 PATHWAYS TO PEACE
BY DEACON CHRISTOPHER STARK

When I was a boy…I had dreams of glory…glory on the gridiron…glory in outer-space…and glory on the battlefield. The books that I read and the shows that I watched all had something to do with heroic champions – winning the big game, vanquishing the enemy…and boldly going where no one had gone before…

Then, as a teenager and college student – I dreamt of being politically active. Saving the US from communism, and outwitting my political adversaries. I wanted to take on the world…and I wanted everyone to see things how I saw them… The question that perplexed me – all of the time – was, “why can’t people just simply see with the same clarity as me of all that is right and wrong with the world – and the obvious fixes necessary to make things right?!”

How naive. It’s almost cute…if it weren’t that it’s so pathetic.

I’m still attracted to heroic glory. I get a lump in my throat when Vets march by with the flag during my hometown’s July 4th parade. I’m obsessed with watching my son and his teammates play football at Hope College. And…I love hearing the news that we’re working to get back to the moon again in my lifetime. I was just 4 years-old when Neil Armstrong first stepped out onto the moon… I hope to see it happen again as an adult.

What’s changed? Well, at least in the stream of consciousness that runs through my brain…and in my heart…I believe that I’m making the turn toward it ‘no longer being about me.’ It’s not about MY heroism…or MY glory. My sense of conversion is never going to be complete…I’m off on a journey, not toward any particular destination… because I’m in a constant state of change. I’m hoping to continue becoming the man that I was created to become. To be. Not to my own personal satisfaction…or to my own glory…but as a reflection of the love that I’ve been so freely given by my Creator. What I’m trying to outline here…is an example of my own, personal, pathway to peace.

You see, you’re on a journey, too. You have been created to be just who you are. The same Creator of the universe…the Creator of every star in the heavens, of every grain of sand on all of the beaches, on ALL of the planets in the cosmos…created you. God created YOU, to be you – just as He had hoped that YOU would become.

6th Sunday of Easter

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God” everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us; God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins. 1JN 4:7-10

PRAY FOR MEMORIAL DAY

O God, by whose mercy the faithful departed find rest, look kindly on Your departed veterans who gave their lives in the service of their country. Grant that through the passion, death, and resurrection of Your Son they may share in the joy of Your heavenly kingdom and rejoice in You with Your saints forever. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GOT LIFE QUESTIONS?

Ever stop and think, “There has to be more to life than chasing my ‘to do’ list.” Well, there is. Bring your questions, and discover how Jesus has a plan for each one of us individually that leads to the fullness of a life well lived. Or do you know someone not baptized or baptized in a different faith tradition, who is thirsting for what it means to become Catholic? Do you know someone already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation and/or Communion? Call Josylin Mateus for more information at 248-647-4680 or email at josylin@stmoffice.com.

SAVE THE DATE: August 5-9, 2019

On May 26 it will be one month that my dad has passed away. I am touched by all the kind words, prayers, cards, and Masses extended to my family and me from the parishioners of St. Thomas More. They have truly helped us in this difficult time. I am ever grateful and feel very blessed to be a part of such a caring community. Please say a prayer for my mom, as she struggles with losing her best friend. They would have been married for sixty years this December 30th.

TO ST. THOMAS MORE

Parish Council Open Positions

St. Thomas More Parish is in need of 2 new members for the Parish Council. Term of service is 3 years. To be considered for Parish Council you should be an active, practicing Catholic and parish member at least 16 years old.

Please consider serving the parish in this very important ministry.
Sundays: For the Lord and for Families
by John Hannigan

On May 15th, Archbishop Vigneron released a Pastoral Note, The Day of the Lord, expanding on Unleash the Gospel. (The Note is posted on the STM website.) He reminds us that “one of the clearest calls from Synod 16 was for our Church to reclaim Sunday as a day set apart for the Lord, for family and for works of mercy.” He asks us, as a parish, as families, and as individuals, to be “committed to setting aside this day as much as possible for God-centered pursuits.” Sunday is not just another day. Every Sunday is a mini-Easter. Sunday is first a day for worship as a community, “done most perfectly in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.” Of course we are obligated to attend Sunday Mass or its Saturday vigil. But our duty to keep Sunday holy goes beyond sharing the Eucharist, “the heart of Sunday.”

Sunday is a day for rest from work. Of course, some of us are obligated to work but, as much as possible, we are called to imitate God who also rested from His labors. Sundays are a gift made for us (Luke 2:27). The Note reminds us to “put aside the worldly pursuits which … [can] too often become a distraction from what is ultimately important.” Sunday is a day for leisure “to be intentionally interrupted from our earthly work to call to mind the … things of heaven.”

Yes, for some working in the yard or garden can be a leisurely time to reflect on God’s Creation, but mowing the lawn can give the impression to others that it is just another workday. Spending time with friends and family over Sunday dinner, or some other activity that raises your mind to God’s truth and the beauty of creation can refresh our souls.

The secular culture is organized as if Sunday is just another day. We, too, may fail to regard Sunday as unique. We are pressured to fill Sunday with work. Organized sports for our children regularly schedule practice and games on Sundays. It takes special effort to be countercultural, but that is exactly what Unleash the Gospel asks us to do as witnesses for Christ.

