“I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:34-35
CONFIRMATION DAY

We welcome Bishop Walter Hurley who will preside over the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation at the 7:00pm Mass on Wednesday, May 22nd. Forty of our Faith Formation students are receiving Confirmation and I want to extend special congratulations to all of them. We are very proud of each of them as they receive the great gift of the Holy Spirit. I am especially grateful to Ms. Josylin Mateus, our Director of Faith Formation, Mrs. Sandi Gardner, our Faith Formation Coordinator, and our talented and dedicated Catechists, and to the parents and sponsors of the Candidates who made such great efforts to share their faith with these young people.

The contemporary American environment and culture in which these young men and women are living and growing doesn’t always support the values Christ teaches us, especially the dignity and sanctity of human life.

Our Confirmation candidates are approaching the time in their life when the ability to make good decisions based on Christian principles will be very important for them. As each year passes they will have to make more and more decisions about their attitudes and actions themselves. Parents, teachers, and other adults can’t make their decisions for them. They can support, advise, pray and encourage; however, decisions ultimately rest with the individual. It is our hope and prayer that the conferral of the Holy Spirit at Confirmation will help and strengthen these special young people as they make choices that reflect their commitment to Christ and their faith throughout their lives.

CSA UPDATE

The annual Catholic Services Appeal continues this week. We are presently at $54,548 of our $200,000 target. This represents the contributions of 193 parishioners. I want to thank all those who have already made a pledge or donation and encourage those who have not yet participated to join their fellow parishioners in CSA 2019.

This request is only made once a year and we are asked to be generous in our response. If you are unsure of your participation, you may be asking. “Why do we have the CSA? Why are we asked to support it?”

It’s college graduation season. I love it. It’s a time of nostalgia...and a time of new beginnings! It’s a time that our young people have been working toward since they were five years-old. It’s a time for parents to be acknowledged too, for a job well-done! It’s fitting that graduation season falls into the same natural season as the flowering of the world around us. There’s so much pent-up potential and opportunity coursing through the hearts and minds of our young people...it’s finally time to let ‘em lose on the world! Blossom and bloom graduates...the world is your oyster!

My first job out of college was working for the HQ of my college fraternity, Sigma Nu. My job was to travel across the United States and visit colleges and universities to audit and encourage our Sigma Nu chapters. It was a great first job...and a great way to learn self-reliance on the road, and how to navigate long-distance travel...by air and by car.

Back then, 1988, there were no smart phones, no GPS...just a Rand-McNally Road Map, an itinerary, a credit card, and some spare change for toll-roads. And off I went.

Just as I was completing my initial training in Virginia – and heading out on my own, a new song was being played on the radio...Bobby McFerrin’s one-hit-wonder, “Don’t Worry, Be Happy.” At the time, it sorta became my mantra or credo...I hadn’t really had my own spiritual awakening yet, but the words seemed to give me a sense of peace. “In every life we have some trouble, but when you worry you make it double...don’t worry, be happy (don’t worry, be happy now!)...” “Cause when you worry your face will frown and that will bring everybody down so Don’t Worry... Be Happy.”

I’m no longer the 22 year-old kid driving across the US and visiting college campuses. I’m the 54 year-old deacon traveling across the US, visiting diocese and religious communities on behalf of Guest House. There’s a ton of things I could be worrying about. Getting on airplanes every week. My daughter commuting every day for graduate school. My son playing football, and hoping he doesn’t get his head handed to him. My youngest daughter being in middle-school with all of its challenges and drama.

There’s so much of life that can seem to crush us, and immobilize us with fright...if we choose to let it.

Got Life Questions?

Ever stop and think, “There has to be more to life than chasing my ‘to do’ list.” Well, there is. Bring your questions, and discover how Jesus has a plan for each one of us individually that leads to the fullness of a life well lived. Or do you know someone not baptized or baptized in a different faith tradition, who is thirsting for what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation and/or Communion? Call Josylin Mateus for more information at 248-647-4680 or email at josylin@stmoffice.com.

Thank you to the wonderful women who attended our Spring Tea on May 8. Mary Wilkerson gave a wonderful presentation on JOY in our everyday life. Thank you also for the free-will donation from that evening. It will help future STM Women’s Ministry events, such as the upcoming Ladies’ Night Out Luau on July 17th. Save the date!

Rosary to Honor

Our Blessed Mother, Mary

Through the month of May – dedicated to our Blessed Mother – you are encouraged to come to Mass twenty-five minutes early, and join in the praying of the Rosary with Deacons Chris and Michael, along with our diaconate intern, Mike Van Dyke. Please join us and your fellow parishioners for a rosary to consecrate your day to the intentions of “Our Blessed Mother, Mary”
The readings for this Fifth Sunday of Easter tell how the Apostles unleashed the Gospel in the first century (Acts 14:21-27), how the Kingdom was revealed to John as an intimate relationship between God and His people (Rev 21:1-5a), and how we are to participate in the Kingdom in our time by following Christ’s “new commandment: Love one another. As I have loved, so you also should love one another” (John 13:34-35).

