Feast of The Holy Family
A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Christmas Continues

Five days after Christmas. Probably just about everyone is exhausted from the celebration of the “Big Day” itself. That’s why we need to be reminded that Christmas is not just a day, it is a season, and we are now in the midst of the Christmas season and are celebrating a profound mystery. The remembrance of the true meaning of Christmas, the coming of the Son of God to us, and for us, should have great significance for us all. If the Christmas feast helps us know Christ’s presence in a deeper way, then we are truly blessed. Hopefully, too, the spiritual richness that permeates the Church’s liturgical celebrations of these special days will be brought into our homes, families, and our personal experiences.

Focus on Families

Today is in fact the Feast of the Holy Family. On the Sunday that follows Christmas the Church always celebrates the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph; a family that brought great joy to the world but also knew the challenges and even painful experiences of family life.

The difficulties that face our families today have never been greater. Families need more than ever to focus on the qualities of the Holy Family and try to bring them into the practice of their own family life. Prayer should be an essential part of each family’s spiritual growth. So, today on this Feast of the Holy Family, I offer the following prayer “God made us a family” to all the families of our parish, with my personal prayer that in the coming new year of God’s grace, they will be strengthened in His abiding love for them.

A Family Prayer

God made us family.
We need one another. We love one another.
We forgive one another.
We work together. We play together.
We worship together.
Together we use God’s word. Together we grow in Christ.
Together we love all people. Together we serve our God.
Together we hope for heaven.
These are our hopes and ideals. Help us to attain them, O God, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord!
Enjoy a wonderful week of Christmastide. Please find a place for me in your prayers.

PATHWAYS TO PEACE

BY DEACON CHRISTOPHER STARK

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!! May the change in the calendar represent for us another new year of possibilities, opportunities, and hope!

I always think of the New Year as an opportunity for a kind of psychological re-start of my mind and spirit with regard to wishes, dreams, and responsibilities. “What are my expectations and desires for the coming year?” “What can I do better, faster, more responsibly?” “What challenges and rewards can I hope to achieve?”

There’s the basics…I still want to beat my son Joey in golf. (The summer of 2018 was his first year of getting me...until the end of the season, when it ‘counted’ the Super Bowl of father-son competition – our annual Thanksgiving Day round of golf, “The Turkey Trot Open”...I got him by a stroke!) I’ll be 54 this year, and he’ll be 20...wish me luck in the year ahead! I’m trending well on my healthier living choices. I’ve lost 30 lbs. in 2018, and I plan to lose another 50 lbs. in 2019. After a lifetime of battling the bulge – I’ve discovered the fundamental truth of more healthful eating is to reduce carbohydrate intake, document everything I consume, and weigh myself on a regular basis. Those are the 3 ingredients to successful weight-loss for me…fall out of synch, and no success – stick to those three behaviors, and I’m good. So far, so good! That’s really all I want for “me” in 2019…to stay competitive, and to stay the course in healthier living.

Here’s what I want for those I love. I want to be more present to God, my family, and my friends in 2019. Which translates into less distractions like tv and social media… and more direct interaction. My work requires that I travel a considerable amount of time – so when I am home, I need to ‘BE’ home. I vow to unclutter in 2019…I have boxes and boxes…and boxes of ‘stuff’ that needs to be donated to St Vincent de Paul, recycled, or land-filled. Period. I’ve always had a hard time of ‘letting go’ of the past. I’m a nostalgia-nerd. I’ve held on to things that mean nothing to nobody… I’ve got to let it go! They’re just things. My things do not know me, they do not care about me…they do not love me. I don’t have ‘them’ – ‘they’ve’ got me! 2019 is going to a time of cleansing.

As a Roman Catholic Christian – the things that matter the most are my relationship with God, and my relationship with the rest of humanity. It would be trite of me to say, “I’m going to pray more in 2019...”

Mary, Holy Mother of God

January 1, 2019

Let us strive to be pure and holy like our Heavenly Mother. All mothers want their children to inherit or acquire their good qualities. Our Heavenly Mother is no exception. With Joseph, she succeeded in training the Child Jesus, so that He grew in holiness and in “favor before God and man.” Hence, our best way of celebrating this feast and honoring our Heavenly Mother would be to promise her that we will practice her virtues of Faith, obedience, purity and humble service. In this way, we will be trying to become the saintly sons and daughters of our Heavenly Mother, the Holy Mother of God.
Lord make the New Year a happy one...

Not by shielding us from sorrow and pain, but by strengthening us to bear it if it comes.

Not by taking hardship from us, but by taking all cowardice and fear from our hearts as we meet hardships.

Not by making our paths easy, but by making us sturdy enough to tread any path.

Not by granting unbroken sunshine, but by keeping our faces bright even in the shadows.

Not by making our lives always pleasant, but by showing us where others and Your cause need us most and by making us zealous to be there and to help…

God, make our year a happy one!

Thank you to the Choir, Cantors and Musicians for giving your time at Christmas to celebrate the Nativity of the Lord.

Hi, my name is Andreas Fathalla, I am 16 years old, a junior at Avondale High School and in the National Honor Society. I am on the tennis and track team. In the summer I like to spend time biking and kayaking. Since I was a kid, my grandmother has been a big influence on my religious beliefs and practices. Whenever I would come to Michigan to visit her from where I lived in New York, I would come to Mass with her and my family. The more I learned about Christianity, the more I wanted to become a better Catholic. I moved to Michigan in 2012 and started attending Mass every Sunday. I’ve considered myself Catholic ever since I understood what that meant, but I’ve just recently learned that I needed to go through the RCIA process to become a confirmed Catholic. I look forward to learning throughout this process leading up to my confirmation this upcoming Easter.

