Jesus comes to us many times during life, summoning us to a deeper and fuller life, a life more in keeping with our dignity as children of the Father. When he comes to us at death, he will do for us what the Scriptures tell us he did for the little boy at Naim. He will awaken us to life, not however to this earthly life which must one day cease, but to eternal life which will never cease.

So during this month of November remember those you loved and who had such an effect on your life. Ask them to help you through the journey of life by their prayers for you when they enter into God’s kingdom. Together let us ask the Lord to strengthen and confirm us in faith, in hope, and in love, so that we may bring His peace to one another and one day stand united with all the saints who praise God eternally.

Have a wonderful week. Please find a place for me in your prayers.

Msgr. Tom Rice

PATHWAYS TO PEACE
By Deacon Christopher Stark

As I write this, It is Election Day and I am in Green Bay, WI for work. I drove for this business trip by way of the Mackinac Bridge. If you ever have the opportunity to drive through the UP along the northern shore of Lake Michigan... take it! It’s an amazingly beautiful drive. It is a rather long drive without a lot of radio stations to choose from... I happened upon one of those "All-Love, All-70's" stations as I made my way North.

I was disappointed that my all-time favorite song didn't come on... "Dancing in the Moonlight," by King Harvest. Ever want to see me make a fool of myself? - just pop that song into the mix... just sayin! That said, another sappy, but goody came on that I probably haven't heard since the '70's... "Love is the Answer"...by...wait for it... that's right... England Dan and John Ford Coley.

"Light of the world, shine on me, love is the answer..." "And when you need a friend?... love one another. And when you're at the end... love one another..." I don't care who you are, that's great stuff!

So, by the time you get to Church and read this message... you may find yourself particularly happy or displeased with the election results. "Love one another." You may find that you need a friend... "Love one another." You may be feeling that you are at your end..."LOVE ONE ANOTHER!". Love is the answer.

And... when you can use a little "pick-me-up"...go find "Dancing in the Moonlight" and give it a listen. Enjoy! Love is the answer.

Peace, Deacon Chris

Honoring All Who Served, November 11

Prayer for Veterans

Help us, dear God, to see your face in every Veteran we encounter. Guide us as we imagine new ways to support Veterans and their families. Bring healing and peace to all who have been wounded physically, mentally and spiritually during wartime. Help us bring your saving grace to heal the invisible wounds of war. We ask this in Jesus’ holy name. Amen.

A Grief Support Presentation
“Tips for Handling the Holidays”
Wednesday, November 14, 7:00-8:30pm, Room 2
Presenter: Shirley Black

- Grief should not be avoided, since it is a process that needs to be worked through.
- A grief group offers a safe, caring environment for you to process your grief.
- Grief is unique to each person and no two people are alike. Do not compare your grief to others.
- A grief group brings some comfort in knowing others are experiencing this difficult process.
- Suffering in silence only intensifies and prolongs the pain of grieving, and it is not healthy physically.
- A grief group can relieve the discomfort of feeling alone, especially when living each day with other people who are not grieving.
- It is important during the grieving process that you have an outlet for your thoughts, emotions, and behaviors. This will help you move through your grief.
- A grief group offers education about grief and loss, which adds to the understanding of how grief affects us.

A grief group helps to normalize grief and mourning, and can relieve the fear that is sometimes experienced.
- It is important that others are present to your pain, as this helps move us through the grief process.
- A grief group allows you to listen and learn from others. This adds to your knowledge of grief and loss, and you may help someone in the future.
- God created us to connect with others and God wants us to heal. I believe it is no accident that you were led to a group.

PARISH NEWS AND EVENTS

STM BOOK CLUB

The STM Book Club selection for November is Fortune's Children: The Fall of the House of Vanderbilt by Arthur T. Vanderbilt. The family patriarch, Cornelius Vanderbilt was the world’s richest man in the mid nineteenth century. Less than one hundred years later the fortune was gone. This book, written by one of the descendants describes how and why that happened. The meeting will be Tuesday, 11/20 at 10 AM in Room 2.

Hope to see you then!

ST. THOMAS MORE WOMEN’S MINISTRY

Advent by Candlelight

Wednesday, December 5th, 7:00 – 9:00 pm

Join us for a program of beautiful music, witnessing by four ladies of St. Thomas More on the gifts of Faith, Hope, Love & Peace in their lives, fellowship, delicious appetizers, dessert & tea! All women are invited, and encouraged to invite their friends and family to prepare their hearts for Advent. There is no charge for this event.

