opportunity to ‘stumble’ across a Catholic Church—and go to Confession and then Mass. What a blessing! I’ve been meaning to go... needing to go...wanting to go to Confession for several weeks, and while on a break from meetings – I discovered an opportunity for Reconciliation and Eucharist. I don’t believe in coincidences...and God has known of my need and desire to be right with Him and the people He’s placed in my life. He made it possible for me to receive these graces. Thank you, Lord!

In our busy-ness of life...we can sometimes get out of synch with our priorities... certainly the priority we are to place in our relationship with God. Sometimes, life has a way of getting us off-track with what is important. For me as a deacon – a major component of my continuing formation is the necessity of proactively managing priorities. This is true for all of us. All of us, by virtue of our baptism, are called to prioritize our lives in a manner that reflects our Catholic Christian calling to Love God, and to Love our Neighbor. God must always come first in our lives. A close second is our marriage/family obligations. In third-place comes our jobs...and in fourth-place – is our Church ministries. This order of prioritization makes perfect sense, if you pause and think about it. God’s very first Commandment is to acknowledge Him as our first and primary priority in life. “I am the Lord thy God, thou shalt not have strange gods before me.” No-thing, and no-one is more important to us, as is our relationship with God.

After God, the primary responsibility of those who are married - is marriage! Being a good husband/wife and mother/father doesn’t just happen...it takes mindful prioritization of loving our spouses and children. By being present, and engaged in the day-to-day. As long as we live, we’re called to strive to be better.

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

- † Patrick Byrnes
- † James Humitz
- † Ronald E. Modras

“Our deepest sympathy and prayers to the family of:

† Patrick Byrnes
† James Humitz
† Ronald E. Modras

“Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labors for their good deeds go with them.”
The ministries at St. Thomas More are built upon volunteerism. We all benefit greatly from the efforts of those who serve in the liturgy. Our Greeters, Ushers, and Receptionists are the first “faces” of the parish, and their welcoming nature has certainly been a contributing factor in preparing people to experience more fruitful participation in liturgy and fellowship after the Mass. Our Sacrists, Mass Coordinators, and Altar Servers prepare the church to be filled with the presence of God and serve at the altar. Our Lectors and Cantors nourish us with their clear and prayerful proclamation of the living Word of God. Our Eucharistic Ministers help in giving us the very Body and Blood of Christ. We all experience the fruits of the “yes” all of these fine people have given to serve God and our parish.

We have welcomed a few new faces into all areas of liturgical ministry but many diligent folks have doubled or even tripled their service, filling in simultaneously as Lector, Altar Server, and Eucharistic Minister, when needed. As we welcome people into liturgical ministry, we hope to transition to a place where those serving can focus on one role at a given Mass.

However, we’re simply not all the way there yet. In order to accomplish this goal, we simply must pray that even more parishioners would take up God’s call to serve Him in the sacred liturgy. Perhaps you might be new to the parish, and looking for ways to get to know people. What better way to forge friendships than to join together in service?! Perhaps you might have noticed the occasional Mass where something didn’t go as planned. In that moment, did you feel God’s call to help us out and be a part of the solution? I would encourage each and every one of us to prayerfully consider whether God is calling you to serve in any of the aforementioned ministries. If so, please don’t hesitate to get in touch with me after Mass, email me at dcnmichael@stmoffice.com, or call the parish office. I look forward to working with you, and helping you answer God’s call!

STM BOOK CLUB
The STM Book Club selection for November is Fortune’s Children: The Fall of the House of Vanderbilt by Arthur T. Vanderbilt. The family patriarch, Cornelius Vanderbilt was the world’s richest man in the mid nineteenth century. Less than one hundred years later the fortune was gone. This book, written by one of the descendants describes how and why that happened. The meeting will be Tuesday, 11/20 at 10 AM in Room 2. Hope to see you then!

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Giving Thanks With Grocery Gift Cards

Our Thanksgiving gift card collection continues through the weekend of November 10/11. The gift cards should be from Kroger, Meijer, or Hollywood Market. The preferred denomination is $25. If you wish to give cash or a check, please note on the envelope or on the check that it is a Thanksgiving Basket donation.

Please use the donation box by the Thanksgiving display in the Gathering Area or leave your donation at the Parish Office.

Thank you for your continued support of those less fortunate in our community.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST & BAKE SALE

Sunday, November 11th
$8.00 Adult / $5.00 Children under 12

It’s time to add the Pancake Breakfast and Bake Sale to your calendar on Sunday, November 11, after all Masses. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul and the STM Youth Group have joined forces once again to host this event.

It’s an “all you can eat” pancake feast with sausage, fresh fruit (fruit cups), coffee, tea, and milk, and don’t miss out on the assortment of baked goods!