My name is Abigail and I’m 10 years old. I live with my mom and dad and I have a twelve year old brother, Drew. We also have a dog named Gracie. I’m in 5th grade, play soccer for a travel league, I love to draw, and hang out with my cousins Rory and Aidan.

Hi my name is Jessica. I have chosen to come back to church and be baptized to get closer to God. I have been a registered nurse for three years. I spent most of my nursing career in the Emergency department at Royal Oak Beaumont. Currently, I will be starting a Nurse Practitioner program at U of M.

Hi, my name is Paul. I grew up in France as a Catholic and came to the United States a year ago to work as an engineer in the automotive industry. I have chosen to be confirmed so that I can be fully initiated into the Catholic Church. I want to grow my faith and receive the force of the Holy Spirit. Being in a new country, and going to church gives me a sense of community.

What I do hope, is that as a result of 2019, I will become more mindful that all of my life’s actions are a form of prayer. That my action (or in-action) is either toward God’s will or my own selfish failings… I aspire to be intentional in my actions being God-centered, and not self-centered. When I fail – I will confess my sins more frequently and more completely. 2019 will be holy, to the degree that I treat my God, family, friends, colleagues, and everyone that I encounter within day-to-day life with reverence and holiness. Life can no longer be, ‘what’s in it for me?’… but to what degree do I allow Christ to live, act, and be within me? (Gal. 2:20)

Finally – I hope to become a better servant to you in 2019. That’s what being a deacon means – servant. Preaching, teaching, sharing, and serving the Gospel of Jesus Christ with you and our community. Please continue to remember my family and me in your prayers. Know that you are in mine!

Happy New Year! Peace!

Dcn. Chris

Marriage and Family Ministry

This Sunday marks the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph — and is a celebration of the family. Your CSA gifts help support families at all stages.

Catholic marriage is a vocation, a calling from God. Programs and services of the archdiocesan Marriage and Family Ministry Office include marriage preparation, Natural Family Planning, and Women’s Ministry. Resources are also available for family and marriage support, those experiencing separation and divorce, and the culture of life.

For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, go to aod.org.

The Holy Family Tree
by John Hannigan

You’ve likely seen ads for DNA tests that promise to reveal your ancestry and show how closely you are related to family members. In some cases, people may learn the genetic relationships are remote. On today’s Feast, we can reflect on what it means to be a Holy Family.

One one hand, the Holy Family is like no other. The baby was the Son of God; the mother remained a virgin who conceived when she was “overshadowed” by the Holy Spirit. On the other hand, the Holy Family was like many others. The baby was born in poverty; the mother a not-yet married teenager when she became pregnant; St. Joseph was the child’s adoptive father; and they had to emigrate to be safe. How would that family map out in a DNA test? DNA does not make a family; personal relationships do. It is our relationship with the Son of God which makes each one of us an adopted daughter or son of God.

I have cousins who were adopted, with love, into my extended family. Some close relatives were “given up” in adoption, also out of love, to families who received them in love. Only last summer I learned that my paternal grandfather was adopted. DNA ancestry can certainly be very interesting, but heritage and loving relationships are what we cherish. For me, a strong connection to my Irish-Catholic family is part of who I am, regardless of Tom Hannigan’s DNA.

Most importantly, no matter what our earthly families look like, no matter how large or small they are, each unique, unrepeatable, individual person is born into God’s family when they are baptized. All are brothers and sisters of the Lord. Each one is invited to a heritage of love and to embrace being adopted sons and daughters of God. This is why Jesus was born in Bethlehem, died on the Cross, and rose again. Scripture is rich with the language of adoption: “Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God ... You received a spirit of adoption, through which we cry, “Abba, Father!” The Spirit itself bears witness ... that we are children of God, and ... joint heirs with Christ” (Rom 8:14-17; see also: Eph 1:3-6; Gal 4:4-5; 2 Cor 6:17-18).

Our parish family can be a place for enriching our loving relationship with our brother Jesus. Pray to our Blessed Mother and to St. Joseph for help in being holy sons and daughters of God, to help us know the love of our Father in heaven, and to do His will.

Stewardship

Time, Talent and Treasure

Giving Like the Magi

In 2010, Archbishop Robert Carlson asked Catholics throughout our Archdiocese to pray one simple prayer. “Lord, what do You want me to do with all the gifts You have given to me?”

In 2011, we were asked to pray, “Lord, how would You like me to become more fully involved in the life of Your Church.”

If you find it difficult to remember to begin each day with a simple stewardship prayer – asking God how He wants you to share the gifts He has given you – you might want to let one of the Magi be your reminder.

The Magi – or three wise men – traveled far distances and made great sacrifices to bring gifts to Jesus. This year, before you pack away your nativity set, select one of the wise men bearing his gift for Jesus and set this statue in a place that you will see every day – maybe on your desk, your dresser or your kitchen counter. When you see this gift bearer let it be a reminder to ask Jesus what gifts He would like you to give for Him each day throughout the year.

And if someone asks why you still have a Christmas decoration out, you can simply say that this little statue is reminding you to be more generous.

Parish Mission Statement

We the Christian Community of St. Thomas More, in an atmosphere of hospitality, are dedicated to proclaiming the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ through excellence in worship, education, and service to others.

We believe that the nurturing of the community around the Eucharistic Table is extended through gatherings which further strengthen and support us. We shall pursue this mission faithfully through the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.
Three wise men were searching for Jesus. They traveled from very far away to meet him. They followed a star and finally found him in Bethlehem. They adored him and gave him special gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. What gift would you like to give to Jesus this year?