Registration Form

Volunteer to be a table hostess! Hostesses provide table settings, holiday decorations, centerpiece and a dessert for a table of eight (8) women. Many partner with one or two others to host a table. It is lots of fun, and requires only a few hours of your time for planning, baking (or buying) and decorating. Hostess guidelines will be provided upon registration. Complete the form and return to the Faith Formation office or contact the Faith Formation office at 248-647-4680 or e-mail angela@stmoffice.com.

PLEASE NOTE: All gifts, with tags securely attached, must be brought to the Social Hall no later than Monday, December 9th, so that the gifts can be delivered to the organizations that week.

The Christian Service Commission thanks you for helping those in need have a merrier Christmas.

Don't just GO to Church
BE the CHURCH

OPEN MY EYES
Open my eyes that I may see the deepest needs of men, women and children.
Move my hands that they may feed the hungry;
Touch my heart that it may bring warmth to the despairing;
Teach me the generosity that welcomes strangers;
Let me share my possessions with people in need;
Give me the care that strengthens the sick;
Help me share in the quest to set prisoners free;
In sharing our anxieties and our love,
Our poverty and our prosperity;
We partake of your divine presence.
Amen.
ENCOUNTERING JESUS AT MASS
by John Hannigan

Some weeks ago a few parishioners shared with me how Mass had once been sooo boring for them. But now they look forward to it and time flies by. They say the same words, sing the same hymns, and still kneel. What changed? Their approach! Their great insight was to stop coming to Mass to “get something out of it” but to come prepared to put something into it, to give of themselves, to worship God. Out of their gift comes a personal encounter with Jesus Christ.

Key to Unleash the Gospel’s goal that we be made by the Holy Spirit into joyful missionary disciples who share the Good News of Jesus Christ is our Encounter with Jesus (Guidepost 2). Language like “life-changing personal encounter” can sound foreign to Catholics, but frankly, this side of Heaven, there is no more intimate and personal an encounter with Jesus than meeting Him at Mass in the Eucharist.

The Liturgy is a beautiful dynamic exchange of gifts and blessings between God and His people. God creates us and wheat and grapes, and we offer back to Him gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves. The next time you’re at Mass, consciously intend in your heart to include yourself as an offering when the gifts are brought forward to the altar. Attend to the words of the prayer over the gifts, and be blessed.

I think one of the most powerful acts in the Mass is after the Offertory Prayer when the priest extends his hands palm down over the wine and bread and says the Epiclesis prayer, the invocation that calls down the Holy Spirit to bless our gifts and make them holy. We give and God receives; God sends the Spirit and we receive blessing. The next time you’re at Mass, open your heart to receive the blessing of the Spirit.

The dynamic exchange continues in the Consecration when Jesus, through the priest, gives Himself again in Sacrifice and our gifts become His Body and Blood. Jesus gives and we who “are not worthy” humbly receive. At your next Mass, attend more fully and enter more intentionally into Holy Communion with Jesus. Here is personal encounter! In the moments after receiving the Eucharist, talk to Jesus, give thanks, offer Him your open heart and let Him change you. That’s “getting something out of Mass!”

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 10 & 11

Today’s Scripture passages from the First Book of Kings and St. Mark’s Gospel describe two widows’ remarkable examples of self-sacrifice. In the Old Testament narrative, the prophet Elijah requests a poor widow, in the midst of a drought, to make him food from her insufficient supply of flour and oil. God richly blesses her and her son for her act of simple kindness and generosity. In St. Mark’s Gospel, Jesus notices the poor widow who ... from her poverty has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood to the Temple treasury. Jesus professes to His disciples that her donation is noteworthy because she gives from her need, not from her surplus wealth as others do. In the Letter to the Hebrews, another form of sacrifice is expressed: Christ’s ultimate sacrifice of Himself as our High Priest.

As Christian stewards, we should strive to imitate these profound examples of sacrificial giving by acknowledging all gifts are God-given, and in gratitude, by giving back to God generously through the parish offertory, the Catholic Services Appeal, and to those in need. A good rule of thumb is to begin giving 4 percent of your pre-tax income to the parish offertory and 1 percent to the Catholic Services Appeal.

Giving from your IRA

Just a reminder that Congress made a permanent provision in the Consolidated Appropriations Act that allows those 70 ½ and older to contribute from their IRA’s without paying tax on the distribution. If you are a once a year contributor, would like to make a special donation, or during the CSA drive, your IRA contribution may be right for your situation. Please consult with your tax professional for more details.