“As I have loved.” That is hard for us. We look at the Cross and see how Jesus loved sacrificially. We forget the self-sacrificing part yet we accept this as a calling when we pray to the Father, “Thy will be done.”

I searched Google for an image to illustrate John 13:34-35. The first 67 images were mostly sweet pictures of hearts, sunsets and roses. Not until the 68th image did I find the Crucifixion. Jesus asks of us as His disciples to be holy: “This is the will of God: Your holiness” (1Thess 4:3), and hard love is the Way.

Over the past 3 weeks, 24 people discussed Matthew Kelly’s book The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity. The “big lie” is that you can’t be a saint and can’t love as God wills. The lie is fed by Satan, the Father of Lies, who tries to convince us we are not worthy and shouldn’t even try to be holy. The lie is reinforced by a culture that doesn’t believe and by our own sinfulness and doubts.

The truth is you can be holy because Jesus died on the Cross and is Risen, and “Behold, God’s dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people” (Rev 21:3). You can become holy by allowing God to dwell in you, by cooperating with Grace through the Sacraments, and by nurturing a personal relationship with Jesus through prayer and reflective reading of Scripture. You can grow in holiness and can sacrificially love those around you.

The group discussions helped folks identify the challenges we face and know we are not alone. Just as Peter “strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith” (Acts 12:22), we encourage each other. You can “become the saint next door” one step at a time, one “holy moment” after another (as Kelly put it), one unselfish act of love right now to help someone undergo hardship, know Christ, and enter the kingdom of God. If growing in holiness is not part of your daily life, if sacrificial love is not a habit, turn to The One on the throne who said “Behold, I make all things new … [and] these words … are trustworthy and true” (Rev 21:5).

In Our Parish

If we turn to Scriptures we will find the answer. In the Acts of the Apostles we see that from the very beginning the Christian Community would unite in pooling their funds to help others both within and beyond their community. Such common effort is part of what it means to be a Church. This is true whether we are supporting the church at the local level of our parish, or the larger level of the Archdiocese.

Even if we did not benefit in any way from the CSA, it should be something we support generously. The fact that we all benefit, directly or indirectly from the CSA makes the cause even more compelling. So thank you for your consideration on behalf of the CSA.

Have a wonderful week and lets keep each other in prayer.

I encourage you to choose to trust. To have faith that you were created by a deliberate choice of your Creator; who has a plan for you and your well-being. Life will deal us some formidable challenges...our God is greater than any problem that we face. Even death. That’s why there’s no reason to fear...God is in charge of this life...and the next.

“Be not afraid!!!”

Sometimes...to trust...means to let go. Let go of your fears and inhibitions. Let go of anything, or anyone who is holding you back from what you know to be your calling in life. From our faith’s perspective – that would mean...drop whatever is distracting you from God. Let God be the center of your life. Life is not about social status, or wealth, or power, or ranking. Life is about loving, sharing, caring...and being with those whom you love. Love your God, your family and your friends. And love those who need you the most. Be loving to the homeless, the lonely, the hungry, and those whose lives you have an opportunity to touch.

Don’t worry – be happy! Let go and let God. Trust that He has a plan for you. You were created to blossom and bloom. Bloom where you’re planted!

Deacon Chris

Geraniums for Pentecost

In the Catholic Church red is the liturgical color for Pentecost, the altar cloth and priest’s vestment will be red for the day. As depicted in Acts 2:33-36, red symbolizes the fire of the Holy Spirit as he descends upon the Apostles.

We would like to have red flowers on the altar and in the gathering space again this year to enhance the worship environment and make visible the joy of the Holy Spirit. Please consider making a donation of geraniums. The pots can be any size, single geraniums to bigger pots- preferably in pots that can be planted. Bring to church during the week before Saturday, June 8th or to Mass on Saturday and Sunday, June 8th & 9th. People will be present to assist in placing the plants.

If you are available on THURSDAY, June 13, join us at 6:00pm at the parish to plant the geraniums – your donation will be part of the summer landscaping! Many hands will make light work of planting the flowers in specific areas around the parish grounds. There will also be a light dinner (hot dogs & chips) served for volunteers. Hope you can join us for planting. Let the parish office know if you will attend so we have an approximate count for dinner. If inclement weather Thursday, June 13th we will plant on Tuesday, June 18th.