In The Day of the Lord, Vigneron declares “one particular way we are committed to this ‘strikingly countercultural way of living’” is to “cease sporting events on Sunday.” All AOD grade school and high school “competitive athletic programs … are called to no longer play games or conduct practices on the Lord’s Day.” That includes games played against non-Catholic schools. Imagine. This can start a change in the wider culture if Catholic and other Christian families reject Sundays as ordinary and refuse to have public athletic activities on the Lord’s Day.

Stewardship Reflection
Sixth Sunday of Easter

Don’t be caught Dead…..Plan Ahead

We have a very worthwhile presentation planned for June 1st after the Saturday mass. A light dinner will be served then we will have speakers talking about what you can do to preplan your wishes. There are several topics that will be discussed including:

1. Planned Giving options, Charitable Foundations – Mark Steinberg, CFP, CRPC
2. Legal Documentation you need – Daniel Shirey (a parishioner)
3. What is a Catholic funeral? – Deacon Michael Stach
4. Cemetery Planning – Someone from the AOD
5. Funeral Home Planning – Desmond/Lynch

I remember when my Mom passed a few years ago and my sisters and I had to make all the arrangements. It sure would have been nice to know what my Mom specifically wanted beforehand. This presentation will give you an idea of the things you can do to preplan your wishes so that your family doesn’t have to guess at what you would have liked.

This event is co-sponsored by the South Oakland Vicariate.
Diane Claeys, Stewardship Commission

Do You Have a Few Hours?

Do you have some extra hours on Monday morning that you could donate to help those in need? The St. Thomas More St. Vincent de Paul Organization is in need of someone to pick up donated food from Whole Foods on Maple Road and deliver to Lighthouse of Oakland County in Pontiac. If a few people would volunteer, this wouldn’t be an every week commitment.

St. Vincent de Paul is also looking for new members. The role of a member is to work with those in need that contact the organization for assistance. For more information on the role of a St. Vincent de Paul member, please contact Caroline Dunleavy at 248-641-5185.

Christian Service Stewardship

You and me…we have a destiny. Not to remain ‘satisfied’ and stagnant throughout life…but to continue to reach, to stretch, to move in a direction that draws us closer to God…and to one another.

The dreams of glory that I have are no longer pre-occupied with battlefields, space-ships, or football games. They’re dreams of having a strong and loving marriage. Of caring for the sick, homebound, and homeless. Welcoming the stranger, and encouraging our youth to come to know and love the same God who created, knows and loves them. They are dreams of sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ to this community – and allowing our community to be a beacon of hope and a witness of love to a world that is self-absorbed with aspirations of personal power, and glory.

Finally, this Memorial Day weekend…let’s pay our respects to those who’ve sacrificed so much, so that we may have the freedom to dream dreams. Let’s honor our men and women in uniform who have died in the service of freedom - by resolving ourselves to act on behalf of the common good, and the dignity of the human person. May our children not have to go off and fight any more wars; may our children no longer have to fear death in the womb; and may our children be able to go to safe schools, places of work, and live in neighborhoods, where they no longer have to fear gun violence.

Peace!
Dcn. Chris

CAMP SANCTA MARIA

Camp Sancta Maria is honored to have a role in the process of forming young Christian lives.

At Camp Sancta Maria, your son will experience 1 – 2 weeks full of fun, personal growth and spiritual development in a technology free zone. Their time at camp is filled with activities for everyone: horseback riding, swimming, ropes course, sports, arts and crafts and more.

But most importantly, their time at CSM balances out the physical activities with a strong spiritual environment, with campers attending daily Mass, praying the angelus and having quiet time to reflect on their relationship with Christ.

To learn more about Camp Sancta Maria or to register, visit CampSanctaMaria.aod.org.

Geraniums for Pentecost

In the Catholic Church red is the liturgical color for Pentecost, the altar cloth and priest’s vestment will be red for the day. As depicted in Acts 2:33-36, red symbolizes the fire of the Holy Spirit as he descends upon the Apostles.

We would like to have red flowers on the altar and in the gathering space again this year to enhance the worship environment and make visible the joy of the Holy Spirit. Please consider making a donation of geraniums. The pots can be any size, single geraniums to bigger pots-preferably in pots that can be planted. Bring to church during the week before Saturday, June 8th or to Mass on Saturday and Sunday, June 8th & 9th. People will be present to assist in placing the plants.

If you are available on THURSDAY, June 13th, join us at 6:00pm at the parish to plant the geraniums – your donation will be part of the summer landscaping! Many hands will make light work of planting the flowers in specific areas around the parish grounds. There will also be a light dinner (hot dogs & chips) served for volunteers. Hope you can join us for planting. Let the parish office know if you will attend so we have an approximate count for dinner. If inclement weather Thursday, June 13th we will plant on Tuesday, June 18th.

The Day of the Lord: An Unleash the Gospel Pastoral Note from Archbishop Vigneron

In his latest pastoral note to the faithful, entitled The Day of the Lord, Archbishop Vigneron encourages the faithful to “reclaim Sunday as a day set apart for the Lord, the family and for works of mercy” in recognition of Christ’s resurrection, the pouring out of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost Sunday and the first “rest” of God after the work of creation.

In the pastoral note, Archbishop Vigneron also announced a new policy to cease youth sporting activities on Sundays. This re-commitment to honoring Sunday is rooted in Synod 16 when the faithful of the archdiocese expressed their desire to rededicate Sunday to worship, rest and family time.
