FOR UNTO YOU IS BORN THIS DAY,

A Savior
A story to help us Understand

There are many wonderful stories told around Christmas time. The Church in its liturgy tells the story of Christ’s birth. Families tell stories about each other and important events they have experienced. Then there’s old favorites like “The Night Before Christmas”. But today I want to tell you two different and very brief stories that can help us better understand the true significance of Christmas.

The first story, a children’s story, has a little fish who swims up to its mother one day and says, “Mom, what is this water that I hear so much about?” Laughing, she responds, “You silly little fish. Why, it’s around you and within you and gives you life. Just swim to the top of the pond and lie there for a while; then you will find out what water is.”

The other story has a little fawn who walks up to its mother and says, “Mother, what is this air I hear so much about?” Smiling, she answers, “You silly little dear. Why, air gives you life. If you want to know what air is, stick you head in the stream and you’ll find out.”

In our world, even on this Special Day, many people may ask, “Where is this Jesus we hear so much about – this Christ of Christmas?” Like water to a fish, like air to a fawn, His spirit is all about us, especially at this time of year. We have but to be aware of His presence in the giving, the joyous festivities, the beauty of decoration, the depth of feelings, the awe of worship, the sacredness of song and story, the deeds of kindness, the warmth of good will, the emotions of peace and understanding, the miracle of changed lives, experiences of forgiveness, displays of humility, acts of mercy and so forth.

As Christmas is all around us so is the Presence of Christ, if we have the eyes of faith to see Him and the heart of faith to experience Him. On this Christmas Day, may you truly be aware of what gives life and warmth to the season. May you recognize Jesus and His living presence in the world. Today join the angels of long ago in their hymn of praise, “Glory to God in the highest and peace to all His people!”

Have a holy and blessed Christmas.

Please find a place for me in your prayers.

The Christ-child lay on Mary's lap, His hair was like a light.
(O weary, weary were the world, But here is all aright.)
The Christ-child lay on Mary's breast His hair was like a star.
(O stern and cunning are the kings, But here the true hearts are.)
The Christ-child lay on Mary's Heart, His hair was like a fire.
(O weary, weary is the world, But here the world's desire.)
The Christ-child stood on Mary's knee, His hair was like a crown,
And all the flowers looked up at Him, And all the stars looked down.

FAITH FORMATION

You Are Invited!
Have you been searching for something to be involved in or kind of aimlessly trying to fill a hole? St. Augustine says our hearts are restless until they rest in the Lord. Is God calling you? Bring a friend and come find out what we are all about. We would love for you to join us! We typically meet on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 pm in Room 1. We start off with dinner, so come hungry. No need to RSVP, just drop in any time. The topics for the upcoming gatherings are listed below.

♦ Jan 8—Sacrament of Initiation- Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation presented by Dcn. Michael
♦ Jan 15—Sacraments of Service- Marriage and Holy Orders presented by Msgr. Rice

And then, there are times of great sorrow, disappointment, and fear. There are good times, and there are bad times. That’s life.

That is why, this week – and for the next several weeks that follow – we celebrate Christmas - the arrival of our savior, Jesus Christ! The Son of God who was born to an unwed mother – on the filthy floor of a barn – whose first bed was a feed-box for animals. The Son of God whose family had to sneak out in the dark of night to protect the life of the baby – and become refugees – and migrate to another country for asylum. We celebrate The King of Kings, who taught us that real happiness doesn’t come from what we get out of life, but from what we do with our lives on behalf of others. We honor the One who came to teach us that the pathway to peace is found by loving God, and loving one another. You see…life’s journey can be an experience of smooth sailing mixed-in with a lot of bumps, curves, and potholes. That’s why we travel best, when we caravan together. Caring for, and sharing with one another...in order to safely get home to our journey’s end.

Merry Christmas! Thank you for welcoming me along for this ride with you!

Deacon Chris Stark
JOY TO THE WORLD!!
by John Hannigan

As Advent ends, we’re close enough to see on the eastern horizon a most glorious Son rise to bring Light into the world. See how our God comes to meet us!

We believe that we can know God through His Creation and through divine Revelation. In an utterly free act of love, God revealed himself and gave himself to us. Christmas is celebrating this gift with a Joy that fills the world with light and the heavens with angelic song: “Glory to God in the highest and peace to his people on earth.”