The Bake Sale will begin after the November 10th Saturday Mass.

A BIG THANK YOU to all our Donors and to all who helped at the BLOOD DRIVE

To all those who baked cookies and brought fruit, and especially to Anne Byrne, Joy Callaway, Mary Ellen Schotthoefer, Andrew Siatczynski, Marilyn Waldron, Deacon Johnny, Ben, and Pete, and all who helped in any way....

It was a successful drive, though the waiting time was too long for many of our donors. There was a shortage of staff, and we apologize. It will be addressed before the next blood drive next June.

Chris Reynaert, STM Blood Drive Coordinator

BAKED GOODS DONATIONS NEEDED

Please share your baking talents and favorite recipes with your fellow parishioners at the Pancake Breakfast on November 11th after all Masses. The Bake Sale will begin after the November 10th Saturday Mass.

Cakes, coffee cakes, pies, breads, and cookies are just a few suggestions. Gluten-free items are also welcome, as are nut-free baked goods. (Please note on your baked goods if there are nuts, or if it is a gluten-free recipe). Community service credits are available for student bakers.

Drop-off times for the baked goods are Friday, November 9, 10am-4pm, and Saturday, November 10, 10am-1:30pm.

Proceeds to benefit the charities of St. Vincent de Paul.

Thanks so much for your participation!

EVANGELIZATION
UNLEASH THE GOSPEL

THE NEXT PHASE ...
by John Hannigan

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL
Six-Day Challenge
UTGChallenge.com

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 3 & 4

Today’s theme of loving God fully and completely with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength resonates throughout the First Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy and in the Gospel of St. Mark. In the Gospel, when Jesus is questioned, He cites Deuteronomy directly about loving God completely as the First Commandment, with the Second directive to love your neighbor as yourself. Through our discipleship, we, as Christian stewards, hold both of these Commandments as a foundation for expressing evangelization through our stewardship way of life.

We can show our love of neighbor by giving time at a local soup kitchen or supporting our parish St. Vincent de Paul Society. Stop by the Ministry Fair for other opportunities to show your love for our St. Thomas More community by volunteering at the many commissions and committees who could use your talents and time. One-time, short term, once-in-while, or longer commitments are all available for volunteering. It is a great way to build friendships and contribute to STM.

This weekend the Archdiocese of Detroit (AOD) is launching the next phase of Unleash the Gospel just as it prepared for Synod 16, with prayer and reflection. Speakers at every Mass at every parish across the AOD will invite each one of you to participate in a Six-Day Challenge. (I am speaking on the Challenge at St. Sabina Parish in Dearborn Heights this weekend.)

You are invited to watch different 2-minute videos each day for six days and reflect on it for another 2 or 3 minutes. That’s all! Videos will be sent to you by email each day. They are opportunities to learn more about how God and His Holy Spirit are acting in our region. The challenge? To reflect on what particular role Jesus has for you in this great mission.

Text ‘GOSPEL’ to 484848 or go to UTGChallenge.com

It is a simple start to other “next steps” we will hear about in the next few months. As you watch the videos (or read a guide book for those of us who don’t have smart phones or internet access) and reflect on the messages, it is hoped you will hear a personal invitation from God to encounter Jesus more closely, to grow in the way He calls you to be His disciple, and to become a joyful witness to His everlasting mercy among your friends and family and in our parish.

Some of the things we can look forward to in this next phase of Unleash the Gospel are the launch of a new Detroit Catholic news website, audio versions of Unleash the Gospel in English and Spanish, a podcast, a monthly diocesan magazine, and more!

Stop by the Ministry Fair after Mass today and see how you can become a disciple within our parish.

Coming in number 3, is our jobs. There’s dignity in work. Our work does not define us, but it certainly reflects who we are – and how we choose to use the gifts God has given us for the betterment of ourselves, our families, and our society. Our skills and abilities are a gift from our Creator. Our skills and abilities are to be shared for the common good, as a means for reflecting our role in God’s plan for His creation.

Finally, but certainly not least in importance, is our prioritization of our ministries within our faith community. We love God and neighbor, when we exercise our faith through praise and worship. We love God and neighbor, when we work at our marriages, and care for our children. We love God and neighbor, when we work hard at our careers. AND WE LOVE OUR GOD AND NEIGHBOR, by our engagement within our faith community. Lectoring, ushering, teaching, singing, preaching, organizing...offering. These, and countless other ‘ings’...verbs...the actions we take on behalf of the others within our community. THAT is love. That is love of God and neighbor. That is what we are to be about as Roman Catholic Christians.

Want purpose, passion, and peace in your life? Love God, and love your neighbor. In that order!

Peace!
Deacon Chris