This is the revealed mystery of Christmas: “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life” (John 3:16). On this Holy Night, give thanks that God fully revealed His plan by sending us his beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Even a non-believing world knows in a vague way this is a time for joy, hoped-for peace and reconciliation among people. In full light, we know the essence of Christmas is found in Jesus and why we say “Merry Christmas” from the bottom of our hearts. Here is the message of the season, the Good News to which the herald angels want us to harken:

God loves you personally and has a plan for your life. His plan includes you being perfectly happy with Him eternally in Heaven. And there is nothing you can do to make Him love you any less.

Sin separates you from God. By our fallen nature and the deceptions of the Evil One, we tend to choose our will over God’s. Redemption is necessary to make a restored life with God possible for you.

Jesus was born to bring you the Father’s love. Christmas celebrates God’s sending His Son into the world to reconcile you with Him, and to bring you His forgiveness and Mercy.

Jesus died on the cross to atone for your sins, to show the depth of His love, and to rob sin and death of its power. By rising from the dead, He made heaven possible for you.

Jesus invites you to accept His gift of salvation. Through Baptism, you share in His victory over sin. As an adopted son or daughter of God, you receive the power to live as His disciple.

Every single day, not just for 12 days, you have a chance to unwrap this Christmas gift. Over the next couple weeks we’ll look closer at some of these very good gifts.

Merry Christmas!

Merry Christmas from St. Thomas More Parish!!

Christmas is a wonderful time for us. In addition to the very special meaning of the liturgical celebration, we are always happy to see so many parishioners whose schedules may not allow them to attend Mass at our parish on a regular basis. If you are one of those who cannot visit our parish as much as you like, you might want to check out our website at https://stthomasmoretroy.org. There you will find information on activities within the parish, information on sacraments, volunteer information, and the parish calendar. You will also find an Online Giving link. When accessing the website (https://stthomasmoretroy.org) look for the orange DONATE icon. Simply click on the icon to go to the online giving program. Our online giving program allows parishioners to continue to support the parish even when they are out-of-town, too busy to remember an envelope, working weekends, or attending Mass at another parish. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe and secure way of giving, please contact Lois Sokolowski lois@stmoffice.com or call the parish office at 248-647-2222, or follow the simple instructions found on the website.

Enjoy the holiday season with your family and consider attending an event at your parish; our monthly prayer service, bible class, women’s or men’s group meeting, or just being present for our wonderful weekly Mass service with hospitality coffee afterwards.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We the Christian Community of St. Thomas More, in an atmosphere of hospitality, are dedicated to proclaiming the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ through excellence in worship, education, and service to others.

We believe that the nurturing of the community around the Eucharistic Table is extended through gatherings which further strengthen and support us. We shall pursue this mission faithfully through the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.

FOR YOUR INTEREST

+5 Days. Thousands of Catholic young adults. Over 40 inspiring speakers and entertainers. And the power and presence of God. Join young adults from the Archdiocese of Detroit, January 3-7, for SEEK 2019 hosted by FOCUS as we hope to Encounter Something More. We’ll gather with over 15,000 Catholic young adults from around the nation in Indianapolis at this leadership conference as we ask the big questions about life, love and how to discover true happiness. This conference is for you, whether you’re a college student, a professional, single or married, an active leader, or just looking to be inspired. We want as many young adults, and those who work with them, from our Archdiocese to join us if possible. If you decide to register or have questions, contact Patrick Howard at yacm@aod.org. Register at https://seek2019.com/ and when it asks “Are you attending with a registered Ambassador Group?” Click Yes and select “Archdiocese of Detroit”.

We hope you can all join us!

The Spirit of Generosity

The spirit of generosity is strong in the Archdiocese of Detroit at Christmas — and year-round through the Catholic Services Appeal.

The Archdiocese is grateful for the nearly 60,000 Christian stewards who pledged more than $25 million to the 2018 Catholic Services Appeal. These CSA gifts support valuable ministries, programs, and services that open doors so thousands can grow with Christ each day.

As you plan your year-end donations, consider benefiting your parish with a gift to the CSA. Parishes that exceed their CSA targets receive the excess funds, without archdiocesan assessment, as refunds for parish programs and projects.

To make a gift to the Catholic Services Appeal or for information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, go to aod.org.

2018 CONTRIBUTIONS

If you would like your donation to be posted to your 2018 Giving Statement, donations must be received by December 30, 2018. Donations received after December 30, 2018 will be posted to the 2019 donation record. Donations may be dropped off at the parish office during regular office hours. Please check our hours during the holidays.

---

Please remember that 100% of all Christmas donations remain with the Parish. If you are not using your Christmas envelope, please designate that it is a Christmas donation, otherwise it will be posted as weekly offertory.
